KNICKERBOCKER MAGAZINE FOR 1862.

In the beginning of the last year, when its present proprietors assumed control of THE KNICKERBOCKER, they announced their deermination to spare no pains to place it in its true position as the leading literary Monthly in America. When rebellion had raised a successful front, and its armies threatened the very existence of the Republic, it was imposeible to permit a Magazine which in its circulation reached the best intellects in the land to continue in a purely literary course, as if insepsible or indifferent to the dangers which threatened the Union. The proprietors accordingly gave notice that it would present in its pages forcible expositions with regard to the great question of the times: How to pre-

The Knickerbocker-while it will remain firm in support of the Union, will be found, accordthe originally expressed intention of the publisher, devoting itself more exclusively to art and letters, and in maintaining its long established position as the teader in America of the widely varied departments of literature to which it is specially devoted.

The number for January commences its thirtieth year. With such antecedents as it not be amiss to say that it will be the aim of its conquetors to make it more and more deserving of the liberal support it has hitherto received. The same chinent writers who have contributed to it during the past year will continue to enrich its pages, and in addition, contributions will appear from others of the highest reputation and from many rising authors. We shall as before speciall cultivate the genial and humorous in ever variety; but during the coming year, however. That has been brought to this market the pre- the Knickerbocker will receive many contri butions in the highest departments of litera ture, embracing Critical, Historical, Biographical, Scientific, or Ethnographical articles, in all of which special pains will be taken to introduce that spirted and agreeable tone and style which have of late years distinguished really first-class writings of this nature from the dry and pedantic essays of the oil school We intend to devote especial zeal and labo to attract to our pages such reading, and con-fidently anticipate pre-eminence in this de-

In the January Number we shall publish "Sunshine in Lecters," by Charles Godfre Leland—the first of a series of papers on the cheerful and joyous in Literature and Ar: which will be found interesting to the most general reader, while at an early date will appear the First Chapters of a most entertaining and instructive description of American Life, in the form of a First-class Novel. The Knickerhocker, in short, while retaining the best of the old, will continually add to the cream of the new.

Symptoms of the disease femalis.

Syptilis and Mercurial Disease.

New Observes, 25th August 1859.

The J. C. Ayrn: Sir, I cheerfully comply with the regulate of your agent, and report to you scane of the effects I have realized with your Sarsaparlia.

Thave emal with it, in my practice, most of the compliants for which it is recommended, and have found in flects truly wonderful in the cups of Uperad and Mercurial Disease. One of my patients had Syphillic ulerand the his threat, which were consuming his planter and the lop of his month. Your Sarsaparlia, steadily taken used him in five iseols, Another the diseased by see andary symptoms fin his nose, and the decration had atten away a considerable part of it, so that I behere the disorder would saon reach his brain and kill him. Burst yielded to my adrinustration of your Farsaparlia; the disease feeded, and he is well-ugation not of course without tone disfiguration to his face. A woman who had been treated for the same disader by mercury was suffering from this poison in her bones. They had become so suissifies to the weather that on a damp day she suffered experienced in the poison and bones. She to, was sured entirely by your Farsaparilla in a few weeks. I know hom its formula, which your agent gave me that this Preparation from your laboratory must be a great remedy; consequently, these truly remarkable results with it have not surprised me.

Fraternally yours. Syphilis and Mercurial Disease.

Rheumatism, Gout, 'Liver Complaint.

INDEFENDENCE, Preston Co., Vm., thi diny, 1859.

DR. J. C. Aven: Sir, I have been afflicted with a pulm of the contains of a long time, which tailled the idill of physicians, and stuck to me in spite of all the semediest could find, until I tried your Saraganilla. One contile cared me in two weeks, and restoned my general acallth so much that I am far better than before I was tracked. I think it a wonderful medicine. J. FIERAM.

Jufes Y. Getchell, of St. Louis, writes: "I have been impleted for years with an affection of the Liver, which festroyed my health. I tried every thing, and every thing failed to relieve me; and I have been a booken-down man for some years from no other cause than derangement of the Liver. My beloved pastor, the Rev. Mr. Espy, advised me to try your Sarssparilian because he said he knew you, and any thing you made was worth trying. By the blossing of God it has curred me, and has so purified my blord as to make a me want of me. I hed young again. The best that can be said of you is not half good enough."

Schirrus. Caneer Turnors, Enlargement. Rheumatism, Gont, Liver Complaint.

Schirrus. Cancer Tumors, Enlorgement, Ulceration, Caries and Exioliation of the Bones.

A great variety of cases have been reported to us where cures of these formitable complaints have resulted from the use of this remedy, but our space here will not admittion. Some of them may be family in an American Aimsmae, which the agents below named are pleased to targish gratis to all who call for them.

yspensia, Reart Discuse, Fits, I sy, Metancholy, Neuralgia Many remarkable cures of these affections have been made by the afterative power of this medicine. It sits relates the vital functions into vigorous action, and these yearcomes disorders which would be supposed beyond its reach. Such a tennedy has long been required by the measurement of the people, and we say confident that this will be for them all that medicine can do.
