POTTER JOURNAL M. W. McAlarney, Proprietor. $1 00 PR YEAR, INVARIABLY IN ADVANCE.

* * Devoted to the cause of Republicanism. the interests of Agriculture, the advancement of Education, and the best good of Potter county. Owning no guide except that of Principle, it will endeaver to aid in the work of more fully Freedomizing our Country.

ADVERTISEMENTS inserted at the following raies, except where special bargains are made s-Square [10 lines] i insertion, - - -Each subsequent insertion less than 13, Square three months, - - - - six 46 × " nine 5 50

- - 20 00

vear.

Column six months, - - -

" one

" - - - - - 7 00 per year. - - - - - -40 00 Administrator's or Executor's Notice, Business Cards, 8 lines or less, per year 5 00 Special and Editorial Notices, pe. tine,

* * All transient advertisements must be paid in advance, and no notice will be taken of advertisements from a distance, unless they are accompanied by the money or satisfactory

*Blanks, and Job Work of all kinds, at tended to promptly and faithfully.

BUSINESS CARDS.

EHLALIA LODGE, No. 342, F. A. M. STATED Meetings on the 2nd and 4th Wednesdays of each month. Also Misonic gatherings on every Wednesday Evening, for work and practice, at their Hall in Coudersport. TIMOTHY IVES, W. M. PAMUEL HAVES, Sec'y.

JOHN S. MANN.

ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW Condersport, Pass will attend the several Courts in Potter and M'Kean Counties. All

ARTHUR G. OLMSTED.

ATTORNEY & COUNSELLOR AT LAW

ISAAC BENSON. ATTORNEY AT LAW, Condersport, Pa., will care and promptness. Office on Second st near the Allegheny Bridge. F. W. KNOX. ATTORNEY AT LAW, Condersport, Pa., wil regularly attend the Courts in Potter and the adjoining Counties. O. T. ELLISON.

PRACTICING PHYSICIAN, Condersport, Pa. respectfully informs the citizens of the village and vicinity that he will promply respond to all calls for professional services. Office on Main st., in building formerly ocsupied by C. W. Ellis, Esq. C. S & E A JONES, DEALERS IN DRUGS, MEDICINES, PAINTS

Oils, Fancy Articles, Stationery, Dry Good: Groceries, &c., Main st., Condersport, Pa. D. E. OLMSTED, DEALER IN DRY GOODS, READY-MADE Clothing, Crockery, Groceries, &c., Main st. Condersport, Pa.

COLLINS SMITH, DEALER in Dry Goods. Groceries. Provisions Hardware, Queensware, Cutlery, and all

Goods usually found in a country Store .-Coudersport, Nov. 27, 1861. M. W. MANN, DEALER IN BOOKS & STATIONERY, MAG-AZINES and Music, N. W. corner of Mair and Third sts., Coudersport, Pa.

COUDERSPORT HOTEL, D F. GLASSMIRE, Proprietor, Corner e-Main and Second Streets, Coudersport, Pot-

A Livery Stable is also kept in connect tion with this Hotel

L. BIRD, SURVEYOR, CONVEYANCER, &c., BROOK-

LAND. Pa., (formerly Cushingville.) Office in his Store building.

MARK GILLON. the latest and best styles -Prices to suit the times.—Give him a call. 13.41

ANDREW SANBERG & BRO'S. TANNERS AND CURRIERS .- Hides tunned on the shares, in the best manner. Tannery on the east side of Allegany river Condersport, Potter county, Pa -Jy 17,'61

OLMSTED & KELLY,

DEALER IN STOVES, TIN & SHEET IRON WARE, Main st., nearly opposite the Court Coudersport. Pa. Tin and Sheet fron Ware made to order in good style, on

" THE U HON" ARCH STREET, ABOVE THED, Philadelphia. UPTON 8. NEWCOMER, Proprietor.

