All communications, to receive attention, must be directed to the Editor, and contain the name of the writer. No attention paid to anonymous communications.
TERMS.—One copy, one year, $1; Six copies $5; Twelve copies, $10; Twenty copies, $18, with one to the person raising the Club. The money must accompany the names.

Coudersport, Wednesday Evening, Dec. 23, 1861
Six New Advertisements.

A good Shoemaker is wanted by J. Danhof.
The Home Journal for 1862 offers new inducements to its many old subscribers to renew for the coming year.

In another column will be found a letter from H. Kinney of this county but who is now in the New York State service. Capt. Kinney took from Potter over thirty men.

The Knickerbocker issues a new prospectus. With the additional editors lately added, it now promises to be even better than it was in past years. See Advertisement.

We print this week the Reports of Messrs. Blair, Chase and Smith. We commend them to the careful perusal of our readers. They exhibit a very healthy state of Government considering the condition of our home and foreign relations.

We learn that Almon Burdick of Capt. Jones' company died on the 18th of the first death in this company. We hear young Burdick spoken of as a fine young man and a good soldier. Our correspondent will no doubt give us the full particulars of his death.

Monday we had the first snow of any account. We hope soon to hear of good sleighing and a rush of subscribers for the Journal. Business is getting much better in the county. Our merchants are doing a good business, as our advertising columns show.

MAJ. KILBOURNE advertises for a few more recruits for the Tioiga Companies in the 45th Regiment, soon to start for the "Sunny South." Any one wishing to join this Regiment can do so by reporting themselves in Coudersport early this week. Maj. Kilbourne will remain in the County for a short time only. He is under orders of Maj.-Gen. Wool.

CONTESTED SEATS.—In the House of Representatives, Herman Baugh, proposes to contest the seat of John McMakin, of the Sixth Legislative district. Mr. Meyers, of Adams county, intends contesting the seat of Mr. Buzby. Mr. Chessna, of Bedford county, will contest the seat of Mr. Householder, and that the seats of two other members will probably be contested.

According to a pretty general custom of not publishing Christmas or New Year's week, there will be no paper issued from this office next week. In the meantime we hope our friends will endeavor to procure for us a goodly number of new subscribers to commence the New Year with. We will endeavor to make the Journal well worth the patronage of the people of the county.

G. P. PUTNAM, formerly publisher of Putnam's Monthly, (in its last numbers one of the best magazines ever published) and J. R. Gilmore, the present publisher of the Knickerbocker have issued a new $3.00 magazine—The Continental Monthly—which will be published on the same principles as the two first mentioned works. The well-known reputation of these publishers commend the magazine to general favor. The January number is well worth a foremost place among the magazines of the country.

TO PRESERVE YOUR HUSBAND'S TEMPER.—Ladies, if you would always have your husbands come home to their meals in good humor use only D. B. De Land & Co.'s Chemical Saleratus and then you will be enabled at all times to place before them perfectly light, nutritious and healthy bread, biscuit, &c. If you doubt it, get a paper and try it. It is manufactured and for sale by the proprietors, at Fairport, Monroe County, N. Y., and for sale by all good grocers and dealers in the county.

Court commenced on Monday. We go to press at too early a day to record its official proceedings. Judge R. G. White takes the chair for another term; and if in this term of office he is as successful as he was in his last, the people of the county will have cause for rejoicing at his re-election. The Associate Judges G. G. Colvin and Charles S. Jones also took their seats. The last named has entered upon the duties of his position for the first time, and all we have to say of him is, that if he don't make a good Judge we won't vote for him again. But we guess he'll do

None but a physician knows how much a reliable alternative is needed by the people. On all sides of us, in all communities everywhere there are multitudes that suffer from complaints that nothing but an alternative cure. Hence a great many of them have been cured and put abroad with the assurance of being effectual. But they fail to accomplish the cures they promise because they have not the intrinsic virtues they claim. In this state of the case, Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., of Lowell, have supplied us with a compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, which does prove to be the long desired remedy. Its peculiar difference from other kindred preparations in market is that it cures the diseases for which it is recommended, while they do not. We are assured of this fact by more than one of our intelligent Physicians in this neighborhood and have the further evidence of our own experience of its truth. —Tennessee Farmer, Nashville, Tenn.

Extensive slave insurrections are reported throughout the South, especially in Mississippi, where over One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars worth of property is reported to have been destroyed on the Quitman estate alone. This is only the beginning of the end.
The burning of Charleston is a sure thing. The Confederate Congress appropriated $250,000 for the relief of the sufferers, and several of the Southern States have also made appropriations for the same purpose. Loss, by the fire, about SEVEN MILLIONS.

We take the following from the Tioiga Agriculturist of last week:
The Volunteers of that county had sent home $1700.
One school house, one engine house, two stores, one foundry, and fifteen dwelling houses have been erected in Wellsboro this year.
On the night of the 18th a fire was discovered in the buildings occupied by O. L. Sears, Wm. Roberts and Clark Wilcox on Main street in Wellsboro. The flames spread with great rapidity and the whole line of stores from Bowen & Co.'s, down to Kimball's Harness Shop were in a few minutes beyond the hope of safety.
Estimated loss of property $23,000. Insurance on same, estimated at $8,000. There are several theories as to the origin of the fire, but all agree that it was accidental.

NATIONAL FAMILY NEWSPAPER.
THE HOME JOURNAL FOR 1862.
MORRIS AND WILLIS, EDITORS.

