

YORKTOWN EVACUATED.

Yesterday afternoon we received a dispatch from the Supervisor of Telegraphs at Fortress Monroe...

We have later news from Mexico confirmatory of the completeness of the rupture between the Allied invaders...

The Rebels in lower Virginia during Saturday night hastily evacuated their strong line of fortifications at Yorktown...

The last pretense of the Rebel organs has been that, though we were successful on the sea-coast and the great rivers by means of our gunboats...

The war has now been over a year in progress, and has been signalized by not less than a hundred distinct combats of greater or less consequence...

THE JOURNAL.

Coudersport, Pa. Wednesday, May 7, 1862. M. W. McALARNEY, Editor. No Wonder. The Breckinridge papers are raising a great hue and cry about a new secret society...

The one idea of Liberty as the Express Democrats take it: "Free Liquor starving children and desolate homes..."

The French Minister at Washington has been on a visit to Richmond; for what purpose is not known outside of purely diplomatic circles...

The siege of Troy is said to have lasted ten years, that of Sebastopol one; while that of Island No. 10 lasted only four weeks...

In regard to the surrender of Fort Macon we have the following from a Wilmington journal: "We have just learned that the fire upon the fort was opened at a quarter before six o'clock on Friday morning..."

From Washington.

SENATE CHAMBER, WASHINGTON, D. C., April 30, 1862. EDITOR JOURNAL: It is twelve years since I paid my first visit to this City...

This is the fourth day of my visit to the two Houses, and though I have heard several conservative members elaborate and labored efforts to resist the confiscation and other bills introduced by the earnest opponents of rebellion...

The British Chancellor of the Exchequer states that the dispatch of troops to America, in view of a possible war with the United States, cost $4,250,000...

The Galena—the new iron clad vessel—is at Fortress Monroe, ready for action. She is as strong, and three times as formidable as the Monitor.

War is a lottery, in which every customer may draw a sword.

News Items.

YANKEE QUICKNESS.—In less than two days after the reception of the news of the capture of New Orleans, two large vessels cleared at the port of Boston...

A secession Tennessee planter, when in Nashville the other day to sell his cotton, was reproached by a Rebel for so doing...

The Seward-Lyons Treaty.—The text of this treaty for the suppression of the slave trade is published. It concedes to English and American men of war, commissioned for that purpose, the right to enforce the prohibition of the infamous traffic in slaves...

THE SECRETARY OF THE NAVY.—The late report of the resignation of this officer was started by persons who had failed to make steamboat contracts with the Navy Department.

A German eighty nine years of age, who arrived in New York on Thursday in the Bavaria, was met on the steamer by two or three daughters, and in the joy of affectionate greeting died in their arms.

PRICE CURRENT.

Corrected every Wednesday by P. A. BINS & CO., Wholesale and Retail Dealers in Groceries and Provisions, opposite D. F. Glassmire's Hotel, Coudersport, Pa.

There is a farmer in Putnam county, New York, who has a mile of children. His name is furlong, and he has eight boys and girls. Eight furlongs make one mile.

Price Lewis, a former resident of Walcottville, Conn., was hung as a spy at Richmond, a few days since. He had made several trips to the rebel camps successfully, but was caught at last and manfully paid the penalty.

The Wisconsin Regiment staying nearly a year in Maryland, got up seventy marriages with the daughters of Maryland. Senator Doollittle illustrated the tendency of the North to colonize the South, by this fact.

PROSPECTS.—Wheat, in Illinois and other Free States, looks very promising. Fruit has seemed thus far to escape winter dangers, and it is hoped will be abundant.

PROSPECTS.

THE NEW YORK EVENING POST, A Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly Newspaper. FOR THE UNION AND THE WAR.

This well-known journal is now in the fifty first year of its existence. It has always been a leading journal of the city, taking part in all the discussions of the day, and uttering its sentiments with candor, fearlessness and independence.

TERMS: Daily Evening Post. Single copy, one year, in advance $2 00. Three copies, in advance 25 00. Single copy, per month 75

NOTICE.—This is to certify that a Resolution obtained against me July 13, 1860, in favor of J. A. R. Greenman, I wish not pay for the reason that there is no value received. I forbid any person buying said judgment.

THE BEST OF FLOUR kept constantly on hand at the Post Office Store, Jan. 8.