

A Hospital Scene.
A lady who went to the Tennessee river to visit her husband who was in the army, and who spent some time as a nurse in one of the hospitals, gives an account of her experience. We quote the following touching sketch from one of her letters:

"My next patient was an orphan boy, sixteen years of age, Frank B., belonged to Birge's Sharpshooters, and a braver heart never beat in the bosom of mortal than that which beat in his.
Frankie's blue eyes greeted me with a glad smile before I was near enough to speak to him. When I bent over and asked him how he felt, he answered me cheerfully, saying he hoped to be able soon to return to his regiment.
I bathed his face, gave him a cup of hot tea, with some toast, and left him sleeping sweetly.
Poor little Frank B. grew daily weaker. Nothing could tempt him to eat, and his cough grew worse, while his face grew thin and pale. He never lost his joyous spirit, but always seemed hopeful, even when too ill to raise from his berth.
One afternoon I was startled on entering by the most piteous cries, and found that they came from my little favorite, generally so brave and patient.
"Why, Frankie, what is the matter?" I asked, bending over him.
"Oh, you have come! I did wish for you so much. Oh, I shall die, and I wanted somebody who seemed to care for me a little. You do love me, don't you, dear Mrs. S.?" You've been so kind to me. Oh, this pain! I can't stand it long!"

His hands grasped mine nervously, and every fiber of his frame quivered with pain. I saw that the dew of death was standing thickly on the broad, beautiful forehead over which the fair hair clustered prettily, and my eyes filled with tears of sorrow deeper than words could express. I stooped to kiss the blue lips of the dying boy.
"Oh, kiss me again, won't you? That is like my sister. Do kiss me once more; I feel better. Oh, I wouldn't mind to die, if my sisters were here to tell me they loved me. You do love me, a little don't you?"
"Yes, a great deal, Frankie, as much as if I were your sister. Don't you think so? I am sure you are a good boy, and I am sorry to see you suffer so."
He drew me down towards him and pressed his face close to my arm. I could endure no more. The boy's mute appeal for tenderness and sympathy in his dying hour, far from home, breathing out his young life among strangers, unremembered. I drew that young bright head to my bosom, and my tears fell fast upon its sunny curls.
Did the gentle sisters he loved have one thought of the scene that was transpiring on that night, while perchance they sat and talked of him, their only and petted brother, in the far off home in Nebraska?
"You will stay with me to-night, won't you?" he pleaded again. "Oh, you won't leave me to die alone?"
"No, Frankie, I'll stay with you."
He was comforted, and became more quiet as I clasped his hands and tried to soothe him. Gradually a purple hue overcame his face. Now his lips became white, and the large blue eyes grew restless. When he could no longer speak, those eyes would plead for some token of endearment, and each time that I pressed a kiss upon his forehead, a look of deep and earnest gratitude softened the suffering expression of his face.

About nine o'clock he breathed his last, and now every time I look down at my hand and see the little ring of mine he wore before he died, I seem to see the parting look of his great sad eyes as they fixed in death. How sad the task to brush back the damp locks from the cold brow, and compose the limbs in their last repose. That night I wept and prayed for the sisters as I had never wept and prayed for myself; he was all they had.

Well Done Oregon.
An election for State officers was held in Oregon on the 2d ult. Two Tickets were in the field composed of Republicans and Douglas Democrats on one side, and Breckinridgers or regular democrats on the other. The former, or Union Ticket, was elected by about 2,000 majority. The Governor elect, A. C. Gibbs, is a Douglas democrat, and the member of Congress elect, John McBride, is a Republican.

A number of flour barrels were recently received at Fort Monro, marked "Eggs—handle with care." They were addressed to private parties, but some army official opened them, when the eggs were found to be made of glass with long necks, and the contents found to consist of the oil of corn.
Five hundred contrabands are employed by the Union army at Newbern, N. C. in digging entrenchments outside the city. They receive rations and are paid regularly for their services.
A barrel of preserved green corn, put up fifteen years ago, was opened at Portland, Maine, the other day, and found to be as fresh and sweet, as it was the day it was sealed up.
"When a fellow is too lazy to work," says Sam Slick, "he paints his name over the door, and calls it a tavern or grocery, and makes the whole neighborhood as lazy as himself."

NOW,
ARE DR. HURD'S PREPARATIONS GOOD?
The best evidence that they are, is that their firmest friends and best patrons are those who have used them longest. Dr. WILLIAM B. HURD is an eminent Dentist of Brooklyn, Treasurer of the New York State Dentists' Association, and these preparations have been used in his private practice for years, and no leading citizen of Brooklyn or Williamsburgh questions their excellence, while eminent Dentists of New York recommend them as the best known to the profession. Without the aid of advertising, dealers have sold them by the gross.
The Editor of the Brooklyn Daily Times says: "We are happy to know that our friend, Dr. Hurd, is succeeding beyond all expectations with his Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder. The great secret of his success rests with the fact that his articles are precisely what they are represented to be, as we can testify from their long use."
The well-known P. T. Barnum writes:—"I found your Tooth Powder so good that my family have used it all up. We find it the best powder for the teeth that we ever used. I shall feel obliged if you will send me another supply at the Museum at your convenience, with the bill."
But their cost is so small that every one may test the matter for himself.
Beware of the ordinary Tooth Powders. Dr. Hurd's Tooth Powder contains no acid, nor alkali, nor charcoal, and polishes without wearing the enamel. Use no other.

