

YOLUME XIV NUMBER 31.

POTTER JOURNAL $1.00 PE YEAR, INVABLABLY IN ADVANCE.

THÉ

of more fully Freedomizing our Country.

25

00

ADVERTISEMENTS inserted at the following rates, except where special bargains are made 1 Square [10 lines] 1 insertion, 50 1 Square [10 lines] 1 insertion, 51 50 $1 50 Each subsequent insertion less than 13, 1. Square three months, - - - - six " 5 50 " nine 6 00 и. one year, 20 Column six months, -- - - 10 00 7 00 per year. Administrator's or Executor's Notice, Business Cards, 8 lines or less, per year 5 00 of advertisements from a distance, unless they defined emotions. are accompanied by the money or satisfactory The clasping of a reference *]*Blanks, and Job Work of all kinds, attended to promptly and faithfully.

BUSINESS CARDS.

EULALIA LODGE, No. 342, F. A. M. STATED Meetings on the 2nd and 4th Wednesdays of each month. Also Masonic gatherings on every Wednesday Evening, for work and practice, at their Hall in Condersport. TIMOTHY IVES, W. M.

SAMUEL HAVEN, Sec'y. JOHN S. MANN,

ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW. business entrusted in his care will receive so blessed and privileged, and these moprompt attention. Office corner of West ments of heart-revealing are plainly shown and Third streets.

ARTHUR G. OLMSTED, fide ity. Office on Soth-west corner of Main and Fourth streets.

ISAAC BENSON: care and promptness. Office on Second st., lawyer, and he, Su-turn, had learned to trance.' near the Allegheny Bridge.

regularly attend the Courts in Potter and the adjoining Counties.

O. T. ELLISON, PRACTICING PHYSICIAN. Condersport, Pa.,

Belle loved her proud, noble looking hus-Lingering in the Sunbeams. "Amy, my child, come in "" and the band, and they went to their home where mother's hand was placed upon the maid- one would think the shadows could never tains of Varmont, visited the city of Lon-M. W. McAlarney, Proprietor. en's shoulder as she continued "I tho't fall, for never was a lovelier nook, more don. While passing through one of the I should find you here; what were you suited to the taste of his bride than the principal thoroughfares of trade and travel, doing so long by the brookside ?"

the interests of Agriculture, the advancement was negering in the sundeams, queenly Belle. of Education, and the best good of Potter mamma," replied the young girl; "and I The honeymoon had scarcely passed exposed for sale at a shop-window. See-county. Owning no guide except that of watched the last faint gleam of the bright when Amy perceived a troubled look in ing the proprietor of the establishment of more fully Freedomizing our Country. Country sunshine until I saw it going far in the her sister's sportive orbs, and wondered standing in the door, the Yankee civilly west ; and only on the tops of the trees a what could make her unhappy, until, one inquired of him what they did with "them long way off the sunlight seemed to fall." day, on entering her sister's home, she nice bits of paper?"

"Hubert Colstien is here," answered Mrs. Warner, "and he wished to see you; will you go into the house, or shall I send him to this bed of mignionette and grief; and Belle, in her angry feelings, while he looked is though he was inventwell, yet feared to meet.

"Sister Amy, Mr. Colstien," said the Amy's heart ached for her, and before but a gentleman also. 40 00 merry youth, as he perceived their em- she left, she had. by her sweet counsels, 41 say, mister, can you tell me what 20 00 barrassment; and Amy's hand was re- soothed the mind of the angry wife, and that feller due for a livin' what keeps ceived in the extended clasping pressure subdued her to remorse and shame for them ere nice bits of paper at the winder?

efined cuotions. whispered at parting, "that these little those persons who desire his assistance." The clasping of a hand-what varied shadows are chilling to the heart; they "I reckon he is a very small dealer, can remember the bright hours of youth's dear, there is nothing like looking towards. De ye think he'd write a letter for me if dawn and early day, when the magnetic the brightness-nothing so calculated to I pay him for it?" touch of a hand had power to thrill the warm the heart as lingering in the sun-heart with feelings strangs and wild; beams."

