

Deboted to the Principles of Irue Democracy, and the Dissemination of Morality, Literature and News.

VOLUME XIV .-- NUMBER 20.

COUDERSPORT, POTTER COUNTY, PA., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 30, 1862.

TERMS.--$1.00 PER ANNUM.

THE POTTER JOURNAL M. W. McAlarney, Proprietor. $1.00 PE YEAR, INVARIABLY IN ADVANCE.

*Devoted to the cause of Republicanism. the interests of Agriculture, the advancement, Measureless spread, like a table dread, of Education, and the best good of Potter For the wild grim dice of the iron game.

County. Owning no guide except that of The looks are bent on the shaking ground, Principle, it will endeaver to aid in the work And the heart beats loud with a knelling sound; of more fully Freedomizing our Country.

Apventisements inserted at the following rates, except where special bargains are made. rates, except where special bargards 50
1 Square [10 lines] 1 insertion, - - - $1 50 Each subsequent insertion less than 13, six ` " nine Column six months, ---- 20 00 _ _ _ _ _ 10 00

dministrator's or Executor's Notice, Business Cards, 8 lines or less, per year 5 00 Special and Editorial Notices, pc. line, 10

***All transient advertisements must be See the smoke how the lightning is cleaving per year.

paid in advance, and no notice will be taken, of advertisements from a distance, unless they are accompanied by the money or satisfactory

BUSINESS CARDS.

EULALIA LODGE, No. 342, F A. M. STATED Meetings on the 2nd and 4th Wednes-days of each month. Also Masonic gather- "Rendy?"—From square to square it goes. days of each month. Also Masonic gatherings on every Wednesday Evening, for work and practice, at their Hall in Coudersport. And thefire comes sharpfrom the TIMOTHY IVES, W. M.

SAMUEL HAVEN, Sec'y.

JOHN S. MANN. ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW, Coudersport, Pa., will attend the several Courts in Potter and M'Kean Counties. All Over the host falls a brooding night!

and Third streets. ARTHUR G. OLMSTED,

ATTORNEY & COUNSELLOR AT LAW, Coudersport, Pa., will attend to all business entrusted to his care, with promptnes and fide ity. Office on Soth-west corner of Main and Fourth streets.

ISAAC BENSON.

TTORNEY AT LAW, Coudersport, Pa., will refer the Charlotte thy last farewell, attend to all business entrusted to him, with care and promutness. Office on Second st. ATTORNEY AT LAW, Coudersport, Pa., will care and promptness. Office on Second st., near the Allegheny Bridge.

F. W. KNOX, ATTORNEY AT LAW, Coudersport, Pa., will regularly attend the Courts in Potter and the adjoining Counties.

O. T. ELLISON,

PRACTICING PHYSICIAN, Coudersport, Pa. respectfully informs the citizens of the village and vicinity that he will promply reond to all calls for professional services Office on Main st., in building formerly occupied by C. W. Ellis, Esq.

C. S. & E. A. JONES, Uils, Fancy Articles, Stationery, Dry Good: Groceries, &c., Main st., Condersport, Pa.

D. E. OLMSTED, DEALER IN DRY GOODS, READY-MADE Clothing, Crockery, Groceries, &c., Main st., Coudersport, Pa.

COLLINS SMITH, DEALER in Dry Goods, Groceries, Provisions Hardware, Queensware, Cutlery, and all Goods usually found in a country Store.—

Coudersport, Nov. 27, 1861. M. W. MANN DEALER IN BOOKS & STATIONERY, MAG-AZINES and Music, N. W. corner of Mair

and Third sts., Coudersport, Pa. COUDERSPORT HOTEL, D. F. GLASSMIRE, Proprietor, Corner o

Main and Second Streets, Coudersport, Potter Co., Pa.

tion with this Hotel.

SURVEYOR, CONVEYANCER, &c., BROOK-LAND, Pa., (formerly Cushingville.) Office in his Store building.