This Hotel is central, convenient by Passenger cars to all parts of the city, and in every particular adapted to the vants of the business public.

Terms $1 50 per day.

UNION HOTEL, COUDERSPORT, POTTER COUPTY, PENN.

A. S. ARMSTRONG AVING refitted and newly furnished the HAVING refitted and newly furnished the glan to near the gentleman atom (Mr. Pershing.) make a similar declaration. Though a member of a political party, I wish by R. Rice. is prepared to accommodate the Though's member of a political party, I wish traveling public in as good style as can be find it understood that in this matter I discard all in town. Nothing that can in any way increase the comforts of the guests will be neglected.

Dec. 11,1861

MOTHER.

Mother, thou art sorely tired? Weary with thy weight of care? Wond ring whether God has given Heavier burdens than thy share?

Mother do the little ones. Clinging round thee night and day, Sometimes tire and trouble thee, By their loving, fondling way?

Mother, do they laugh and shout, Noise of hammer, drum and fife, Countless little wants and whims, Wenry and annoy the life?

Mother, has the little child, Watching every look and word, Ever see thy patience fail theo? Ever words too hasty heard?

Mother, thou thyself be gone, Lives each look, each word for aye; Every impress thou dost make, Is for immortality.

Mother, noble is thy work! Never dare repine again-God. not man, appoints thy share-Joyfully respond, Amen.

SPEECH OF

Hon. S. B. ELLIOTT,

here! A m inher rises in his piace, and in his place upon this floor defends a man who has recommended a "reliable friend" to "His Executioney, the President of the Confederate" prompt attention. Office corner of West For it ever a man had treason in his heart. here, upon the floor of the House of Repre sentatives of the great Commonwealth of to be used by rebels and traiters in battleing Pennsylvania, loyat as she is to the Union, we against the sacred constitution of our country. Condersport, Pa., will attend to all business and all moderation of praise! Who is it that must consider a constant of the contract of Main moderation of praise! Who is it that must extell Jesse D. Bright? A gentleman in here and boasts of a thing. who comes in here and boasts of a thing of water as a member of this House of Representatives, he should be ashamed -than TTORNEY AT LAW. Condersport, Pa., will a hatter was hung at his door; by his people attend to all business entrusted to him, with because of his political opinions. Sir, I do not wonder at it. It was a fit condemnation. I have, lying up it my table, the very esoluread those resolutions, for they are very brief

I take them from the Elk Advocase. The following are the resolutions referred to, and which, on the objection of Mr. Duffield, were not read to the House: In pursuance of a resolution passed at the Democratic convention held at Ridgeway, August 1860, the Representative Conterees of August 15 for the purpose of nominating suitable persons to represent this district in the Legislature. The convention was organized by selecting Geo. Weis. Esq. President, and J. B. Ociatt, and Lever Fugal, Secretaries

the convention:

settlement of the present difficulties by compromise. Resolved, That when one section of our country shall have been suljugated by the military despotism Resolved, That the small patriot band of menaces of expulsion and imprisonment, are entitled to the gratitude of every American citizen; and impartial history will award them an enviable distinction Resolved, That the persistent determination f the impority of the men bers of the late extra session of Congress to frown down every measure that had for its object the peaceful adjustment of our national difficulties, indicates a fanatical mania that would have much better become the crusaders of centuries gone TALOR—nearly opposite the Court House—by, than the representatives of a free, intelli-will make all clothes intrusted to him in gent, and christian people of the nineteenth by, than the representatives of a free, intellicentury.

Mr. Duffifld, I rise to a question of order Have these resolutions anything to do with the question before this House?

