

The Farm and Fireside

A Department of Agriculture.

The following is a copy of the Act to establish a Department of Agriculture at the seat of Government as it passed Congress:

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That there is hereby established at the seat of government of the United States a Department of Agriculture, the general designs and duties of which shall be to acquire and diffuse among the people of the United States useful information on subjects connected with agriculture in the most general and comprehensive sense of that word, and to procure, propagate, and distribute among the people new and valuable seeds and plants.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That there shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, a "Commissioner of Agriculture," who shall be the chief executive officer of the Department of Agriculture, who shall hold his office by a tenure similar to that of other officers appointed by the President, and who shall receive for his compensation a salary of three thousand dollars per annum.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Agriculture to acquire and preserve in his department all information concerning agriculture which he can obtain by means of books and correspondence and practical and scientific experiments, (accurate records of which experiments shall be kept in this office,) by the collection of statistics and by any other appropriate means within his power; to collect, as he may be able, now and valuable seeds and plants; to test, by cultivation, the value of such of them as may require such tests; to propagate such as may be worthy of propagation, and to distribute them among agriculturists. He shall annually make a general report in writing of his acts to the President, in which he may recommend the publication of papers forming parts of or accompanying his report, which report shall also contain an account of all moneys received and expended by him. He shall also make special reports on particular subjects whenever required to do so by the President or either House of Congress, or when he shall think the subject in his charge requires it. He shall receive and have charge of all the property of the agricultural division of the Interior. He shall direct and superintend the expenditure of all money appropriated by Congress to the Department, and render account thereof, and also of all money heretofore appropriated for agriculture and remaining unexpended. And said Commissioner may send and receive through the mails free of charge, all communications and other matter pertaining to the business of his department, not exceeding in weight thirty-two ounces.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioner of Agriculture shall appoint a chief clerk, with a salary of two thousand dollars, and such other employees as Congress may from time to time provide, with salaries corresponding to the salaries of similar officers in other departments of the government; and he shall as Congress may from time to time provide, employ other persons, for such time as their services may be needed, including chemists, botanists, entomologists, and other persons skilled in the natural sciences pertaining to agriculture.

Passed the House of Representatives February 17, 1862.
Attest: EM. ETHERIDGE, Clerk.

A CERTAIN CURE FOR SCROFULA.—Nicholas Longworth, the famous millionaire and winegrower of Cincinnati, publishes a cure for scrofula. The directions he gives are the following:

Put two ounces of aquafortis on a plate on which you have two copper cents.—Let them remain from eight to twenty-four hours. Then add four ounces of clear, strong vinegar. Put cents and all in a large wooden bottle, and keep it well corked. Begin by pouring four drops in a teaspoonful of rain water, and apply it to the sore. Make the application three times a day, with a soft hair pencil, or made of soft rags. If very painful add a drop or two of water. As the sore heals apply it weaker.

I request editors in all parts of the Union, and abroad to copy this, and to re publish it quarterly; it may save many lives.
N. LONGWORTH.
Cincinnati, Ohio.

Cattle and Sheep Feeding.

The Greenfield, (Mass.) Farmers' Club lately met to exchange opinions as to the comparative profit in feeding different animals.

It was admitted all round that owing to the great facilities for bringing cattle from the far west at a low price—and in great quantities, at all times in the year, cattle which had roamed on the prairies, costing Government price, $1.25 per acre, and fattened upon corn worth ten cents per bushel, or distillery slops made at the same rate—we here could not compete on pastures worth $30 per acre, and corn 75 cents.

The general impression was that sheep feeding was the most profitable, though some farmers, with good feed and great skill in buying and feeding, made cattle feeding to a limited extent a paying business.

In the conversation there was, as there must always be, an uncertainty in the statements made, from want of conveniences to weighing and measuring. But one farmer knew anything by weight of the amount of hay fed out, and in that instance he bought four tons and moved it, which all admitted caused a loss of from 10 to 12 per cent.

