NEW GOODS AT STEBBINS'

We had a trip into a part of Potter this last week and will, in our next, give some account of what we saw. The crowded state of our columns will not permit it this week.

Our "Imp" says he saw fine peach trees in full bloom near town this week. Bad sign!—not the blossoms, but our "Imp" seeing them!

COWAN, of the "Warren Mail," is again at his post. His "winter at Harrisburg" has somewhat "greased" his pen and he now seems to "flourish as a green bay tree." Witty fellow that COWAN, ain't he? May his "shadow never grow less," and his beard turn not gray.

Our friend LUCAS BIRD has a new advertisement this week. We take pleasure in recommending him to the patronage of our friends in that section, feeling confident that they will find an honorable and accommodating business man, and always up to the times in the necessities of life and some things that bachelors do not consider absolutely necessary.

Fire at Eleven Mile. Mr. EDITION: Last Saturday, about 6 P. M. a fire broke out in the Eagle Mills of J. P. Keltz, which consume the entire building, and with it a large amount of machinery, tools, some shingles, and a blacksmith shop adjoining, with its contents. It began so suddenly and raged so fiercely that there was no time to save anything, and it was by great exertion that the houses and piles of lumber near were kept from burning. The men were at supper and had not been out of the building but twenty minutes when the fire came up through the roof. The loss is estimated at five or six thousand dollars.

A HEAVY FISH STORY.—Our friends, D. F. GLASSMIRE and W. A. EYDAM took eighty-five pounds of trout, in one day, from the Sinnemahoning. Who can beat that?

We would be much obliged if some one would always take the trouble to report for publication the Marriages and Deaths in their vicinity. There will be no charge in the future for either. Avoid long eulogies. We desire to make the JOURNAL as interesting as possible, and it is always of interest not only to those at a distance but also to those at home to know of the changes which nature is constantly making.

List of Letters remaining in the Post Office, Coudersport, Pa., May 16, 1862: Keasiah H. Baker, A. L. Griswold, Clark Haskins, Cleoford Haskins, Almira Kinney, Harry Lord, John G. Matteson, M. D. Moore, Frank Nelson, Margaret Noaton, Margaret White. J. S. MANN, P. M.

Borough Ordinance. At a meeting of the Town Council of the Borough of Coudersport, held on the 16th inst. the following amendment to the Pound Law was unanimously adopted, as follows: The Burgess and Town Council of the Borough of Coudersport hereby ordain: That the Second Section of Ordinance for Regulating the Pound Law passed August 5 1850, shall be so amended as to require the payment of One Dollar to the Pound Master for taking in and delivering out each horse, mare, or colt that may be hereafter impounded in accordance with said Ordinance and all Ordinances or Regulations conflicting herewith are hereby repealed.

WM. H. METZGER, Burgess pro tem. Attest: JOHN M. HAMILTON, Sec'y.

Announcement of Parson Brownlow's Book. The subscriber is about publishing a narrative of the perils, adventures, and sufferings of the Rev. W. G. BROWNLOW among the secessionists of Tennessee. The manuscript is nearly completed, and will be put to press forthwith. The appearance and typography of the work will be of the first class; and it will be fully and handsomely illustrated with sketches of the scenes referred to, and a finely engraved steel portrait of the author.

As to its contents, we have no hesitation in saying that the public will be startled at this narrative of facts. It will lay bare the persecutions and cruelty which marked the development of the secession conspiracy in Tennessee, the disasters and the ruin with which it devastated communities once prosperous, and sundered families once happy; more than all, it will expose the bad and reckless ambition, and the relentless bloodthirstiness, by which the ringleaders of the conspiracy were stimulated to their work of crime and treason.

The narrative is one of personal experiences. The author vouches for the accuracy of its statements. The public may therefore accept it as not only reliable but a peculiarly character in the general history of the times; and we are confident that no more significant, startling, or instructive memorial of the Rebellion, in its minute personal and social bearings, is now accessible.

The public are well aware that Mr. Brownlow is a bold-speaking man. In this narrative of his sufferings, composed mostly while confined in the jail at Knoxville, he has uttered his thoughts in language of extraordinary force and fearlessness, scattering his adversaries even while in their power, and appealing to his countrymen even from his cell with the urgency of a martyr.