MARK GILLON, TAILOR-nearly opposite the Court Housewill make all clothes intrusted to him in the latest and best styles -Prices to suit the times.—Give him a call.

ANDREW SANBERG & BRO'S. TANNERS AND CURRIERS .- Hides tanned

"THE UNION" ARCH STREET, ABOVE THIRD, Philadelphia.

UPTON S. NEWCOMER, Proprietor. This Hotel is central, convenient by every particular adapted to the wants of the and specifications have already been Passenger cars to all parts of the city, and in business public. Terms $1 50 per day.

UNION HOTEL,

in town. Nothing that can in any way inother crop, propose to lay their cities in last of the grand army had gone over in General, and gave him command of a dicrease the comforts of the guests will be neother crop, propose to lay their cities in last of the grand army had gone over in deem them. Dec. 11,1861 ashcs.

THE BATTLE.

By SCHILLER.

Heavy and solumn, A cloudy column, Thro' the green plain they marching cam Swift by the breasts that must bear the brun Gallops the Major along the front-

" Halt !" And fettered they stand at the stark command, 50 And the warriors, silent, halt!

Proud in the blush of morning glowing, What on the hill-top shines in flowing! See you the foeman's banners waving ?" "We see the foeman's banners waving!"
God be with ye—children and wife!" Hark to the music—the trump and the fife, How they ring thro' the ranks which they rouse to the strife!

Thrilling they sound with their glorious tone 20 00 Thrilling they go thro the marrow and bone! fell in vast quantities, and was attended Brothers, God grant when this life is o'er, In the life to come that we meet once more!

> assunder! Hark the guns, peal on peal, how they boom in their thunder!

From host to host, with kindling sound The shouting signal circles round, Aye, shout it forth to life or death— Freer already breathes the breath! The war is raging, slaughter raging, And heavy through the reeking pall, The iron death-dice fail!

And the fire comes sharpfrom the foremost rank Many a man to the earth is sent, Many a gap by the balls is rent— O'er the corpse before springs the hinder man, That the line may not fail to the fearless van. To the right, to the left, and around and around. God's sunlight is quenched in the fiery fight, business entrusted in his care will receive Brothers, God grant when this life is o'er, prompt attention. Office corner of West In the life to come that we meet once more?

> The dead men lie bathed in the weltering blood, And the feet, as they reeling and sliding go, Stumble still on the corpses that sleep below. "What, Francis!" "Give Charlotte my last farewell."

> As the dying man murmurs, the thunders swell-"I'll give—O God! are the gans so near? Ho! comrads!—yon volley!—look sharp to in vain,

The friend thou forsakest thy side shall regain! Hitherward—thitherward reels the fight, 1 Brothers, God grant when this life is o'er, In the life to come that we meet once more !

Hark to the hoofs that galloping go ! The Adjutants flying—
The horsemen press hard on the panting foe Their thunder; booms in dying-

Victory! The terror has seized on the dastards all, tomb of the old hero who so emphatically as Napoleon himself, on foot like the rest, Mexico, and distinguished himself for declared that "the Union must and shall with a beachen staff in his hand, back to his soldierly attributes. At the battle of be preserved." An army correspondent almost inevitable destruction, trudged Pittsburg Landing he headed his troops, of the Indianapolis Journal writes from through the bloody snow. camp Andrew Jackson, a few days since, as tollows:

What a wreck was here of all that gloof shot and shell, and his brave boys follows:

Napoleon crossed the Dnie-lowed him as though they were guests guard. We were obliged to leave two of over 70,000 men. batteries about four failes from camp, in But 12,000 of the Grand Army reconsequence of the bridges being too mained !- and not a single cannon. rickety to risk their going over in safety. Yet, in the wake of these, there came

NEW BRIDGE AT NIAGARA FALLS. of the bridge is already completed, plans corpse. at the earliest practicable moment. The

The Retreat from Moscow.

