HOPEFUL—Government 7.30 per cent bonds were recently offered by Sec. Chase, and twice the sum asked for was realized at premiums! The Rebel money is worthless except upon compulsory laws for its passage at par.

RAGS WANTED!—Let every family see if they can not raise sufficient money from paper rags to pay for the JOURNAL next year. Let every school girl or boy find enough to buy her or his school books, paper, &c. There is much waste that might go to supply the demand.

In one of the papers there is an account of the marriage, by the Rev. John Gates, of Mr. John Post, to Miss Sophia Rais. If this match don't make a fence of the first quality we should like to know what will.

GEN. BURNSIDE'S MOTTO.—When Gen. Burnside was about to start on his North Carolina expedition, a flag was presented to him. His only speech was—
"THANK YOU! MOVE ON, MEN!"

That was a good speech. He "went on," and his men to victory and to glory.
The words reveal the character of the man. May they still be found emblematic of his efforts and of his success!
No more delays—but, "move on, men," to the work for which you came. "Move on!"—West and East. "Move on!"
Army and Navy. Of course, Burnside is left in a condition of much doubt and uncertainty as to his enemy's position—but that is no fault of his.—Leedsburg Chronicle.

That most satirical wit, Orpheus C. Kerr, who is following our Armies up so sharply, in his last gave this dig at those spurious Southern "Unionists" who are harassing and hindering every earnest step towards crushing the Rebellion:

"It is the 'Union as it was,' we want, my boy, and those who have other articles to sell are hereby accused of being accursed Abolitionists. I was talking, the other day, to a venerable Congressman from Maryland, who had just arrived to protest against the disturbance of mail facilities between Baltimore and the capital of the Southern Confederacy, and says he, 'I have several friends who are Confederates, and they inform me they are perfectly willing to return to the 'Union as it was,' in case they should fail in their present enterprise. 'If I had,' says the Congressman, hastily placing a lottery ticket in his vest pocket, 'if I thought that this war to be waged for the purpose of injuring the Southern Confederacy, rather than to restore the 'Union as it was,' I should at once demand more mileage of the Government.'"

WHEN WILL PEOPLE LEARN WIS-DOM?—The effects upon the human system everywhere apparent, that the common, crude kinds of Saleratus are bad, ought to teach wisdom to people to avoid such poisonous compounds. They cost as much as DeLand's Chemical Saleratus, and then do not produce those beautiful light and nutritious biscuits enjoyed only by those who use the better article. The time may never come that everybody will learn to take the good in preference to the bad, but the speed of knowledge in this particular is indeed wonderful.— People in thousands of cities and towns call for DeLand's Chemical Saleratus only, and will have no other.

The Revolutionary War and that of 1812, were more burdensome in proportion to our wealth, than the present one for existence.

The Banks are all declaring dividends from 3 to 5 per cent for the past six months, and yet refuse to pay specie on their notes! Why should they not share in the general losses?

Gen. Lee may be an officer of considerable penetration, but he couldn't peno-trate Maryland and Pennsylvania.

Well named—Union township, Tioga county, Pa. It gave Cochran and Ross each 134 votes—"other fellows" none!

Advice to Cincinnati—should any of the Rebel crew succeed in effecting an entrance into your city, Port their eyes out.

DIED:
Of diphtheria, in South Salata, Oct. 21, '62, MARY LIZZIE, aged 3 years, 6 months and 21 days. Also, Nov. 3, IMOGENE B., aged 6 yrs.
5 mos. and 8 days.

In heaven, these little sufferers rest,
And sing sweet anthems with the blest;
For them no further test remains,
Of purging fires and torturing pains.
At his residence in Roulet, Nov. 5th, 1862, HARRIS LYMAN, aged 45 years, 5 mos, 15 days.
Our lamented friend was a constant sufferer for over two years with those painful diseases, lumbago and spinal affections. Although attended by experienced physicians and tenderly nursed by an affectionate wife and kind friends yet no remedy could arrest the disease, and no sympathizing wife or kind friend could alleviate those shocking pains under which he sank away until death came to his relief. Of his good qualities as a citizen we might justly speak, but will only say that he was strictly honest, a right and punctual in all his dealings, a kind and obliging neighbor, an affectionate and provident husband, a tender and indulgent parent, and in his last days a devoted christian. We can but sympathize with the bereaved family and friends in their deep affliction.

In Sweden, Nov. 18, CHARLIE, son of Lewis and Hannah Lyman, aged 6 yrs, 6 mos, 8 days.
Little Charlie appeared thoughtful beyond his years and endeared himself to all who knew him by his winning ways and kind affectionate disposition. He was the youngest of the family and the centre of love and hope.
No one who visits his home but will feel a sad vacancy in the family circle. He died with full confidence that he was going to see his Saviour, and dear friends gone before. His last wish was that all should meet him in Heaven.

We should not mourn our loss,
The Saviour hid him come,
And angels wafted him
Up to his heavenly home. H.J.S.

IRE Steam Saw and Grist Mill at Germa-

Doing an excellent business; a first rate stand at the rate of Three Thousand Dollars per annum, but being desirous of going to Europe in the course of a few months for the purpose of there introducing the business, I am willing to teach to any one who will send me One Dollar. The business is no humbug, but of a highly useful and general character, adapted both to cities and villages, and one that any person of ordinary capacity, young or old, male or female, can acquire with a few hours practice, and by which they can secure a very handsome income. Several young ladies who have received instructions from me, both in New York State and Pennsylvania, are earning upwards of fifteen Dollars per week by it, and there is no reason why any one else cannot do the same. Invalids, even, can do well by it, as it is no peddling affair, but a business that is perfectly respectable. Gentlemen and ladies of leisure who would like to learn the business for their own amusement or pleasure, will find the practice of it a pleasant pastime, and one that they will take great interest in.
On receipt of One Dollar I will send printed instructions by which any person can readily acquire the art, and these instructions will also contain every particular relative to the carrying it on so that it will be highly profitable. The purchaser of the "printed instructions" will also be authorized to teach it to others; and I have sometimes received as high as Two Hundred Dollars for teaching it personally to a single individual. I would state further, that Two Dollars and Fifty Cents of Three Dollars will buy everything that is necessary to commence the business with, and the articles can be got almost anywhere, in city or country, or, if preferred, I can furnish them. Address:
