The ladies will give a Dinner for the Soldiers at the Court House on Saturday next at 1 o'clock P. M. All are invited to assist.

A War Meeting will be held at the Red School House in Roulet, on Friday evening. A recruiting officer will be present when all those wishing to enlist can do so. Turn out! and enlist, as this is the last chance to go as a Volunteer. Drafting will soon commence.

Isaac Randolph Jefferson, a nephew and adopted son of the immortal Thomas Jefferson, died on the 6th of July last, at his residence in Todd County, Kentucky, in the 71st year of his age. The personal resemblance which it is said he bore to the great author of the Declaration of Independence was astonishingly striking; nor was he deficient in those great mental and moral attributes which distinguished that illustrious statesman. He leaves a wife and several children to mourn his departure.

An important and sweeping order was issued last Friday from the War Department, directing the arrest and imprisonment of any person who may be engaged by act, speech, or writing, in discouraging volunteer enlistments, or in any way giving aid and comfort to the enemy, or in any other disloyal practice against the United States.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11, 1862.—President Lincoln, Gen. Halleck, and the War Department are in good spirits to-night over the latest dispatches from the battlefield near Culpepper. Our troops are in a strong position, and the desired delay for re-employment and concentration has been granted them by Jackson's inaction. We are assured that the gate to Richmond will swing open this week before Pope's valorous and victorious legions.

What has been Done.

Since the Republican party came into power—in the midst of civil war, bankruptcy, treachery in every corner, and ruin staring the Government in the face—the following vastly important and beneficent measures have been completed or begun:

1. TREASON HAS BEEN MET—it has been foiled—and a large portion of the Union, which had been betrayed or stolen from us, is restored.
2. All our Territories made Free from the curse of Slavery for ever.
3. The Capital of the Nation, freed.
4. The Homestead Law, enacted.
5. Sound National Paper Currency.
6. A Protective Tariff.
7. The Establishment of a Department of Agriculture.
8. The Recognition of the Hayti and Liberia Governments.
9. The prohibition of Polygamy in the Territories.
10. Overland Telegraph to the Pacific.
11. A splendid Army and Navy.
12. The passage of the Pacific Railroad bill.
13. The division of the U. S. Supreme Court into just and equal Districts.

Considering the time that the Republican party has been in power, these results speak trumpet-tongued for its sincerity and vigor.

Drafting—How they do it.

Drafting is provided for by a law of Congress framed in 1792, entitled "An Act to provide for the national defense, establishing a Uniform Militia throughout the United States," afterwards amended and applied to all arms-bearing citizens of the country. The process of drafting is about the same in the various States. Rolls are prepared of those liable to serve—able bodied men between the ages of eighteen and forty-five—and the requisite number of names are drawn by lot in the presence of prescribed officials.—The persons drawn are notified, and given opportunity to prove themselves exempt or provide suitable substitutes, failing in which they are compelled to serve, or submit to penalties, generally imprisonment. The country has a right to the service of all her citizens in her defence of the nation, as none will dispute.

This line fills this column.

THE VERMONT DEMOCRACY.

In the Vermont Democratic State Convention held at Ballou's Falls, on the 2d inst, there was the usual trucking to Slavery in the speeches made. There was one man, however, among them, that awoke the secession sympathizing leaders. Mr. Stoughten, a delegate, rebuked them in the following wholesome manner:—

"Two of his sons, he said, were at that moment fighting their country's battles. He was emphatically a Union man. He held party in utter contempt, and party shackles in these times should be cast off and thrown to the four winds of heaven. He would sacrifice the Democratic party at the shrine of the Union, and so he believed would every true Democrat. He hoped that the Republican would do likewise with his party. The Abolitionists, it is claimed, are the cause of the war. Admit it. Have abolitionists done enough to warrant this rebellion? The man who thinks so is a traitor and not fit to live. He (Mr. S) had fought for the constitutional rights of the South, as long as any one of his age, but he utterly repudiated the insane idea that Mr. Lincoln's election was an excuse for this rebellion. It was the duty of every loyal and patriotic man now to forget the past and aid the Government in crushing out this infamous rebellion. Thank God! he approved the policy of the Administration to the letter. We must stand by the Government. If we do not approve the policy of the Government, we are in fact aiding the rebellion. The man who attempts to shrink from this grave responsibility, in his opinion, fails of being an honest man. It has been said that though he had been a Democrat he did not want to talk much like one. He would go with the Democratic party as long as they did not come in conflict with this great principle of sustaining the Government in its war policy. He thought the call issued by the Republican State Committee embraced him and every loyal Democrat. He did not believe in the dodging policy of this convention. God forbid that the Democrats of Vermont should indorse such a call as their State Committee had made. He believed there was a conservative principle in the Republican party. He believed Mr. Lincoln to be thoroughly conservative. He wanted no better platform than the doctrines embraced in Senator Collamer's recent speech, on constitution."

The assassination of Brigadier-General Robert McCook.

has created a great deal of feeling in Cincinnati, and measures will be taken to avenge him. His killing was simply murder, an art now reduced to a science by the the Rebel.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12, 1862.

Accounts from Culpepper, dated yesterday, speaking of Saturday's fight, say that so heavy was the fire to which our comparatively small number of men was exposed, the only wonder is that the whole command was not completely annihilated at the end of half an hour, instead of our bringing off so large a proportion of our force at the expiration of an hour and a half. The prisoners report that their own troops were moved down by our fire like grass. Three times were they re-enforced.
