The Continental Monthly is again on our table filled with all kinds of useful reading.—Address, J. R. Gilmore, 110 Tremont Street, Boston.

We have received a copy of the Tribune Almanac and Political Register. No man should be without a copy of it in his house. Price 13 cents. Address, Horace Greely & Co., N. Y. City.

Sheriff Burt returned on Sunday last, having landed his prisoner safe in Penitentiary. On his return-trip the cars ran off the track five miles below Williamsport, and he was injured so as to cause him to remain two days at Williamsport.

We this week had the pleasure of taking by the hand our young friend Adjutant, MAUR L. FAXEN, of this place, he was home on a furlough and started yesterday for his regiment. He is a fine looking officer, and we venture to predict that if he gets into an engagement he will do his duty and give "Seesh" reason to remember him.

We this week send to our subscribers the Message of Gov. Curtin, in an Extra Journal, and will endeavor in the future to avoid, if possible, issuing State papers through our regular columns. We hope our subscribers will appreciate this favor and our friends make renewed efforts to increase the circulation of the Journal.

Good-bye.—Ladies, if you are melancholy and cast down in your minds, use D. B. De Land & Co.'s Chemical Saleratus; it will not only successfully raise your "breed, bisquit, etc.", but it will thereby raise your drooping spirits, so that you will be better prepared to endure the troubles and trials of domestic life. Call for this Saleratus where you do your trading, and if they have not got it, tell them they must get it. Most wholesale and retail dealers in the country keep it.

We publish the Court Proceedings on account of a mistake which appeared in the case of Metzger vs. Ross, we had it, verdict for Def., which should have been for Plaintiff.

Court Proceedings.
Clara School District vs. Garret Fosmer, action of assumpsit. Jury find for Deft.
Commonwealth vs. Edward P. Stebbins, indicted for horse stealing. Convicted and sentenced to three years and two months in Penitentiary.
Wm. H. Metzger vs. Sobieski Ross, action of assumpsit. Verdict for Plaintiff.

Where is Your Boy?—We saw him last late in the evening, in company of very bad boys, and they each had a cigar. And now and then some of them used very profane language. As we looked at your son we wondered if you knew where he was, and with whom he associated. Dear friend, do not be so closely confined to your shop office or ledger, as to neglect that boy. He will bring sorrow into your household, if you do not bring proper parental restraint to bear upon him—and that very soon.—Er.

We have heard of a new remedy for frost-bitten feet—new to us, at least—in the shape of Kerosene oil rubbed on the feet a few times at night before retiring to bed. Those who have tried it say that the feet should be warmed at a hot stove during and after the application of the oil, and a speedy cure will follow. Let those of our readers who may be thus afflicted try the remedy. The oil is cheap, and consequently but little expense will be necessarily involved.

NEWSPAPERS.—Not one person in a thousand estimates the value of newspapers in times of war. We have heard some people say "what a harvest for the newspapers;" they do not take into consideration that the proprietors scarcely get back the money the paper costs on which each edition is printed, and in these times additional expenses are sustained which are seldom incident to times of peace. In such times, too, advertising instead of increasing, falls off. The very life of a paper is actually taken away and additional burdens are imposed by the large amount of gratuitous labor that is asked by the public in way of calls for meetings, notices of various societies, military companies, etc. Accounts of a public character are chargeable in times of peace. The press, therefore, to-day, is really donating more in proportion to its means than any other institution in the land, and with, perhaps, the least appreciation and the smallest thanks.

MANHOOD.
HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED.
Just published, in a sealed envelope: ON THE NATURE, TREATMENT, AND RADICAL CURE OF SPERMATORRHOEA, or Seminal Weakness, Sexual Debility, Nervousness and involuntary emissions, producing impotency, Consumption and Mental and Physical debility.
BY MORT. J. CULVERWELL, M. D.
The important fact that the awful consequences of self-abuse may be effectually cured without internal medicines or the dangerous applications of caustics, instruments, medicated bougies, and other empirical devices, is here clearly demonstrated, and the entirely new and highly successful treatment, as adopted by the celebrated author fully explained. By means of which every one is enabled to cure himself perfectly, and at the least possible cost, thereby avoiding all the advertised nostrums of the day. This lecture will prove a boon to thousands and thousands.

NATIONAL FAMILY NEWSPAPER.
THE HOME JOURNAL FOR 1862.
MORRIS AND WILLIS, EDITORS.
A new series of this universally popular family newspaper will be commenced on the fourth day of January next—printed, as heretofore, on the finest of paper and with the best of type.
Besides the incessant labors of the editors on the various departments of the paper, the beautiful story by an American Wife, called CHRISTINE, which has never been equalled by any similar publication, and the LOOKINGS-ON AT THE WAR, will be continued in the volume for 1862. In this series of sketches Mr. Willis will continue to give such better studied and more deliberate views of the great movements as are impossible to the haste of writers for the daily papers; including, of course, sketches of the prominent men, and descriptions of the most stirring scenes at the seat of war.
A number of other Attractive and Racy features will be introduced, among these a new work, by Edward S. Gould, Esq., entitled JOHN DOE AND RICHARD ROE; Or, Episodes of City Life.

This work by Mr. Gould will be carried to the full proportion of a modern novel, and will, therefore, occupy our columns continuously for at least six months.
Also an original novel, entitled WHO IS THE HEIR? By Barry Gray.
The opening scenes of this brilliant story are laid on the coast of New England, and amidst the breezy hills of old Berkshire. As the narrative progresses the scene changes to a southern city, and finally is transferred to New York. The plot turns upon a point of inheritance, and the interest of the story commences with the first chapter, nor ceases until the end is attained. The time in which the events occur covers the past twenty years; and many of the characters introduced are drawn from life. Also, a new and beautiful ROMANCE OF TO-DAY. By Oliver Bunce.
author of "Life Before Him," etc. An American tale delineating various phases of rural and town life, turning mainly upon some hitherto undepicted relations between love and genius, woman and ambition. It presents a three-fold picture of the sex—the woman of the world, of genius, and of love—and contrasts with these the subtlety as well as the power and aspirations of man. And SOCIETY CORRESPONDENCE; or letters from the leaders of our fashionable circles in New York and the other capitals, by which our readers will be unmistakably kept informed of the changes and progress of what is commonly understood by the "gay world"—a portion of our fellow-beings, about whom there is no denying, we all feel a moderately news-loving curiosity. As we have taken some pains to arrange the resources for this new feature, we present our readers of its agreeableness with a considerably confident satisfaction.
All the former peculiar features of the paper which have given it a world-wide reputation will be continued, while several new ones will add a most spicy variety to its already diversified pages.
TERMS.—For one copy, $2; for three copies, $5—or one copy for three years, $5; for a club of seven copies, $10; for a club of fifteen copies, $20; and at that rate for a larger club—always in advance.
Address MORRIS AND WILLIS Editors and Proprietors, 107 Fulton Street, New York.