The retreat of the French army fro the innocents, nor the massacre of St. ander, and Atilla and Charlemagne shall As if rebuking the sagest calculations of with most inclement gales, and biting frosts. The French burned with the sun in the summer months, had thrown their spare clothing away; and now their shoes were worn out with toilsome marches, their provisions were exhausted. naught save their horses, jaded and lean, remained for them to ea.. The Russians, on the other hand, well clad, inured to the terrible climate, flush in all provisions and munitions of war, returned upside. Such was even the beginning of their had not left even the bones and husks of promoted for his gallantry in California. human sustenance. There was no manito give general battle, but rather to harrass them to death. The name of Napoleon hovered over and protected the solemn host.

Thirty thousand men under the dauntless Ney, the palladium of Bonaparte, and next to him, the hero of heroes ry of State for the territory of California. formed the rear guard of this dread re- In the naval and military operations on treat.

Emperor covered every point of strategy. Comparatively a young man, being only He could not be baffled; he could not be 43 years of age. His grandfather, now in kept back. Calculation after calculation, his hundredth year, is living in the vilbased upon the supposed positions of the lage of Western, near Utica. other divisions of the grand army, still saved him, as at the last moment, from and is just 40 years of age. He is a destruction, and still the straggling army graduate of West Point; was attached to made its way, famishing, freezing, perishing. But one in fourteen had been eleven years. Immediately after the outable to endure,-their bodies strewed the break he offered his services to Gov. wilderness. And squadron after squadone of the 21st Regiment of Illinois, and was appointed Coltoolling band of the fighting Ney.

At South-Eastern Missouri. His occupation one time their came a rumor that the of Paducah and stopping supplies to the one time their came a rumor that the rear guard were being overpowered:—in a moment, immortal honor to his generous fight, And the day, like a conqueror, bursts on hight. Trumpet and fife swelling choral along, The triumph already sweeps marching in song. The wilderness, against ten times bis edds, to the memory the memory in th It will gratify many to learn that the of the cheery shout, "Live the Emperor!" and the smoke of battle, and electric Union flag-staff with the other, thus come either a judge, a general, a presi-It will gratify many to learn that the of the energy shout, Live the Emperor. blue eyes. He was with Gen. Taylor in Union flag staff with the other, thus come the a judge, a general blue eyes. He was with Gen. Taylor in Stars and Stripes again float over the slung back the bitter and remorseless air blue eyes. He was with Gen. Taylor in showing that, dumb brute as he is, he dent, or a foreign nobleman. He remains

"Yesterday Gen. Nelson made a recon- pers with 6,000 guards, out of 35,000; noissance in force towards Lebanon He Eugene with 1,800 out of 24,000; and took with him the second Calvary, three Davoust, stript even of his shirt, led 4, a graduate of West Point. Prior to the A Livery Stable is also kept in connect batteries of artillery and five regiments of 900 squalid and dyiog followers—the reinfantry. Our regiment led the advance mains, from cold, famine, and the sword, ington Territory Mounted Volunteers, in

We went as far as the "Hermitage," the 2 half naked, famishing, murderous, throng former residence of Andrew Jackson. As of 30,000 wretches, without discipline, we approached the sacred spot, the band and without remorse. No man has dared Donelson, where he greatly distinguished 13.41 of the Thirty-Sixth Indiana played a Na. -and few have lived to tell of all the himself. tional air. Gen. Nelson halted the column horrors of that moving pandemonium.and the Stars and Stripes were planted at was forbidden to speak of it. The the present war. He was a leader in the on the shares, in the best manner. Tan- over the tomb of Jackson and the Harris more enduring stripped of the clothing Douglas wing of the Democratic party, nery on the east side of Allegany river. battery fired a salute of sixteen guns. To Coudersport, Potter county, Pa.—Jy 17, 61 comment on the deremonies of the occasion would be useless, as all who know more inducement than the hoof of a dead spicuously in the Baltimore and Charlesthe history of the "hero of New Orleans" horse. There were moaning sufferers ton Conventions. He was opposed to OLMSTED & KELLY, the history of the "hero of New Orleans" horse. There were moaning sumerers who gnawed with desperation the frag. WARE, Main'st., nearly opposite the Court troops while standing before the tomb of long bone like a miser. There were moaning sumerers who fears assassing line again at Pittsburg. He left his seat long bone like a miser. There were moaning sumerers who fears assassing line again at Pittsburg. He left his seat long bone like a miser. There were moaning sumerers who fears assassing line again at Pittsburg. He left his seat long bone like a miser. There were moaning sumerers who fears assassing line again at Pittsburg. He left his seat long bone like a miser. There were moaning sumerers who fears assassing line again at Pittsburg. House, Coudersport, Pa. Tin and Sheet Jackson. Gen. Nelson and staff were in-Iron Ware made to order in good style, on vited into the mansion, and remained short notice.

