For all thy bruses, weary Heart, My blossoms have a balm: For all thy restlessness and i ain, My woodlands have a calm.

Through all thy nights of sorrow, Untired my calm stars glow; Rebuking all thy sinfulness, My stainless lilies grow.

All day, above thy fearfulness, ... Mr wild birds fearless sing; Crowding around the Courts of Death, My emerald grasses spring.

My brooks pq droning ocern-ward, My birds fly wild and free, My-nights are full of solemn joys, My days, of light and glee

O! dear st of my children. God's best, sweet gift to me .-Could my Peace crown these only, And leave no place for thee?

Poor Heart ! thy mother calleth; O, weary and unblessed, Come to my breezy woodlands And find my peace and rest! [Eva.