Mr. SPEAKER. They are not properly in Mr. ELLIOTT. I withdraw, then, my propo sition to read them and will simply state that the resolutions are almost as full of treason as the letter of Jesse D. Bright. Mr. Speaker, I deprecate as much as any gentleman upon this floor, the lugging in of a political question here at this juncture. It lasinot been done by those who act with me-politically. I am a party man it is true, in ordinary times, but in this question I am determined to lay aside all party. I have not thought of party. Had Mr. Bright been a member of the Republican party, I should have voted fust as readily for his expulsion as I do now. I do not take into consideration and iniquitous government, founded for the that he is a member of the Democratic party I have discarded all politics in this question; and I hope to God I may ever discard them when questions like this are at issue. I say I deprecate any such political issues; and I was glad to hear the "constitutionall" gen tleman from Bedford. (Mr. CESSNA.) say that he deprecated such questions, as I was also glad to hear the geatleman from Cambria, will rend it: Resolved, That our Senators from this

United States Senate." That is a very plain and concise proposi-The other, which it is proposed to substitute for it, is ambiguous and uncertain in regard to the question of perjury and trial by its terms. Now, I hold the case to stand thus: jury, which has been so often referred to here in this debate. I do not understand. Mr. tionable—if it is plain, open and apparent to court determining a judicial question. It is all then the more pointed the terms that we not, as I understand, provided in the constitution that they shall sit as a judicial body in the note of his treason that we have before us. It is a super a member to expansion which would and a black eye a tested the blind fury of the way again to refer to the letter which and a provided that they shall sit as a judicial body in won the proudest laurels of the gory field, be expulsion of a inember. An act might won the proudest laurels of the gory field, subject a member to expalsion which would and a black eye a tested the blind fury of not subject him to a judicial trial. Then why his valor. In cold weather he was all has been already several times read. It begins:
"My Dear Sir" Had it been a formal letter "My Dear Sir" Had it been a formal letter between Jesse D. Bright and Jeffers n Davis, But what else do we find? "Allow me to in troduce to your acquaintance my friend Thom-the, could be of service to the government in net the gentleman to make light of the wishes an emergency and had been taken down south of this body.

In concluding I will merely say again, that knew.

vis was the head of an existing government admitting, in tact, the Independence of a de facto government of the confederate states.

Now mark the time at which this letter was written. It was written on the first of March. Long before that the Star of the West had been fired into when it attempted to provision a beleagured fortress belonging to this government-when Mojor Anderson, with less than a hundred men, had been housed up there in M'Kean, met at St. Mary's on Thursday Samter, and the traitors had forbidden him communication with his own government and his own people. I say that when an unarmed vessel—harmless in the face of the world, had attempted then and there to provision that belengured fort, the rebels had opened fire and Lever Fagal. Secretaries.

The committeen resolutions, through their that time that there were seven States that chairman, Dr. J. T. Boyer, reported the following which we have the control of the Union—that lowing which we have the control of the Union—that lowing which we have the control of the Union—that lowing which we have the control of the Union—that lower the control of the Union—that lower than the control of the Union—that lower the control of the Union—that lower the control of the Union—that lower than the control of the Union—that lower that the control of the Union—that lower the control of the Union —that lower the c lowing which were unanimously adopted by had announced their determination to make Resolved, That we are in favor of a speedy standing all this, Jesse D. Bright writes a letready to furnish him with those very things, as I remarked before, which we did not want him to have—a man who would assist in giv other, we have already become the slaves of ling to that arch traitor and his minions, the means of murdering our oyal citizens. Mr Bright says: "I recommend him to your favorable consideration." Well, no doubt if a great consideration, for the aristocracy that has taken so large a part in this rebellio aristocracy, borne up as it is, upon false systems of government. It was important that he should be a gentleman of the "first respectability;" that he should be no "mud-sill," no "greasy mechanic." but a very re-pectable gentleman, besides being reliable in every respect " He says, in effect Jefferson Davis, you can confide to him anything of your treason, just as you have confided it to me. He is your and my mutual triend; understand him to be such. He is a very respectable gentieman, and withal, is reliable in every respect. You may disclose to him all your ideas of treason—all your plans, all your plots. He is re-liable, and you can trust him."