senses that you were loved.

to soul, acknowledging the bond. ATTOBNEY & COUNSELLOR AT LAW, But an I how strange the feeling when forgiveness. "Will ye write jest what I tell you, Condersport, Pa., will attend totall business estrangement or unrequited love takes Tears trembled in her eyes as she and spell the words right, as we do in entrusted to his care, with promptnes and possession of mutual bearts, or darkens answered him, and they sat down by Varmount?" inquired the Yankee. the life of one being, and when those their fireside, happier and better than hands meet cause but one heart to throb, before. "Come to the piano, Belle," asked the and but oue hand to tremble in the clasp. ATTORNEY AT LAW, Couldersport, Pa, will Yet such was not here the case, for Any lover husband, about sunset, "and sing you may write to Sally." attend to all business entrusted to him, with Watner loved the handsome dark-eyed that song you were singing at my en-think of her as his angel guardian, and And when she had complied with his ATTORNEY AT LAW, Condersport, Pa:, will prized more one glance of Amy's soft and request they stood for a long time watchleving blue eyes than the approbation of ing the sunset, and the bright clouds, and Belle said she was very happy "linall orners. "Mignionettes and jasmines !" he ex- gering in the sunbeams." ,And she claimen, as he stood beside the maiden, learned wisdom from this sad heart-lesson, RAUTICING PHYSICIAN. Condersport, Pa., and thought by it's she was the lovliest and found that, although life's path was not strewn with roses, there were some respectfully informs the citizeus of the villant thought by international and thought by international spond to all calls for professional services. They lingared a long time by that bed of its thorny paths that might be smoothed and restored to the love and confidence of flowers, taiking of the glorious beauties in whom she loved; she felt the sun-inpied by C. W. Ellis, E-q. stich's voice changed from its common beams of love nestling closely to her heart, DEALERS IN DRUGS, MEDICINES, PAINTS tone, and Any knew that she was believed. and was content. Oils, Fancy Articles, Stationery, Dry Good, Beloved ! how sweet the word; it seems This, reader, is a life-history, and is, to speak the great soul-union that unites no doubt, the experience of many hearts; two hearts; and oh how void must be the and it were well for us if, when the shad-DEALER IN DRY GOODS, READY-MADE lot of that being who has not yet expe-Clothing, Grockery, Groceries, &c., Main st., rienced the blissful consciousness that brightness, and, like gentle Amy, when one heart beat in unison with theirs, that the shade is too cold, and chills our heart they, too, were beloved in its best affections, we shall endeavor Happy Amy Waruer! she had been to take life's sunniest way, and with the lingering in the sunbcams that evening sunshine beaming on our path, and cheer-

shed a brightness around her home where

A Live Yankee in London. A live Yankee from the Green Moun bome to which Harry Lawton took his his attention was suddenly arrested by some bcautiful specimens of writing-paper pansies that you are so busy weeding?" poured forth a torrent of abuse against ing a trick with which he intended to pay Any Warner's cheek flushed, and she him who she had vowed to love till death. off the impertment cockney in his own was about to reply, when her brother The cause was but triffing, but had coin. Passing down a street a few stops, appeared, and with him one she knew led to sad results, for an estrangement, our indignant Yankee saw another mer-

Special and Editorial Notices, per line, 10 that spoke volumes of love and devotion, her hasty temper.  *All transient advertisements must be and thrilled her frame with strange un- "You will find, darling sister," she and asort of scribe. He writes letters for feelings are thus expressed. Ab! many cast a darkness over your path, and, Belle, and that he is a pharisee as well as a scribe.