It will be published in one volume, 12mo, fully illustrated of about 400 pages, at $1.25. GEORGE W. CUNDS, publisher, 628 and 630 Chestnut Street Philadelphia.

The Wonders of the Microscope

We understand it is through the agency of this marvelous viewing instrument that Dr. Ager has at length succeeded in finding "FALCATED WORM" and determining its character. Of its effects we in this section have abundant evidence in the Ferns and Agar which it alone produces when absorbed through the lungs into the blood. It has long been held to be a vapor, or something in the vapor of water from decayed and decaying vegetation. Under a great magnifying power, the Doctor has found this vapor to contain organisms or living bodies, corresponding precisely with those found in the blood of Ague subjects. They are 13,000 times less than visible to the naked eye, but have a distinct character and form. He thinks they are reproductive in the blood. He thinks they are reproductive in the blood, and hence their long continued life or the remote effects of them in the system. He maintains that they resemble in character the other fermentative poisons, or such as the virus or rabies or of a dead body, &c., all of which are known to reproduce themselves with great rapidity like yeast in moistened flour, so that the slightest quantity impregnates the whole mass. Yeast through a powerful magnifier is seen to be a forest of vegetation which grows, blossoms, and goes to seed in a short time. Miasm is not so distinctly vegetable, but has more the appearance of animal life, although its motions cannot be perfectly distinguished. What the Doctor claims to have settled is that it is an organic substance, and he has further found and embodied in his "Ague Cure" what will destroy it.—Leader, St. Louis, Mo.

DIED

In Homer, May 10, ALMEDA CALISTA, daughter of A. W. and Irene C. Lathrop, aged 3 years and nearly 3 months. Her eyes could blight, or sorrow fade, Death kindly came, with friendly care, The tender bud to heaven conveyed, And bade it bloom forever there. J. L.

In Coudersport, on the 6th inst., KATE, daughter of Charles and Mianna Manning, aged 13 months and 15 days: I had a little daughter once, She was my grateful pride; I loved her! Oh! perhaps too well, For soon she slept and died.

The fairest forms on earth appear And wither but too soon; She came to show how sweet a flower In Paradise can bloom.

On the battle-field, near Williamsburg, Va., May 6, 1862, NELSON CAMPBELL, son of Enoch Campbell of Hebron, Potter Co., Pa., aged about seventeen years. He was shot in the right shoulder, the ball penetrating in the direction of the heart.

Mr. EDITION: As far as my information extends the above is the first death on the battle-field among the Volunteers from Potter county. Mr. Campbell enlisted in July last, with five more men from Potter, in Co. C. 3d Regiment, Excelsior Brigade, N. Y. The battle near Williamsburg is the first they have been engaged in. One writes that they had nine killed, thirteen wounded and thirteen missing; thirty-four out of one company! They testify to the bravery of the deceased; he being wounded in the forehead of the engagement but kept on fighting four hours, when he received his death wound. There was another Hebron boy wounded—Monteville Monroe—who they thought would probably lose a leg. Wm. H. HYONIS.

Hebron, May 19 CAMP NEAR HARRISONBURG, VA. May 1, 1862. At a meeting of the members of Company G, 40th Regiment P. V., the following Preamble and Resolutions were unanimously adopted: Whereas, in the events of War we have been called to part with one of our number, ISAAC E. SEELYE, he having been shot by a party of Rebel Cavalry while bravely doing his duty in the service of his country near Harrisonburg, Va., Saturday, April 26, 1862, and therefore depriving us of a respected friend and true soldier, and his parents of a kind and dutiful son, therefore be it Resolved: 1st, That we record our deep regret at the loss of one whom we had learned to regard as a kind friend, good citizen, and true soldier; whose example we may well commend to our fellow soldiers, and to each other. 2d, That we deeply sympathize with his parents and friends, at home, in this their hour of affliction and grief, which we faintly would lighten by this expression of condolence. 3d, That a copy of the foregoing Resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased, and also one to the POTTER JOURNAL and Williamsville Free Press, with a request that they be published in their columns.