Then, to conclude the matter-to cap the climax to make it doubly sure, he addresses this letter to . His Excellency, Jefferson Davis, Preside, t', President of what? Of rebels of traiors, of men who had taken up arms against the government. No, sir; "President of the Confederate States of America." It is enough. Mr. Speaker, for a man to address a letter that way, no matter what its contentsfor a mun sitting in his place as a United States Senator to address, thus, one wio stood at the head of a rebellious government, a wicked sacred Constitution. I say for a man to address a letter in that way is enough to convict him at once of treason. Now, as I remarked before, if this is a plain case, then the plain proposition brought in from the Senate, and the due which I read, is the one to be adopted ; and if I have, with my weak argument and my feeble powers, shown anything clearly, I believe it is that treason lurks in every sentence of that letter from Jesse D. Br gl.t to Jefferson Davis This is a letter written by a United States Schator, who

We have before us here two propositions: nothing which he would not do over age in)—One of them is a plain, concise resolution. I who has since declared no regret for so doing exhibits no remorse of conscience or confession of guilt, but stands up in the Senate bold State, be, and they are here hereby instructed and defiant, and says "gentleman, I will do it to dote for the immediate exculsion of the again if I have the chance!" And here to night I say these halls have been described light States States. by having the name of Jesse D Bright spoken seen emerging from his tent in the camp of with commendation.

In conclusion, allow me to sav one word in question is not plain and apparent, then this Speaker, that the United States Scante in act amendment ought to pass; if it is not ques-ing upon this question is in the position of a talk of this as a judicial question only.

Now, it has been urged that a Senator would be guilty of perjury if he shruld obey instrucit would have been 'Sir" Had it been a tol- tions that were contrary to his own opinions. crably familiar letter, it would have been If gentleman believe in the right of represent-"Dear Sir." But it is almost an affectionate ation—if they believe that members are sent letter, expressing on its very face deep and to a legislative body to express the wishes of tender regard for Jeff. Davis.—My Dear Sir!" their constinents, they must concede the right their constinents, they must concede the right of instruction on the part of this Legislature to our Senators in Congress. In this affair a as B. Liucoln of Texas" Jefferson Davis and member may consider that his constituents his breath smelled of onions. Jesse D. Bright were friends; so were Jesse D. Bright and Thomas B. Lincoln; it was a mutual friendship between them. And mark you, do you suppose that Jesse D. Bright being a friend of Jefferson Davis, would have introduced to him may other than a recognition of this bade, or entirely large between a member of this bade, or entirely large between a member of this bade, or entirely large between a member of this bade, or entirely large between a member of this bade, or entirely large between a member of this bade, or entirely large between a member of this bade, or entirely large between a member of this bade, or entirely large between a member of the constituents are wrong in desiring certain legislation yet does be committed by the constituents are wrong in desiring certain legislation yet does be committed by the constituents.

I did not intend to occupy any portion of the time of the House until I heard this curreget, earnest, vigorous detende in these Halls, of an arch tratior. I had made up my mind, to sit quielly curing this dead of the matter, had more than one object in view. The great object, personal of the letter of the letter of the letter of the line of the House until I heard this curreget, earnest, vigorous detende in these Halls, of an arch tratior. I had made up my mind, to sit quielly curing this debate, as I have not object, personal mainly to dispose of the visits your capital mainly to dispose of the visits where the letter for their representatives here. If never have nor have nor have nor have nor in the air, down it came with unerring are intelligent and know their interests as a good common second education, the weighed more in Albany—and had aim and frightful force.