"Certainly he, will, and jump at the chance. That is his principal occupation."

veyed the exquisite knowledge to the to hear the voice of his bride gaily sing- waspish words uttered by the paper dealer, enses that you were loved. Then there is friendship's calm, tender song of "Life let us Cherish." He en- had been so rudely treated.

grasp, that southes you by its very quiet- tered the cozy sitting room, and there "I say, mister, they say as how you sell grasp, that southes you by its very quiet-letter the cold in the total and draw-paper and write letters for folks what ness, and assumes you of continued regard, was Belle pouring out his ten, and, draw-paper and write letters for folks what surging in wild disorder over the hill and greatly outnumbered there is not a doubt. TTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW. Coudersport, Pa., will attend the several courts in Potter and M'Kean Counties. All who had not hoped to meet again, yet are courts in Potter and M'Kean Counties. All who had not hoped to meet again, yet are courts in Potter and M'Kean Counties. All who had not hoped to meet again, yet are courts in Potter and M'Kean Counties. All who had not hoped to meet again, yet are courts in Potter and M'Kean Counties. All who had not hoped to meet again, yet are courts in Potter and M'Kean Counties. All who had not hoped to meet again, yet are courts in Potter and M'Kean Counties. All who had not hoped to meet again, yet are courts in Potter and M'Kean Counties. All who had not hoped to meet again, yet are courts in Potter and M'Kean Counties. All who had not hoped to meet again, yet are courts in Potter and M'Kean Counties. All who had not hoped to meet again, yet are courts in Potter and M'Kean Counties. All who had not hoped to meet again, yet are courts in Potter and M'Kean Counties. All who had not hoped to meet again, yet are court again. sudducd, and in a moment he was beside plied the Englishman, softening his tone coming of the field cheered up caning at they caim, whipped us, why did ber, cailing her by the old pet names of rs his government does since it has heard their brightest days, and begging her of our great victories.

"Will ye write jest what I tell you, "To be sure I will. I understand my business perfectly."

"Well, I don't care if ye du; I guess The Londoner procured pen, ink and aper, and the Yankee commenced dictating after the following style : " 'Dear Sister Sally.'

"Hav ye got that down ?" "Yes." "''Rived in London last week." "Hav ye got that down and spelt right?" "Yes-go on!" " 'Thought I'd go into he country and take a ride.'

"Got that down right ?" "Yes, yes-go on, don't detain me so." "I'm to pay ye five shillings, ain t I?"

minutes riderless horses; driverless mulcs; and flying men showed slight indications CAMP NEAR HABRISON'S LANDING, VA., of a panic. . It was confined to a few how-

FRIEND MAC: Owing to busy times ever, and soon the long lines of steady, and ill health, I have neglected "book- unwavering men showed that no panid ing" you with regard to matters and was there. In a short time our batteries things on this "sacred soil," until the late got to work and for three hours everyexciting events are becoming rather stale, thing was vocal with the music of the the nine days having already passed by, iron-throated monsters ; shell and solid and we suppose the great public has once shot flew thick and fast. Nearly all the more resumed a tranquil state. To go wounded in our immediate vicinity were back and give you a slight sketch of our struck by solid shot. A 6 pounder broke wanderings will require but a few mo- the shoulder of private A. J. Radie, of ments. Friday June 27 changed the Co. G, struck and severely hurt the hand dull monotony to which we for so long a of Nelson Crowell, and passed clear beyond time had been subject. On the morning the ranks. Radle is in Hospital at Washof this day we had at an early hour been ington. - Crowell left the ranks and since "toted" off to the front, and kept under then we have no information of his wherethe broiling sun until near night-fall, no abouts, he probably is a prisoner. John him who she had vowed to love the death, of the imperiment country is a prisoner. Some other incident transpiring in our imme-The cause was but triffing, but had coin. Passing down a street a few steps, led to sad results, for an estrangement, slow but sure, was coming between them, slow but sure, was coming between them, hat, who was not only an Englishman, Amy's heart ached for her, and before she left, she had, by her sweet counsels, she left, she had, by her sweet counsels, the broken and spinoner. The loss of the shoulder and a prisoner. The loss of the shoulder and the prisoner was the shoulder and a prisoner. The loss of the shoulder and the prisoner was the shoulder and the shoulder and a prisoner. The loss of the shoulder and the prisoner was the shoulder and the prisoner was the shoulder and the shoulder and a prisoner. The loss of the shoulder and the prisoner was the shoulder and the prisoner was the shoulder and the shoulder and the prisoner was the shoulder and the prisoner was the shoulder and the prisoner was the should be and the should be and the prisoner and prisoner and the prisoner and pr the sun was moving down the western number I do not know. Some of the horizon we were ordered to the support wounds will prove fatal. of Porter and McCall, who were hard The firing continued long after 4 o'clock, pressed on the right. Moving at a quick- and the next day our boys were again step, we arrived on the field just as twi- under fire, but I was not with the Regilight was ebbing away into the durk ment after 4 P. M. of the 30th until the shades of night. For two miles back we evening of the 2d of July. Can only say had met hosts of wounded and stragglers ; they suffered no loss after my departure a sight none the best calculated to in- from them. ; .