WHAT DOES DR. HURD'S REMEDIES EFFECT?
Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder will give young ladies that finest charm in woman—a sweet breath and pearly teeth. Try them, ladies.
Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder will cleanse the mouth from all foul exhalations, and if used in the morning, will make the breakfast taste sweeter and the day begin more pleasantly. Hundreds of persons can testify to this. Try them, gentlemen.
Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder are the best preparations in the world for curing bad breath and giving firmness and health to the gums. Hundreds of cases of Diseased Bleeding Gums, Sore Mouth, Canker, etc., have been cured by Dr. Hurd's stringent wash.
Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder give an additional charm to courtship, and make husbands more agreeable to their wives and wives to their husbands. They should be used by every person having ARTIFICIAL TEETH, which are liable to impart a taint to the mouth.
Dr. Hurd's Toothache Drops cure Toothache arising from exposed nerves, and are the best friends that parents can have in the house to save their children from torture and themselves from loss of sleep and sympathetic suffering. Farmers and Mechanics! you cannot well afford to neglect your teeth. For a trifling sum you get preservatives, than which nothing is better. Remember that Dyspepsia and Consumption of the Lungs often originate in Neglect of Teeth. Send for the Treatise on Neuralgia, and read Dr. Fitch's observation on this subject. If too late to arrest decay in your own teeth, save your children's teeth.

Neuralgia Plasters.
Dr. Hurd's Neuralgia Non-adhesive Plasters are the most pleasant and successful remedies ever prescribed for this painful disease. The patient applies one, soon becomes drowsy, falls asleep, and awakes free from pain, and no blister or other unpleasant or injurious consequences ensue. For Earache and Nervous Headache, apply according to directions, and relief will surely follow. Nothing can be obtained equal to Dr. Hurd's Compound for Neuralgia, any other. They are entirely a novel, and an original preparation, and wonderfully successful. They are of two sizes, one small for the face, price 15 cents, and the other large, for application to the body, price 37 cents. Will be mailed on receipt of price and one stamp.
WHAT ARE THE PEOPLE DOING?
The American people are intelligent enough to appreciate preparations that contribute so much to the happiness of those using them, and they want them. Every mail brings us letters, some ordering the TREATISE on TEETH, some the NEURALGIA PLASTERS, and not a few enclosing 37 cents for the MOUTH WASH, to be sent by mail, but to those who are compelled to reply that it is impossible to send a half-pint bottle by mail. The people want these Remedies. Who will supply them? Now is the Chance for Agents.
Shrewd agents can make a small fortune in carrying these articles around to families. The Dental Treasury is the nearest article that men or women can carry around. Send if one sees or, or, better, a dozen, and we will sell as samples for $1. WM. B. HURD & CO., Tribune Buildings, New York.
That remittances may be made with confidence, W. B. H. & Co. refer to the Mayor of Brooklyn; to G. W. Griffith, President Farmers' and Citizens' Bank, Brooklyn, and to others.

PROSPECTUS
THE NEW-YORK EVENING POST,
A Daily, Semi-Weekly, and Weekly Newspaper.
FOR THE UNION AND THE WAR.
NO COMPROMISE OR SYMPATHY WITH TRAITORS

This well-known journal is now in the sixty-first year of its existence. It has always been a leading journal of the city, taking part in all the discussions of the day, and uttering its sentiments with candor, fearlessness and independence. Freedom now and forever has been and will continue to be its motto.
The Principles by which it is guided are: A strict construction of the Constitution, Economy in Government, No Political Jobbery, Honest Men for Office, Free Soil and Free Speech, and the prosecution of the war against treason until the last rebel has laid down his arms.
But the Evening Post, while it is fearless in the expression of its opinions, aims chiefly at being a good newspaper. It will contain full accounts of all the interesting occurrences of the day, embracing
1st. A Complete History of the War.
2d. Political Documents, Reports of Meetings, Speeches and Proceedings of Legislative Bodies.

In short, it is the design of the editors to make the Evening Post the BEST NEWSPAPER IN THE COUNTRY.
No pains of labor and no expense in money will be spared to accomplish this end.
As the Daily Evening Post circulates more largely, perhaps, than any other city journal among merchants, capitalists, bankers, brokers, lawyers, manufacturers and business men generally, it has always been the most eligible advertising medium. But since, however, its circulation has enormously increased, which fact offers additional inducements to those who wish their business made known.