Let us draw a veil over this sad scene, which is that their wishes, when tanquero de Boom jing jing. He was their representatives here. If never have nor have nor have nor have nor in the letter for their representatives here. If never have nor have nor have nor have nor in the letter for their representatives here. If never have nor have their representatives here. I never have nor have h but, set, I can do it no longer, when such doc-times are proclaimed as we have just listened What a spectacle have we presented on the earth which the loyal people of this government—the will of the majority express- matism, and knew Dr Watt's Juvenile Union wished to prevent falling into the han is eit through their representatives. So it is of Jefferson Davis. The plotters of the reb 1. with our Senators in Congress It is not their of Jefferson Davis. The pictures of the real is personal wish or will that is to prevail, but lion had stolen our arms and ammunition personal wish or will that is to prevail, but through the instrumentality of the traitor, the will of their constituents. Though Mr. through the in-trumentality of the traitor the will of their constituents. Though Mr. Floyd. Through his treachery valuable arms Cowan may have expressed an opinion as to had been removed from the a senals where the innocence of Jesse D. Bright, yet he is chrated Gun Maker of Moscow.

against the sacred constitution of our country, above all things to be deplored in this discus-and yet, notwithstanding all this, Jesse D. sion, is to treat it as a question of politics, a Bright, with the facts before him recommends question of party. I say passe the gentleman, this man to Jefferson Davis as having in great (Mr. Zeigler,) meant to affirm that because the party to which he belongs that been able to their would stand in need of, as Bright well destroy this government, they would be able But, as I have said, there was more to build another, yet I think him greatly misthan one object in view. One object was he taken. I say I deplore such party questions then one object in view. One object was ne and I hope they may never be brought up fire arms; but there was something else which and I hope they may never be brought up he had tailed to disclose to us.

All through the watches of the purple ing. It animates the lawyer at the bary he had tailed to disclose to us. But what does Jesse D. Bright acknowledge Jesse D. Bright, a co-conspirator of Jefferson as planets, on the sheeny boscus of the ti- the head of his family, and the starving tions passed by the convention that nomina-in that letter? He says—'He visits your cap-burys, shall not again be spoken of in praise and that gentleman and his calleague. I will the weather that a convention that a upon this floor, speaking words of comfort or creamtuits of the white magnofia. consolation to traitors, whether in the United States Senate or elsewhere. I believe from right on all such sort of thing the evidence that Jesse D Bright is a traitor. from the Senate of the United States.

expect accasionally to have it in his brave Eleventh Pontoons hurled back in teeth. We have heard a report, however, langry glare upon the heavens. As day brightly and the which we think must have silenced such broke, she could see by the dawn's early morrow. Business will not be suspended thrusts. A gentle nan who had the mis light the Star Spangled Banner that was a moment, and the great mass will rook fortune to marry a fortune, was once ex- so proudly hailed at the last beaming of bestow a thought upon our memories. hibiting the fine points of his horse to a the twilight; although during the night Is he dead? is the solomn inquiry of a triend. money b ught that horse." 'Yes, mail bursting in air, had given proof that the one will miss us except our immediate am, tenned the husband, bowing, and flag was still there connections, and in a short time they will your money bought me."

Suspicior is the palsy of the heart; fear is a chain of ice upon the tongue -Half words are worse than silence, and "How long must we dwell in loneliness either is death to conversation. A man, upart?" commends him as "a centleman of the first charm of conversation as quickly as the frequently referred to for several years no detence. Hell cannot posst of so foul respectability." No doubt he was one of the shadow of a hawk does the song of a afterward by those who were curious in a fiend, nor man deplore so foul a foe. It such mattes. bird.

Oliver Wendall Holmes calls a kiss a limpid consonant. He should have added that it usually follows a vowal, however consonant it may be to the feelings

Corn which is seven cents per bushel is burnt for fuel in Legan county, Illinois. It bears the name Laztman's Timber," because it doesn't require to be sawed and split

The boys too young to go to war in a Western town, have formed themselves it ! Unhand me ! Death before dis at losing nothing. Not at all surprising." into a corps of "Sawbuck Range.s." and honor ! Ha, ha!" will saw the wood for the wives of volunteers, all winter.

