

George Barclay, of Campbell's Artillery, has been promoted to Commissary Sergeant. This is without doubt a well-deserved promotion.

Godley's Lady's Book for October is on our table. It contains its usual variety of reading matter and an abundance of fashion plates. $3 per annum.

Lindsey Mahaffey, of Newberry, has been appointed Collector of the National Tax in this Congressional district, and Geo. Bond, of Boalsburg, Centre county, Assessor.

Lieut. R. Z. Roberts leaves Potter tomorrow with the following recruits for Company G, 53d Penn'a Reg't:

Sharon—John A. McDonald, John Corvett, David Corvett, Henry June Welcome S. Coats, Henry Mattison, Albert Sherwood, Charles Gridley, and David McNamire. Genesee—George W. Barlow. Bingham—Abraham Williams, and John G. Fisk. Ullyses—Leavitt W. Cushing, Charles F. Parker, and Geo. W. Davidson. Hector—John Henry Young, and Peter Davis.

The Draft has been postponed until the 16th of October. The men drafted in this County will be notified of the time they are to meet at Coudersport—the draft in this County holding good by order of the Governor. In a few weeks we expect to publish a list of those in the service both by Volunteering and the Draft, and we think we can show a large number more than was required from this County. We are quoted in a Philadelphia paper as being exempt from the Draft, but the State officer don't happen to see us in so favorable a light.

Hospital Aid Society.

The present terrific struggle for our Nation's Life fills every patriot heart with gratitude to her defenders. Multitudes of these, after untold sufferings, are crowded into hospitals, where we may reach them with necessary supplies, comforts and luxuries. In compliance with their own wishes, and with a request from ladies in adjoining towns, a Committee of seven has been appointed in Coudersport, viz: Misses C. A. Metzgar, K. McDougal, E. Hamilton, M. Metzgar, and C. A. Stockwell, also, Messrs. M. W. McAlarney and P. A. Stebbins, Jr., to pack and forward such articles as shall be left with them, or in care of Mrs. M. W. Mann at the Post Office. Articles desired are blankets, lint (raveled, not scraped), bandages (see directions below), quilts of cheap material about 2 1/2 yds long and 1 1/2 wide, bed-gowns, sheets and pillow slips—partly worn, small hair and feather pillows and cushions for wounded limbs, socks or yarn, slippers, dried fruit, blackberry wine, jellies, &c. Contributions from gentlemen interested would be acceptable, also small sums left with packages by those so disposed, for the purpose of paying express charges. Articles to be sent in the first box should be brought in as early as the 10th of Oct. It is to be hoped that the ladies of Coudersport and vicinity will respond to this appeal gladly and generously, in behalf of brothers, sons, and friends who have gone from our midst. By order of Committee.

Bandages should be made of unbleached muslin of medium quality, say such as can be bought for ten or twelve cents per yard. They should be four, six, or eight or ten yards long, and ranging in width from one-half to four inches wide—say 1/2 inch, 1, 1 1/2, 2, 3, 4 inches. The edges should be cleared of all ravel or loose threads, which cause delay or annoyance to the surgeon in applying them in an emergency. Each size of bandages should be rolled up in ribbon style.

Penn'a Legislature.

Never was there a time in the history of the State when the need of selecting able men to represent us was greater. The work to be performed this winter is fraught with vital interests. We of Pennsylvania are to select a man to represent us in the Senate of the United States for the coming six years. Two years ago Cowan was sent from this State, having the entire confidence of the free-party, but he has most causelessly betrayed us, he has been the tool of the southern party ever since he entered the Senate halls, he has fallen a willing victim to the machinations of the Slave Oligarchy, puffed up with conceit as to his own importance he imagines himself the leader of a new party and the expounder of new principles, until to-day he is despised by honest men and laughed at by his unprincipled allies. This winter we must send a man who has proved both able and consistent, a tried man—Hon. David Wilmot. Ever since Judge Wilmot has been in Congress he has been the uncompromising enemy of Slavery, and the able champion of Freedom. He has never failed in representing the true interests of his State. A man of giant intellect, great force of character, experienced in the minutiae of legislation, honorable in his public and private life, he can represent us faithfully hereafter as he has heretofore. To accomplish his election it is necessary that every effort be made to send the right kind of Representatives and Senators to our next Legislature, or the dough-faces who passed the non-committal resolutions in the 4th of July Convention will defeat him and elect that complete embodiment of treason and filth—Frank Hughes.

The Union candidates before the people of this district are so well-known it is needless for us to say anything in their favor. They are all gentlemen of education, political and moral experience, and well qualified to protect the interests of Pennsylvania. All that is necessary to secure their election is for the people to turn out and vote. That they will vote right we have not the slightest doubt. There will be some kind of opposition to them "begged" together in Tioga county, but those who wish to vote intelligently had better leave all foreign tickets alone. But vote for if you do we feel that you will vote right. Remember that a United States Senator must be elected this fall.

Some time ago, when traveling in the southern part of Pennsylvania, we were told by a Secessionist that it would be a "good joke" to have his party secure a majority in the Legislature and then refuse to legalize the loans made in the different towns and counties for the purpose of assisting Volunteers and their families. Yes, indeed! it would be a "joke"! Freemen of Pennsylvania! will you place such miscreants in power?

EMANCIPATION.

