THE President's Message has been quite faworably received. Its tone, while not radical,

GARRET DAVIS has been elected to fill the Breckinridge.

MAJ. KILBOURNE advertises for a few more an early day.

THE report that Thad. Stevens, of this State, had said in a Republican caucus in Washington "that, after Mr. Cameron's Report had been accepted by the President, Gen. McClelbefore being sent into Congress," is contradicted by Mr. Stevens.

Fremont appointing his officers in Missouri without any permission from the President, he was promised commissions for all officers he would find necessary to appoint. Thus, fact by fact, will the Hero of Missouri be freed from the miserable charges preferred against him by his enemies.

Gov. Chase announces the true economic doctrine, in respect to the slaves of the rebels. whose confiscation he approves and advises, viz: that their labor will be most profitable to the country by making them free. The anteeedents of Goz. Chase render it quite certain that he favors the liberation of such slaves upon all grounds, but we are glad to find him expressing the opinion, that even with the view limited to profit merely, in a large and national sense, it is for the true interest of the SAVED HIS BACON .- The editor of the Huntingdon "Globe" came well nigh "pegging out" on reading the news from Pikeville and Beaufort, and only saved his bacon by letting off the following superfluities. Sound the Tonjen! Blow the Hewgag! Agitate the Viol Stir the Organ Pulsate the Cymbal! Execute the Psaltery! Blow the Trumpet! . Wield the Tabret! Disturb the Timbrel! Flourish the Shemeneth! Flicker on the Squawker! Wriggle the Horse Fiddle! Jostle the Bell! Perturbate the Tin Instruments! Let the Cannon Thunder! And the People shout! Glory Hallelujah!

WE print this week the Reports of Messrs. Secretaries Cameron and Welles, and will publish the remaining Reports as we find room. The Report of Mr. Cameron is one of the ablest which has emanated from that Department. Some months since fault was found in many quarters with the course he pursued, but that soon changed to admiration when they saw the energy and ability displayed in all that pertained to his Department, and this his first report establishes firmly and permanently the COATED on Main St., or report establishes firmly and permanently the confidence with the people necessary to a successful administration. His position in re- Repaired on short notice and warranted to gard to the disposal of the Rebel's slave pro- give satisfaction. perty meets the hearty approbation of the Anti-Slavery portion of the country and shows that while being "conservative" he can yet be true to the real wants of the country.

Charleston Burned!

FORTRESS MORROE, Dec. 13 .- An incendiary fire broke out in Charleston at 9 o'clock on the evening of the 11th and at 5 c'clock the next day it was still raging.

Nearly all that part of the city from Broad street on the South-East Bay on the east, and King street on the west, is said to be destroyed, including the Catholic Cathedral, the Circular Church Institute, St. Andrew's Hall, the Theater, and the Executive Rooms.