But one farmer present had fed sheep much, and his experience was several years since. He thought he got $1 per bushel for his corn, while in feeding cattle he got but 50 cents. He fed one lot of Merinos averaging about 100 pounds which more than doubled in value. In mid-winter he found that 100 sheep ate a ton of hay and seven bushels of grain (corn and oats) weekly. He considers sheep manure to be worth twice as much as that from cattle.

One of our most sagacious farmers and best feeders said he had often made $50 advance on a pair of steers fed from February to May or June 1st. A calculation being made of the feed, however, would only give him at that $8 per ton for his hay, and 70 cents per bushel for corn, leaving half a dollar a head over for a margin of profit, besides making better manure.

Several instances of great gain and returns of feeding cattle were mentioned—of 700 pounds and 900 pounds in the winter, and of $100 to $150 advance on one winter's feeding, but these seemed to be exceptional cases. One farmer had a pair of six-year-old cattle gain in two year's feeding 1300 pounds in growth and fat.

The Secretary observed that it was shown by chemical analysis that the manure from sheep was much more valuable than that of cattle, 36 pounds of sheep dung being equal to 100 pounds of that from cattle. He noticed that not much had been said of the value of the manure made from high feed, as compared with that from common dry food. The careful analysis of Prof. Lawes of England, the best agricultural chemist in the kingdom, showed that the manure made from a ton of cotton-seed meal was worth as much as that made from 4.35 tons of meadow hay; linseed meal next, then wheat—Indian corn and turnips last.—Some exceedingly interesting experiments of Hon. John Brooks, of Princeton, made in 1852, showed that cows fed with hay alone made 2 44 100 pounds of solid manure to each pound of hay eaten, drinking from two to three times as much weight of water as they ate of hay. Farmers do not sufficiently appreciate the money value of the liquid manure. A cow voids annually about 16,300 pounds of urine, which contains 961 pounds of solid matter, worth just as much as Peruvian guano, which at $60 per ton makes the annual value of the urine of one cow $28.83, which might all be saved, and would be a large percentage of her worth.

NEW PETTICOATS.—A novelty in petticoats has recently been adopted among fashionables. For all but dress, the white petticoat has been discarded for one of alapaca; and they have a great advantage over the linen or cotton ones, inasmuch as they are lighter and do not lose their stiffness. Of course, if the dress be grenadine, barege or other clear texture, the petticoats must be of the same color. They are made very full and gored, and have a broad black ribbon or velvet above the hem; sometimes there is a trimming of gathered ribbon put on the vandykes. The dresses are invariably caught up at the sides to show this under petticoat. When it is not necessary to match the tint of the dress, a stone color is the best shade to wear.

All Venezuela is again involved in civil war, and the whole male population has been called to arms.

Address: Wm. B. Hurd & Co.
Tribune Buildings, New York.

Dr. Hurd's MOUTH WASH, TOOTH POWDER, and TOOTHACHE DROPS cannot be sent by mail, but they can probably be obtained at your Drug or Periodical Stores. If they cannot, send to us for the Dental Treasury, price, One Dollar, which contains them.

ARE DR. HURD'S PREPARATIONS GOOD?
The best evidence that they are is, that their firmest friends and best patrons are those who have used them longest. Dr. WILLIAM B. HURD is an eminent Dentist of Brooklyn, Association, and these preparations have been used in his private practice for years, and no leading citizen of Brooklyn or Williamsburgh questions their excellence, while eminent Dentists of New York recommend them as the best known to the profession. Without the aid of advertising, dealers have sold them by the gross.

The Editor of the Brooklyn Daily Times says: "We are happy to know that our friend, Dr. Hurd, is succeeding beyond all expectations with his Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder. The great secret of his success rests with the fact that his articles are precisely what they are represented to be, as we can testify from their long use."
The well-known P. T. Barnum writes: "I found your Tooth Powder so good that my family have used it all up. We find it the best powder for the teeth that we ever used. I shall feel obliged if you will send me another supply at the Museum at your convenience, with the bill."
But their cost is so small that every one may test the matter for himself.