Last week President Lincoln issued the greatest document of this century. His name will live in the hearts of the American people through centuries yet to come, for this, if for no other of his official acts. The Nation will soon be a NATION OF FREEMEN. We can not do better than use the words of John W. Forney of the Philadelphia Press: "The rebellion is at an end! The President has done a good deed, at a good time. He has pronounced the doom of Slavery on the American Continent. After dallying with this great sin, because he dreaded to do violence to the interests and wishes of any portion of the people, he has accepted the lesson of experience, and ends the war by putting an end to the cause of the war. If this rebellion has taught us anything, it is that by slavery we have been defeated in our national efforts. Slavery is the richest and fairest portion of our Republic have been kept as a desert and a wilderness—by slavery a great part of the people have been estranged from another—by slavery our institutions have been prevented from developing the blessings our fathers intended they should bestow. Slavery has been the perpetual disgrace to the American name. Slavery has bloomed into sedition, and ripened into war. Why should it live? It has menaced our dearest rights, and has robbed us of our dearest kindred. This fearful monster, intermingling itself around the vitals of the Republic, retarding its growth, destroying its usefulness, making its very existence wretched, at last sought to take the life which had nourished it, and to rend the bosom on which it had grown. In self-defence we have wrestled in its embraces—wrestled in blood, war, carnage, desolation, and slaughter—and all in vain. The struggle is now for life or death. If slavery lives the Republic dies. The Republic must live, and so slavery must die. This is the meaning of the President's proclamation, and his words record slavery's inevitable doom. President Lincoln has followed the logical course of events in issuing this proclamation. He turns a new leaf, and, at the head of the page, writes—Emancipation."

Remember that some of the Secession sympathizers who advocated disfranchizing the soldiers by the Breckinridge Democratic Supreme Judges gave as a reason that there were but few of their clique in the army and perhaps by pursuing such a course they could defeat the Union party. Union Democrats do your own allegiance to such a gang of traitors? Surely not!

Hon. Wm. H. Armstrong.

Of Williamsport, has been unanimously nominated for Congress in this District. During the next two years it is expected that we will have Legislative difficulties to contend with equal to those of the Revolutionary struggle, and for a successful termination it is absolutely necessary that our Legislators possess "brains" and strong Radical brains, at that. Conciliation, compromise, and Doughfaceism have all had their day, leaving us on the verge of ruin, and it is now time to put the screws on, adopt a rigid policy, pursue an unwavering course, and fight out an honorable solution of our difficulties. Acts looking to such an end have been passed and now that they may have full effect, the Congress to be elected this Fall should be of the right character. Our nominee, we congratulate ourselves will prove himself all that can be desired—judging from his past course.

At the time of Senator Wilmot's election he was a prominent candidate for the office, but in an honorable spirit of self-sacrifice resigned in order that one who was more practically acquainted with the duties of the position might be elected. This act should not go unrewarded. Two years ago he was elected to the Legislature from a Democratic District and was again returned last winter. During the first session the Rebellion assumed shape and then it was that Mr. Armstrong, seeing the civil war in which it would end, held out the banner of peace to them in a series of Resolutions presented to the Legislature and endorsed by able speeches. The South mad in the fancy of a separate and independent Government, fired upon Fort Sumter and from that time to the present, he has been their uncompromising enemy; supporting the Administration in all its efforts for their subjugation, advocating Radical measures, and doing all that a private citizen of wealth and influence could do to crush this monster Rebellion. His nomination has been a death-blow to the expectations of the Dough-faces of the District. They have made no nomination from their party, but have attempted—without success—to bribe an old-line Whig to run against him. A gentleman of finished education, extensive observation, amiable and courteous in private life, honorable in all his public acts, Mr. Armstrong, is the very man most needed in this District and his election is merely a question of time. To Union Democrats we can commend him as the man of their choice, having been twice elected to the Legislature from a strong Democratic district, and old Whigs, and Republicans will possess in him a Representative combining the dignified firmness of the old-line Whig with the noble enthusiasm of the Republican of to-day. Whigs, Democrats and Republicans will vote for the Representative man and "little Potter" will give him an old-fashioned majority.

Wool.—We know not what would pay our farmers so well at the present time, as the keeping of large flocks of sheep. The price of wool per pound is between seventy-five cents and a dollar, and as long as cotton goods are so high-priced, it would be better for our farmers not to kill any of their sheep, but instead procure more and better breeds. Every sheep sold or killed is several dollars loss.

Nelson Cobb was not wounded, as reported in last week's JOURNAL. With the new recruits the number of those capable of bearing arms in the Company will reach 36.

A SOURCE OF VEXATION.—Many a good woman has felt mortified when she called her biscuits to the table to find that her biscuits were like so much lead, wholly unfit to be eaten. The discovery always comes too late to be remedied for that occasion. Housewives who use Deane & Co.'s Chemical Saleratus, are never subjected to chagrin and disappointment in this way.

STRANGER IN TOWN.—We have been gratified by a call from Frederick Ayer Esq., the business man of the firm of J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell. A short acquaintance with the gentleman convinced us that the Doctor's skill in compounding his medicines is alone concerned in the immense consumption of them; but that it takes business talent of no ordinary measure to pass them around the world. Mr. Ayer, manifestly has these abilities and the success of his house shows that he uses them.—Memphis Whig, 1st ann.

Announcements.

Please announce my name as a Union candidate for the office of County Treasurer subject to the decision of the voters of Potter County, and if elected, I pledge myself to pay into the Treasury of the County $300 out of the profits of the office for the benefit of families of volunteers, as I cannot repair to the field of war, nor is it necessary, a small portion of those able, we hope will be called to the field of action. But we can all be useful in our labors of patriotism; those who go by the discharge of their military duties, and those who remain, by words of encouragement and by contribution for the support of the families of those who do go. Our business now is with the present and the future. Past differences should be forgotten or laid aside until the flag of the Union again floats over every foot of our former Territory.