Some time."

Helson and staff were inless boute like a miser, who leafs assassing of the Government. As a soldier, he ation for his gold, yea, the meagre by the had his first trial at the battle of Belmont. who fain would see the bright eyes of and came off with flying colors His adtheir loved ones once more concealed ministration of affairs in Cairo was very away their whisky and tobacco. They A new bridge is to be built on the Amer under their shrunken arms the warm satisfactory. At Fort Henry and Fort will follow soon, of course. ican side, leading to Goat Island. A draft and wasted flesh of the new fallen Donelson he won fresh laurels, and for drawn, and the work is to be commenced should blacken the annals of the world! graceful—a true gentleman and a true But above in interest, and beyond all soldier. question of title to the island in the river, these, stands the sublime devotion of Gen. Buell is a native of Chio, a gradclaimed as belonging to the Porter estate, Marshal Ney. Like the star that keeps uate of West Point, and now in the me-Coudersport, Potter county, Penn., is in dispute. It is asserted that all the its orbit, and we know not why, save for redian of life. He has been in the ser-A. S. ARMSTRONG

Islands which have never been surveyed, the deep integrity of its nature, he could vice twenty years; was in the Mexican house on Main street, recently occupied in the river near to Goat Island, belong not quit his post. With a meagre band war. When the present war broke out to the Government. by R. Rice; is prepared to accommodate the to the Government.

The rebels having failed to lay in any he held the bridge of Konow, until the fornia. Congress made him a Briadier-

the legends of that awful path come down from mouth to mouth by the firesides of Europe; and the direful tale will still be told, when Xerxes and Alex.

The legends of that awful path come down from mouth to mouth by the firesides of Europe; and the direful tale will still be told, when Xerxes and Alex.

The legends of that awful path come despite the firesides of Europe; and the direful tale and with suspicion. "Do you not know to the Robel General George B. Critten the water, to be poured into a cup, drank me, General?" "No!" Folding his den. When the Rebels first assumed a lit, and thanked the Arab with a smile, and the tale and the direction.

The legends of that awful path come despite to him with the apartment, and said, with a sepulchral is terrible in execution.

Gen. Crittenden is a Kentuckian, son despite the little gift brought to him with so much trouble. He ordered some of the Robel General George B. Critten with a smile, will still be told, when Xerxes and Alex.

The legends of that awful path come the apartment, and said, with a sepulchral is terrible in execution.

Gen. Crittenden is a Kentuckian, son despite the little gift brought to him with so much trouble. He ordered some of the Robel General George B. Critten with a smile, will still be told, when Xerxes and Alex. the river!"

"Bravest of the brave!"

The Western Generals.

Major Gen. Halleck is a native of Onon their path like vultures, and lined Military Academy at West Point as a cathe passes in front and rear, and on every det in 1835, stood third in the class and neers in 1839. In 1845, he was appoinretreat over a route on which the advance ted First Lieutenant. In 1847 he was In 1853 he was appointed Captain of Enfest design on the part of the Russians giveers. He is the author of a book on "Bitumen and its Uses," and a series of lectures on Military Science, delivered before the Lowell Institute, in Boston. He was a member of the Committee to draft the Constitution for the State of California; had previously been Secretathe Pacific Coast he was Chief of Com There was battle every day, in front modore Shubric's Staff. He is an astute and rear. The unsleeping eye of the lawyer a man of fortune, and is now

Major-Gen. Grant is a native of Ohio,

Gen. Waliace is a native of Illinois and War. At the commencement of the rebellion he raised a regiment of Volunteers in Illinois, and was appointed its Colonel. With this regiment of noble and daring fellows he was at Fort Henry and Fort safety, and the last groundier fell a corpse vision of the army of the Potomac .- deem them.