From the 53d Penna.

July 11, 1862.

spire courage in the hearts of those who The fatigue of a retreat in which you touch of a hand had power to think wild; beams." heart with feelings strange and wild; beams." when the lingering pressure, timid, yet perceptible and thrilling in its power— night with a frown upon his brow; but, perceptible and thrilling in its power— as he entered the hall, he was surprised his elbows, for he felt the sting in the the heads, many of their shot and shell pas- this business of "sojering." But, thank sing beyond our batteries and striking in God, it is over now, and we trust and the immediate vicinity of our advancing hope future movements will be towards column. Broken masses of men came not from Richmond. That we were to the rear, and it was only by the most That in every engagement, we whipped strenvous efforts that our ranks were the enemy we know, so do they. Had were just in time to save another "Bull our arrival on the James River? Sim-Run." others more sanguine, contended ply because they dare not. The Yankees the Rebels were whipped and only needed have proved themselves through severt a slight touch to utterly annihilate them. days' hard fighting, more than their Marching steadily over the hill we de equals, and they dare not risk a defeat ployed at "double quick" into line of bat- so far from their stronghold. I believe tie, forming obliquely across a deep ditch the soldiers have more confidence in Mcskirted by a rail fence and a slight under- Clellan to-day than ever before. He growth of brush. It was now about 8 o'- labored nobly with them and for them, clock P. M. and the firing of musketry, he showed a sympathy for their sufferings which had been fierce, gradually became such as few of our great men condescend beautifully less and receded very percep-tibly; an occasional missile from the eu-horse covered with mud, watching and emy's batteries, posted on our right, still giving directions with almost a parent's fell in much too close proximity to create solicitude, tor the removal of long files of pleasurable emotions. Soon firing in our wounded from the mud and filth, to the immediate vicinity had ceased altogether, cleanly hospital boats, not disdaining to and the men were allowed to lie down on utter words of cheer to the wounded vol-

their arms. unteer as he passed down the slippery About 1 o'clock A. M. cf the 28th, up bank towards the wharf, stooping from which time everything had remained his saddle to grasp the proffered hand of comparatively quiet, orders came to with- the rough private. Such a man must draw; this we did in quick time; our own command the respect of his soldiers, Wal the old mare haulked.' Baulked is regiment being the last on that portion under him they will fight to the bitter

. C. S. & E. A. JONES, Groceties; Sc., Main st., Coudersport, Pa.

D. E. OLMSTED, Coudersport, Pa.

COLLINS SMITH, DEALER in Dry Goods Groceries, Provisions, Hardware, Queensware, Cutlery, and all Goods usually found in a country Store.-

M. W. MANN, DEALER IN BOOKS & STATIONERY, MAG-AZINES and Music, N. W. corner of Mair, and Third sts., Coudersport; Pa.

COUDERSPORT HOTEL,

ter Co., Pa.