A Dublin journal observes that a handbill announcing a political meeting in that city, states, with boundless liberality, that country calls! Who, but p poltroon the ladies, without distinction of sex, are invited to a) tend."

What an amount of American History mr grandchildien will have to read and study. It is quite a consolation to think we were before the additional brain tax will be imposed.

A story is told of a person asking another one whether he would advise him to lend a certain friend money. "What? lend him money? You might lend him an emeric, and he wouldn't return it.

Why is a palm tree like chronology? has since declared (for it is patent to all that he has done nothing for which he is sorry Because it furnishes dates.

TERMS .- $1.00 PER ANNUM.

A Romance of the War. On a fine morning in the lovely month of December, as the sun rose above the misty tops of the mountains that line the Potoniac, a young officer might have been of the Eleventh Pontouns

But it was no common tent. It had cross halls, a piazza, a wine cellar, and a stove with a rifled stove pipe, to make the smoke shoot straight. Nor was this young officer a common young officer.

Scarcely forty-three, he had already test. He was arrayed in a blue uniform, ligious papers. brass mounted, and wore yellow gloves, a red coat, scarlet trowsers, a green cap and a chaw of tobacco tureither cheek -His lains were girded up for battle; fire so dear, so nobie a life." sat upon his lip; death upon his sword; his neck was clothed with thunder, and "ef you don't let go o' me."

His father had been an Indian, and his mother a Dutchman, but as both had pe-On the Senate Resolution instructing our Senators introduced to him any other than a man-who of this body, on which I have believed differ claimed to be a Portuguese of the saying at breakfast was a little too much for believed as Jefferson Davis believed? Of carly from the mass of my construents; yet azur, and his name was Senhor Don Ran him course not. But let us read the letter for I never believed that their wishes, when tanguere de Room ing inc. He was we had suffered a good deal with the rneu-Poems by heart. In battle he was awful ciples in the human mind. It is the He wielded a Scottish claymore longer grand support of all mankinden tribulathan himself, and a brace of double back tion; it is the main pring of retion action revolvers presented him by the cel throughout the earth; nothing like hope

Thus much for our hero. "Giorianna-beautiful Glorianna!" murmured he; "maiden of the blue hair Hope for better things in time to come, and curly teeth how I have dreamed of is the support of all sufferers in the world; thee, this night!"

relyet approaching.

shaving water, and order breakfast." dal waves, and the odor fainting tou-tom 10 r. while passing through the dreary express our emphatic condemnation of him ly, while Don Rantanquero dreamed of from the earth, you fill it in a moment and his kind, and that he will be expelled his levely Gioriana, she sat in her bower full of darkness and despair. Where hope out over the murky shad s of Washing rise to happiness and glory-A man who marries a rich wife must ton, to where the lurid camp fires of the "My horse," said the wife; "my the red glare of the rocket and bombs few, as they pass to their work. But no

"Long may it wave."-Aldrich. "Oh. Rantanquero !-oh, my love !" cried the maiden, rubbing her left ear, session of Congress, who dared to maintain the integrity of the constitution under the capital of the reconfederate states," he would and be believed; must trust and be trust. Our here uttered his loved one's name, have been a very acceptable visitor. He re- ed The scowl of a doubt quenches the was a remarkable coincidence; and was centleman of the first charm of conversation as quickly as the frequently referred to for several years no defence. Hell cannot boast of so foul man!

> The door of the bower was suddenly and angerly thrust open and a young man entered:

ing tiel, was to marry Giorianna. She ruin its sport. didn't want him for a husband, but her father was obdurate. He was a tough cu.s.

"Avannt, base villian !" cried Glorianna; "I bath thee. By heaven I swear at the same time expressing his surprise

"Who's a techen of yer?" asked the rich villian, whose name was Peter. At this moment the sullen roar of the distant annon was heard, some miles off they couldn't afford to take them." "Go." exclaimed the maiden: "Your would linger when the deep voiced can Lon speaks? Why tarry here in ease and luxury?"