Gen. McClernard won his spurs during his bravery was created a Major-General. God forbid that such another tragedy He is about 45 years of age, tall and from Skidaway.

as Gen. Dumas was seated in consultation a man of great physical strength and present it to the caliph himself. Bartholomew's, nor plague, nor earth-with a physician on the German side of powers of endurance; has light hair, blue quake, nor ought, save the great flood itself, so overwhelms the mind, with the man, in a tattered military cloak, entered years of age. Though slow to move, he birden of gring terror and devolution.

rags upon his martial breast, the appari warlike attitude in Kentucky, he took ordered him to be presented with a rehave sunk out of the earths remembrance. tion answered, "I am the rear guard of command of the Home Guard [not the ward. the grand army,—and my name is— stay-at-home,] and checked the progress The courtiers around pressed forward, philesophy, snow fell twenty days earlier Marshal Ney; I have fired the last shot, of the Rebels toward Louisville. He eager to taste of the wonderful water, than had been known in twenty years and the last musket sleeps in the mud of comes of a good stock, and gives a good but to the surprise of all, the caliph foraccount of himself.

Well might the youth, and blood and Gen. Hurlbut is a Carolinian by birth, ed his royal head, and hailed him as the now commands a part of Gen. Grant's conduct : glorious army. He has the chivalry, the | "During the travels of the Arab," said nia, a graduate of the Military Academy; have received it with pleasure. But I eida County, N. Y. He entered the has been teacher of infantry tactics. He well knew that had I suffered another to was at the battle of Fort Donelson, and partake of it, he would not have confor his gallantry was created a Major cealed his disgust; therefore I forbade was breveted Second Lieutenant of Engi- General. He was severely wounded at you to touch the draught, lest the heart the battle of Pittsburg Landing. His of the poor man should have been woundwounds are red stripes and his deeds stars ed." upon his coat of arms.

chanic of Scranton, Pa.

with a crooked top and a number of traitor. Uncle Sam, with eagle face and much as ever. cap surmounted by stars and stripes, Finally, when the affair is settled, she is the final figure, an American sailor, a novelesque hero. grasps the stars and stripes in the other. and stands erect on the crushed Serpent S.C. Mercer has established an outspoken, of Rebellion. This cane has most of the figures on it the body of the stick being black. It In his introductory the editor says: "The is the product of the leisure hours of present State Government has no com-John Hawkes, an ingenius mechanic of promise to offer, and will take no step Scranton, Pa., who is noted for his mechanical ingenuity.

ongeance, and are now very careful to can deter it from its duty; and so long keep apart. When they seem about to as it discharges this duty in pursuance of meet, one sheers off one way, and the the Constitution and the laws, it can take other the opposite way. They cut each no step where I dare not follow. Let the other with a pair of sheers.

The Richmond Rebels are sending

They rebels have fled from Skidaway Island, near Savannah—glad to scud away

The, Savannah Georgian boasts that he Southern Confederacy is still affoat. Babbles float till they burst. Girls play beautifully upon planes and our soldiers upon forts. The Rebels must be getting bare-footed when they put out manifest-toes.