Beware of the ordinary Tooth Powders. Dr. Hurd's Tooth Powder contains no acid, nor alkali, nor charcoal, and polishes without wearing the enamel. Use no other.
WHAT DOES DR. HURD'S REMEDIES EFFECT?
Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder will give young ladies that finest charm in woman—a sweet breath and pearly teeth. Try them, ladies.
Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder will cleanse the mouth from all foul exhalations, and if used in the morning, will make the breakfast taste sweeter and the day begin more pleasantly. Hundreds of persons can testify to this. Try them, gentlemen.
Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder are the best preparations in the world for curing gum disease and giving firmness and health to the gums. Hundreds of cases of Diseased Bleeding Gums, Sore Mouth, Canker, etc., have been cured by Dr. Hurd's astringent wash.
Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder give an additional charm to courtship, and make husbands more agreeable to their wives and wives to their husbands. They should be used by every person having ARTIFICIAL TEETH, which are liable to impart a taint to the mouth.
Dr. Hurd's Toothache Drops cure Toothache arising from exposed nerves, and are the best means that patients can have in the house to save their children from torments and themselves from loss of sleep and sympathetic suffering.
Farmers and Mechanics! you cannot well afford to neglect your teeth. For a trifling sum, you can now get preservatives, than which Rothschild or Astor can get nothing better. Remember that Dyspepsia and Consumption of the Lungs often originate in Neglect of Teeth. Send for the Treatise on Teeth, and read Dr. Fitch's observation on this subject. It is too late to arrest decay in your own teeth, save your children's teeth.

Neuralgia Plasters.
Dr. Hurd's Neuralgia Non-adhesive Plasters are the most pleasant and successful remedies ever prescribed for this painful disease. The patient applies one, soon becomes drowsy, falls asleep, and awakes free from pain, and no blister or other unpleasant or injurious consequences ensue. For Earache and Nervous Headache, apply according to directions, and relief will surely follow. Nothing can be obtained equal to Dr. Hurd's Plaster for Neuralgia. Try them. They are entirely a novel, curious, and original preparation, and wonderfully successful. They are of two sizes, one small, for the face, price 15 cents, and the other large, for application to the body, price 37 cents. Will be mailed on receipt of price and one stamp.

WHAT ARE THE PEOPLE DOING?
The American people are intelligent enough to appreciate preparations that contribute so much to the happiness of those using them, and they want them. Every mail brings us letters, some ordering the Treatise on Teeth, some the NEURALGIA PLASTERS, and not a few enclosing 37 cents for the MOUTH WASH, to be sent by mail; but to those we are compelled to reply that it is impossible to send a half-pint bottle by mail. The people want these Remedies. Who will supply them? Now is the Chance for Agents.

Shrewd agents can make a small fortune in carrying these articles around to families. The Dental Treasury is the nearest article that men or women can carry around. Send for one and see, or, better, a dozen, which we will sell as samples for $7. Wm. B. Hurd & Co., Tribune Buildings, New York.

THE DAY SCHOOL BELL, A NEW SINGING BOOK FOR DAY SCHOOLS, called the DAY SCHOOL BELL is now ready. It contains about 200 pages of choice Songs, Rounds, Catches, Duets, Trios, Quartets, and Choruses, many of them written expressly for this work, besides 23 pages of the Elements of Music. The Elements are so easy and progressive, that ordinary teachers will find themselves entirely successful in instructing even young scholars to sing correctly and scientifically, while the times and words embrace such a variety of lively, attractive and soul-stirring music and sentiments, that no trouble will be experienced in inducing all beginners to go on with zeal in acquiring skill in one of the most health-giving, beauty-improving, happiness-yielding, and order-producing exercises of school life. In simplicity of its elements in variety and adaptation of music, and in excellence and number of its songs, original, selected, and adapted, it claims by much to excel all competitors. It will be found to be the best book ever issued for Seminaries, Academies, and Public Schools. A few sample pages of the Elements, Tunes, and Songs, are given in a circular, sent and get one. It is compiled by HORACE WATERS, Author of "Sabbath School Bells," Nos. 1 and 2, of which have had the enormous sale of 655,000 in 36 months. Prices, paper covers, 20 cents, $15 per 100; Bound, 30 cents, $22 per 100; cloth bound, embossed gilt, 40 cents, $30 per 100. 25 copies furnished at the 100 price. Mailed free at the retail price.