A new series of this universally popular family newspaper will be commenced on the fourth day of January next—printed, as heretofore, on the finest of paper and with the best of type.
Besides the incessant labors of the editors on the various departments of the paper, the beautiful story by an American Wife, called CHRISTINE, which has never been equalled by any similar publication, and the LOOKINGS-ON AT THE WAR. In this series of sketches Mr. Willis will continue to give such better studied and more deliberate views of the great movements as are impossible to the haste of writers for the daily papers, including, of course, sketches of the prominent men, and descriptions of the most stirring scenes at the seat of war.

A number of other Attractive and Rare features will be introduced, among these a new work, by Edward S. Gould, Esq., entitled JOHN DOE AND RICHARD ROE; Or, Episodes of City Life.

This work by Mr. Gould will be carried to the full proportion of a modern novel, and will, therefore, occupy our columns continuously for at least six months.
Also an original novel, entitled WHO IS THE HEIR? By Barry Gray.

The opening scenes of this brilliant story are laid on the coast of New England, and amidst the breezy hills of old Berkshire. As the narrative progresses the scene changes to a southern city, and finally is transferred to New York. The plot turns upon a point of inheritance, and the interest of the story commences with the first chapter, nor ceases until the end is attained. The time in which the events occur covers the past twenty years; and many of the characters introduced are drawn from life. Also, a new and beautiful ROMANCE OF TO-DAY. By Oliver Bunce.

author of "Life Before Him," etc. An American tale delineating various phases of rural and town life, turning mainly upon some hitherto undepicted relations between love and genius, woman and ambition. It presents a three-fold picture of the sex—the woman of the world, of genius, and of love—and contrasts with these the subtlety as well as the power and aspirations of man. (And SOCIETY CORRESPONDENCE; or letters from the leaders of our fashionable circles in New York and the other capitals, by which our readers will be unmistakably kept informed of the changes and progress of what is commonly understood by the "gay world"—a portion of our fellow-beings, about whom there is no denying, we all feel a moderately news-loving curiosity. As we have taken some pains to arrange the resources for this new feature, we premonish our readers of its agreeableness with a considerably confident satisfaction.

All the former peculiar features of the paper which have given it a world-wide reputation will be continued, while several new ones will be added, and some spicy variety to its already diversified pages.
TERMS.—For one copy, $2; for three copies, $5—or one copy, $10; for a club of five copies, $20; and at that rate for a larger club—always in advance.

THE KNICKERBOCKER MAGAZINE FOR 1862.
In the beginning of the last year, when its present proprietors assumed control of THE KNICKERBOCKER, they announced their determination to spare no pains to place it in its true position as the leading literary Monthly in America. When rebellion had raised a successful front, and its armies threatened the very existence of the Republic, it was impossible to permit a Magazine which in its circulation reached the best intellects in the land, to continue in a purely literary course, as if insensible or indifferent to the dangers which threatened the Union. The proprietors accordingly gave notice that it would present in its pages forcible expositions with regard to the great question of the times: How to preserve the United States of America in their integrity and unity. How far this pledge has been redeemed, the public must judge. It would, however, be mere affectation to ignore the seal of approbation which the public has already placed on these efforts. The proprietors gratefully acknowledge this, and it has led them to embark in a fresh undertaking, the publication of THE CONTINENTAL MONTHLY, devoted to literature and national policy, in which Magazine those readers who have followed with sympathy the political and social views so forcibly expressed of late in our pages, may find them still further enforced by the most eminent and energetic minds in America.
The Knickerbocker, while it will remain firm in support of the Union, will be found, according to the originally expressed intention of the publisher, devoting itself more exclusively to art and letters, and in maintaining its long established position as the vanguard in American of the widely varied departments of literature to which it is specially devoted.
The number for January commences its thirtieth year. With such antecedents as it possesses, it seems unnecessary to make any special pledges as to the future; but it may not be amiss to say that it will be the aim of its conductors to make it more and more deserving of the liberal support it has hitherto received. The same eminent writers who have contributed to it during the past year will continue to enrich its pages, and in addition, contributions will appear from others of the highest reputation and from many rising authors. We shall, as before, specially cultivate the genial and humorous in every variety; but during the coming year, however, the Knickerbocker will receive many contributions in the highest departments of literature, embracing Critical, Historical, Biographical, Scientific, or Ethnographical articles, in all of which special pains will be taken to introduce that spirited and agreeable tone and style which have of late years distinguished really first-class writings of this nature from the dry and pedantic essays of the old school. We intend to devote especial zeal and labor to attract to our pages such reading, and confidently anticipate pre-eminence in this department.
In the January Number we shall publish "Sunshine in Letters," by Charles Godfrey Leland—the first of a series of papers on the cheerful and joyous in Literature and Art, which will be found interesting to the most general reader, while at an early date will appear the First Chapters of a most entertaining and instructive description of American Life, in the form of a First-class Novel. The Knickerbocker, in short, while retaining the best of the old, will continually add to the cream of the new.

By JOHN J. CULLEN, M. D.

The important fact that the awful consequences of self-abuse may be effectually cured without internal medicines or the dangerous applications of caustics, instruments, medicated bougies, and other empirical devices, is here clearly demonstrated, and the entirely new and highly successful treatment, as adopted by the celebrated author fully explained, by means of which every one is enabled to cure himself perfectly, and at the least possible cost; thereby avoiding all the advertised nostrums of the day.
