Local and General.

Some editorials crowded out this week.

To-morrow is the day for the draft—Look out for white-feathers.

A mistake occurred in our report of the proceedings of the Convention, last week—D. C. Larrabee was nominated for Sheriff on the first ballot, and not the fifth, as printed.

From a letter received just as we were going to press, we learn the following in regard to the loss in Capt. Jones' Company, in the battle of the 17th. There were but fourteen, and the Capt., in the engagement—Adolphus Nelson, killed; Nelson Cobb, right arm shot off and left severely wounded; W. F. Stone, slight wound in the neck; Loman Wilber, hit in the back with a spent piece of shell, not serious. Daniel Fulmer is also reported wounded.

Hospital Supplies.—A large and enthusiastic War Meeting was held in the Academy at Ulysses, last evening, and among other items of business done, a committee of five was appointed to arrange for sending hospital stores, or other comforts and luxuries to soldiers in the army. It is proposed to have a deposit made of such things as persons desire to send, at one or two convenient points, (perhaps with W. W. Gridley at Lewisville and L. Bird at Brookland,) and as fast as a package of suitable size is ready, it will be forwarded by Express. A small amount will be needed to pay Express charges, which we hope will be contributed by persons feeling an interest in the matter. Dried berries in limited quantities. Dried Currants, Plums, and other Dried Fruit and Preserves. Bandages, Lint, &c., will be in order. Persons desiring further information can inquire of Mr. or Mrs. M. W. Gridley or Miss Mary Corey at Lewisville, or Mrs. S. Horton or of L. Bird at Brookland. Friends send on something, and we think it will go to some soldier.

L. BIRD, for Committee.

The persons who took the apples from the yard of Mr. Stebbins, must make some restitution or their names will be made known.

Hiram Beals, of Pike township, was so severely kicked by a horse, one day last week at Vermilyea's in Tioga county, as to occasion his death the day after.

An unoccupied log-house in Eulalia township, on the road running from Nelson Clark's to Colesburg, was burned down on last Saturday night. No cause is assigned for the breaking out of the fire.

About three hundred dollars worth of merchandise was taken, on last Thursday night, from the store of Wm. M. McDougal in Owayo Village. Certain persons are suspected, but no arrests have as yet been made. It should be the purpose of every law-abiding citizen to discover the perpetrators of the various thefts committed in this section during a few months past, and bring them to justice.

WONDERFUL.—The N. Y. Evening Post tells a large story of the freaks of lightning in France. A young girl was struck by lightning and changed to a boy. Whereupon a western paper remarks: "The very thing wanted in this vicinity. Our women are anxious to enlist, but under existing circumstances the Government will not receive them. Pass that lightning round and let's have the objection removed."

From a dispatch received by a gentleman of this city from Baltimore yesterday, we learn that the remains of the gallant and lamented commander of the celebrated Bucktail regiment, Col. Hugh McNeill, were to reach here last evening on their way to his late residence in Seneca county, N. Y. By action of the Common Council the body will repose in state in the Governor's room at the City Hall to-day, from ten o'clock A. M. till half-past two P. M.—N. Y. Herald.

It is now positively ascertained that the lapse of a half century, will very materially change the color of a man's skin. Forty-eight years ago, Gen. Jackson called upon his "colored fellow-citizens—free blacks to aid in defending New Orleans." Pro-slavery men of to-day, tell us that Jackson's "free blacks" were only "snuff colored"—having three-fourths white blood in their veins! This is certainly a wonderful discovery. Can any one tell what the color of the Pro-Slavery men of to-day will be fifty years from now?—Ez.

The Republicans of Massachusetts, always true to the Government and the real wants of the country, have passed a resolution recommending the re-election of Hon. Charles Sumner to the Senate of the United States. In times such as these men of Sumner's influence and mind are necessary to the salvation of the country. While men like Cowan perjure themselves to gain popularity with the semi-traitorous crew it is well to have men of undoubted integrity in positions where they can counteract the evil influence of our weak-kneed brothers. His nomination will be a great disappointment to the democrats, who confidently hoped that the Freedom champion of the Bay State would be repudiated by his own party.

Just at this moment, when four hundred thousand of the free white citizens of the loyal States are to be drawn by lot into the army of the Union, the question recurs,—Why cannot the four million blacks at the South, who by their labor sustain the rebellion we are trying to conquer, be made subservient and useful to our cause? While the free and mighty North is drained of one-third of her able-bodied men, millions of powerful arms in the South are awaiting our summons to come and help! Can black skins be so much better than white that they may not be permitted to share in the labors and dangers of saving our country from the attacks of a desperate and wicked enemy? Give the wearers of these black skins the liberty and leave to help, and the hundreds of thousands of northern white men who are leaving their homes for the duties and hardships of war will march with lightened hearts, and with the assurance of a triumphant return.—Ez.

Governor Curtin.

A contemporary whose title we can not now recall, says that Pennsylvania may well be proud of its noble Governor; and he may be proud of the State over which he rules. He has proven himself the "right man for the right place." What executive has more zealously guarded the interests of the Commonwealth? Ever ready to act upon the most urgent exigency, and always successful in whatever he undertakes, he has given the Keystone a prestige that no other State possesses. All men regard it with pride, and honor it for its earnest purpose in sustaining the President, and making him strong to cope with rebellion. It is only necessary to announce that danger to our country is abroad and thousands of willing hearts will rush to its defence. No man, other than Governor Curtin, has been more active; none conceived more gigantic plans, and in their conception was master of the scheme, and forced success and triumphed where only disappointment appeared.

What public man has been more bitterly assailed than Governor Curtin, and who has proved the falsity of the charges and outriden the storm of malverence which his enemies raised, more rapidly than he? though in the outset he was assailed by those who hated him for his loyalty, and sought to destroy his influence because he faltered not when treason stalked abroad with impudent mein, yet he laid his base assailants in the dust and stands to-day before the country one of its best defenders and most honored Governor.

But we can all be useful in our labors of patriotism; those who go by the discharge of their military duties, and those who remain, by words of encouragement and by contribution for the support of the families of those who do go.