The Confederate rulers are like the

at his feet. Scorning to fly or even to When Gen. Anderson resigned his THE ARAB'S GIFT .-- A poor Arab was turn his face from the enemy, he retreat command. Gen. Buell was appointed traveling in the desert, when he met ed backward over the bridge, while the to take his place in the department of with a spring of clear, sweet, sparkling Mescow to Poland, through a thousand bullets whistled all around him - and Ohio. It was under his aupervision the water. Accustomed as he was to brackmiles of snow and wilderness, of battle firing the last shot into the Russian army that marched from Bowling Green ish wells, to his simple mind it appeared and of blood, stands out in the world's ranks, he threw the empty piece into the history as the sublime of horror, of passion and devotion. Not the slaughter of the night of the 12th of December, he was created a Major-General. He is from the spring, he determined to go and the innecessity of the night of the 12th of December, he was created a Major-General. He is bade them to touch even a single drop:

After the poor Arab had quitted the chivalry of France, of all that fought in but a citizen of the State of Illinois. At royal presence with a light and joyful Egypt, Syria. Italy, bow their consent- the outbreak of our troubles, he served heart, the caliph turned to his courtiers ing eyes, as Napoleon himself unbonnet in Missouri under Gen. Fremont. He and thus explained the motives of his > courage, and the magninimity of the true he, "the water in this leathern bottle had become impure and distasteful. But it Gen. Smith is a native of Pennsylva- was an offering of love, and as such I

> All that sinners can present to their king is like the water brought by the Presentation to the President. Arab, though like him we may fancy it WASHINGTON, April 7, 1862. | worthy the acceptance of our Lord.-Representative McPherson will to But he will not reject—he will not demorrow present a cane to the President, spise the little offering of love and faith; made by John Hawkes, an ingenius me- for he hath promised that even a cup of cold water given in the name of a disci-The cane was originally a cedar stick, ple shall in no wise lose its reward.

branches. The top has been converted GIRLS' IDEAS OF MEN.—At sixteen & into an American eagle, with life-like girl considers no man good enough to be bill. Under its throat is the national her husband. She must have a real, live shield, with the words inscribed thereon, archangel, with "humid crbs," a "marble "Union forever." The eagle grasps in brow," on which "cluster wavy tresses, his talons. Jeff. Davis by the seat of the black as the raven's wing;" a moustache breeches. Below him on each side, is a of silken softness, and ebony hue; in # cannon—the arbiter of our national diffi- word, no human being of flesh and blood culties. On the other side is a lion in qualities, but an altogether sweet and full spring, with a rattlesnake near by lovely and ideal creation, in purple and Below the lion comes a goat, in the act of linen, and no small vices. Unfortunateleaping; and a buck and doe, at full ly, no such person exists. Has is a pleasspeed, follow him. A fox is springing ant myth of the butter thunder school of between them; and then comes an eagle, romance, and has no material form in this knows enough to hold up the stars and good looking, penniless, and clever, and stripes, and in the meanwhile punish a the aspiring young lady loves him as grapples John Bull by the horn, who in weds him at twenty, settles down into an turn is pinching his lion's tail to excite excellent matron, and enjoys her life to his rage, but the lion takes it quite cool breaks her heart, and marries a tallowly on his haunches. Next is a grizzly chandler, bald, but wealthy, at twenty-five, bear "squatted on his hunkers;" then a and regrets it at her leisure. Such is the cur, a blue bird, and a rabbit in full general history of maidens who set forth which position be took part in the Indian bound. On the side opposite the latter with an idea of marrying nothing short of

> A UNION PAPER AT NASHVILLE .unconditional Union paper at Nashville, Tenn. It is called the Nashville Union. not only earwed, but painted to the life Its motto is "Freedom and Nationality." backward in its great work of restoration and reconstruction. It is firmly resolved to succeed triumphantly or to perish ut-Pillew and Floyd have mutually sworn terly, and neither persuasion nor threats people consider, that if it was worth a seven-years war to win our liberties from British tyranny, it is worth a seven rimes seven-years war to preserve it from Confederate tyranny."

Gov. Wise while he hung John Brown, talked enthusiastically of the old man's nerve. It seems, then, that a chap came simire nerve without having it.

The Confederate papers say that is taken five Union men to match one rebel. It generally takes full that number to eatels him.

Why is Gen. Floyd like one of the loyal is a General Hooker