A Livery Stable is also kept in connect tion with this Hotel.

MARK GILLON; ' MARK GILLON; 'I TAILOR—nearly opposite the Court House— will 'make all 'clothes intrusted to him in the latest and best styles—Prices to suit the lines.—Give him a call. 13.41 the lovers dreamed their path all 'rose the lovers dreamed to life's WARE, Main st., nearly opposite the Court subbeams. No, sister mine, I mean to 10th, 1862; and Spring term, March 25th, '63: O. R. BASSETT, President.

W. W. GRIDLEY, Sectly. s.Lewisville, July 9, 1862.

Lewisville, July 9, 1862. UNION HOTHL, COUDERSPORT, POTTER COUNTY PENN., COUDERSPORT, POTTER COUNTY PENN., A. S. AHMSTRONG. TAVING refited and newly furnished the the usual pace; and Belle Warner became a bride: /Amy looked guite matronly in traveling public in as good styless of the guests will be ne-bes, 1,,pen Bes, 1,,pen Bes, 1,,pen County Penn, the usual pace; and Belle Warner became a bride: /Amy looked guite matronly in traveling public in as good styless of the guests will be ne-Bes, 1,,pen Bes, 1,,pen County Penn, traveling public in as good styless will be ne-Bes, 1,,pen County Penn, the altar where she had been a bride, to the bridesmaid of her only sister. And the bridesmaid of until her life had seemed one bright ing us with its genial rays, to "linger in gleam of sunshine, and now she was the sunbeams."

happy, for the genial sunbeams of love A Father's Consent Only. A rich young merchant of Paris, hav dreams were of the loved one as she slept that night with the ring of betrothal who pleased him, asked her hand from who pleased him, asked her hand from uneasy."

Ulysses Academy Still retains as Principal, Mr.E.R.CAMPBELE; Preceptress, Mrs. Natthe Jokes GRUDEY, As-stood by Hubert Colstien's side and breathed, the vows that sealed her fate till death, a bright beam entered through the half closed blinds, and lay lovingly the half closed blinds, and lay lovingly the first person who ever asked me that from $7 to $4. Each term commences upon Wednesday, and continues Fourteen weeks. Fall term Aug 26th 1862; WintertermDec. 10th, 1862; and Spring term, March 25th, '63: O. R. BASSETT, President. at that hour, and the subbans of love the matter stands over for further con-and confidence nestled near her heart and sideration.

"Yes, yes--but you need not detain me so."

a hard word; can you spell balked so of the field and bringing up the rear end. that Sally will know what it means?" "To be sure I can."

"Wal I don't care if ye du." " She wouldn't go, so I licked her." "Well, go on." ":Lieked her-licked her-licked her "Well, go on."

times ?"

lishman.-

"Not a word to close with ?"

"Keep it to tie up gape seed in."

until we arrived at our own camp at daylight. At about three the "Secesh" A PROSAIC PAPA .--- The "Once a made a rigorous attack along our whole Month," for July, has a very interesting line, and for a short time the gannonading article on the subject of "Home Mnwas immense. Of course as it seemed sic." As an illustration of one of the heavy on the centre-our position-we lights in which the subject is viewed, wished ourselves in supporting distance the following "domestic detail" is given : of "Old Dick," as the boys familiarly "We lately heard of an indulgent father, "What is the use of saying it so many term Gen. Richardson. For a period of who had spent what he thought a liberal perhaps an hour and a-half the iron bull- sum-a thousand dollars or so-upon his "None of yer business. I pay you five dogs belched forth a fire both hot and daughter's musical education. The net shillings-licked her-licked her-lick- heavy, then once more quiet resumed its result of this pecuniary investment seem:

ed her-licked her-licked her-licked sway. Arriving at our quarters we has [ed, to his mercantile apprehension, to be her-' "This page is full of licked her's." tily threw ourselves into position and summed up in three music-pieces, which "Turn over then; 'licked her-licked soon were in the arms of Morpheus. Not he found his daughter was able to play D. F. GLASSMIRB, Proprietor, Corner o-Main and Second Streets, Condersport, Pot-Weeks passed away-weeks of un-The papa, having satisfied himself that her-licked herclouded happiness—no shidows fell across her path; all was bright and clear; flow his consent, and informed his daughter her, and life seemed as if about to be that she must order the wedding-dress the proposed son-in-law was eligible, gave her path; all was bright and clear; flow his consent, and informed his daughter that he had found a husband for her, that she must order the wedding-dress the wouldn't go then, so I got out and is consent, and informed his daughter that he had found a husband for her, that she must order the wedding-dress the wouldn't go then, so I got out and is consent, and informed his daughter that he had found a husband for her, that she must order the wedding-dress the wouldn't go then, so I got out and is consent, and informed his daughter that he had found a husband for her, that she must order the wedding-dress that she must order the wedding-dress the wouldn't go then, so I got out and is consent, and informed his daughter that he had found a husband for her, that she must order the wedding-dress the wouldn't go then, so I got out and is consent, and informed his daughter that he had found a husband for her, that she must order the wedding-dress the would to more sout heavy that as "You are not intending to say that as about noon commenced to more our heavy last the polka was all that was left to her. ordnance to the rear. All the afternoon Then, in the evening, when her father the latest and best styles —Prices to suit the times.—Give him's call. ANDREW SANBERG & BRO'S. COMMEND.—Hides tanned their path all rose the lovers dreamed their path all rose Condensity. For they did not descend to life's Condensity. The set the best state to be met in her path Condensity. The did is the cold shadows when there Condensity. The cold shadows whe neasy." On the following Monday the wedding her-licked her-kicked her-pricked A. M. the enemy made a fierce dash ble art to make all duty seem pleasant? WARE, alken si, nearly opposite the Court, since and is in the single side, and I doubt not for the bright side, and I doubt not for the bright side, and I doubt not for the arondissments, to celebrate the ber-licked her-licked her (here the Yankee made a chirrupping we were ordered to hold at all hazards; frosty atmosphere throughout the home, noise with his tongue and lips, which and we did hold them. In this engage, without a suppliere throughout the home, bids defiance to orthography.) He had been heavy. We had people within whose influence you felt "I cannot spell that," said the Eng. to remise the energy around time home, and heaven the analytic the analytic the analytic the analytic the second time home, and heaven the second time home, and the second tis the second ti shman. "O, ye can't spell that, he? Wal ye he would be content. Then we withdrew thing ! Oh ! for that blessed power, and needn't write any more for me, if ye can't at a "quick step" and marched to Savage for God's grace to exercise it rightly ! I white any more for me, if ye can t at a quick step, and matched to Savage for Gous grace to exercise it rightly ! I bell that." "Need not write any more?" said the line, and again the enemy threw himself energy to sway others to good ; to diffuse astonished cockney. "No more, said the fiercely on our rear only to meet with a pround us an atmosphere of cheerfulness, Yankee, perfectly composed. Severe repulse. We moved from here at piety, truthfulness, generosity, magnanabont 1 o'clock of Monday morning, our imity. It is not a matter of great talent; regiment being "rear guard," crossed the not entirely a matter of great energy, but "You will pay me for what I have done?" bridge at White Oak Swamp at daylight, rather of earnestness and honesty, and of "Not a red. You didn't write down tore up and burned the bridge a duty that quiet, constant energy which is like I told you tu." What are the soft of "Well, sir, what am I to do with all clock P. M. the enemy, who certainly is rather a grace than a gift ; and we all, showed pluck, opened a tromendous fire know where grace is to be had freely for of shot and shell on our position. In five the asking." 1