"I don't know." replied Peter: "I don't care much about this war."

The peerless beauty cast up him a gaze of withering scorn that made his hair sizzle, and plistered his noze a little. "Don't get riled," said he.

"Go, then, and win a name in the field of blind and glory."

"Not any." "Leave me!"

"Not till you promise to forget your foolish passion for Don Rantanquero." Descerate not that name with your sordid breath !" creed Glorianna, and her eyes flushed so that a neighboring rooster thought it was sunrise, and began to ्या १ क्षुत्रका मुख्या १ हुन । हित्र कर्नने १२ वर्ग संदर्भ एक के हैं है

"I will have his blood I" roared Peter. Glorianna wept. She wept a good deal. Peter drew a jewel hilted poignard from the bosom of his dressing gown, and brandishing it in the air. "Ere one hour has elapsed," said he. this we'p'n shall drink at the fountain of his heart!"

The reader will observe that this young won the proudest laurels of the gory field, man used imperfect language. The reason was that he was uneducated. He was born of boor but honest parents, and ways to be found where the fire was hot had made his fortune by writing for re-

He started to leave the form, but Glorianna clung to him.

"Stay-stay," she sobbed; "take not "I ll bat you in the eye," remarked he,

She sank in a swoon and a corner lialf an hour later. Peter stood in the tent of Seuhor Don Rantanquero de Boom titioned the Logislature to allow them to jing jing. That mighty warrior lay on become natives of the M. E. Church, he a sofa asleep. The brandy he had taken

God, and one of the most powerful prininspires courage in difficulties and daugers; and what but hope can wipe away tears, and cheer the sorrowful heart? it is also the life and vigor of all adven-He turned, and saw a slave in crimson turerers. We shall find inscribed on the prison door, on the merchant's vessel, "Ho, minion!" he exclaimed. "bring on the war for's banner, on the pilgri n's staff, and on the pillow of the dy-All through the watches of the purple ing. It animates the lawyer at the bary gentleman shall ever again be found stinding sang exhuberant to the sleepy Juice laden winter. We plough in hope, we sow in hope, we reap in ho; e; we live in hope, But no, Miss Prescott has a copy- and we die in hope. Fill the heart with hope, and you fill it with life and light, All hight, let me say, then quite plain with vigor and exertion. Banish hope on Pennsylvania Avenue, and gazed afar lives, man looks forward, and strives to

> If we die to day, the san will shine as connections, and in a short time they will forget us, and laugh as merrily as when we sat beside them. Thus shall we all, now active in life, pass away. Our children crowd close behind us, and they will soon be gone. In a few years not a living being can exclaim, "I remember him.

SLANDER .- Against slander there is spreading contagion far and wide, which the most wary traveler cannot avoid. It is the heart-searching dagger, of the of "What in thunder are you calling that assassin. It is the poisoned arrow whose feller your 'love' for ?" said this young wound is incurable It is as fatal as the sting of the most deadly asp-marder is He was a disagrecable person, who, be its employment, innocence its prey, and

> · A Store was broken open one night, but strange to say nothing was carried off. The proprietor was making his brag of it. said his neighbor; "the robbers lighted a lamp, didn't they?" "Yes," was the reply. "Well," countinued the neighbor. they found your goods marked so high

An old lady walked into the office of a Judge of Probate in Massachusetts once upon a time, and asked:

"Are you the Judge of Reprobates?" "I am the Judge of Probate.".

"Well, that's it, I expect," quoth the old lady, "you see my father died detested, and he left several little infidels, and I want to be their executioner."

A writer in an English paper is very indiguant that "the ladies are always drunk last" at convivial gatherings What would the writer expect! They are certainly the last we should like to see drunk.

Fork Panatala water and was Subscribe for the JOURNAY HELDER