

Rosecrans.

What will become of Gen. Rosecrans? The Democracy will be compelled to forsake the gallant soldier of the West, the fighting-general of the war. He has always been a good democrat and lately when speaking of some of the actions of his former party brethren of the North said, "they would get down on the ground and lick the dust off Slavery's boots and then get kicked for their trouble—that they were again working at their old business and he hoped they would now get their last kick."

Callicott-Elected!

After three weeks of ineffectual effort in the New York Assembly to effect an organization they have at last succeeded, and the Republicans and Union Democrats elect Mr. Callicott of Kings county, Spenser. The Fernando Wood party, ever in the interests of Slavery and Rebellion, sought by resisting an organization to prevent the election of a United States Senator, in place of Hon. Preston King, whose term expires on the 4th of March next. Blackguards and rowdies from New York city attempted to frighten members into voting against their convictions, but did not succeed as well as they did in the Legislature of this State. It is truly a pretty condition of things when the Legislatures of the two greatest States in the Union cannot meet and transact their legal business without being intimidated by a band of illiterate ruffians. We are glad to know that the Members of the New York Assembly had the true Yankee Manhood with which to face this rabble and beat back the scum of their rotten cities.

Illinois Locofocoism.

Treason is carrying a high-hand in Illinois. A democratic member of the Legislature has offered a Resolution in favor of appointing a Military Committee of three—two Democrats and one Republican, of course—who shall be authorized to take all the power over the Militia out of the hands of the Governor—reducing him to a mere nobody—and have the power of dictating where they shall go, who shall command them, &c. This, as is plain upon the face of it, is merely sounding the precautionary note that is to hail an attempt to recall the Illinois soldiers from the field. Gov. Yates is a Democrat—loyal and true to the country—earnest and energetic in furnishing men and means for the war—prompt and faithful in the performance of all his natural duties—and whenever he has an opportunity of striking the Rebellion he does it with a vigor that gratifies upon the feelings of these sympathizers with their brother Democrats of the South. Now they seek to strip him of his power. Such is loyal Democracy. Heaven preserve us from such loyalty.

Patriotic Democrats.

How noble the attitude of a man whom patriotism rises above partizanship!—Such is the enviable position of some of the leading Democrats of the day—men who dared to brave the frowns of party leaders, and have merited the gratitude of the nation. Among these we may enumerate General Butler, the first general to receive negroes and refuse to deliver them up; General Cochrane, one of the first to favor confiscation and military emancipation; General Hunter, the first commander to issue a war-power proclamation of freedom; General Dix, who first ordered to shoot down on the spot any one who should attempt to tear down the American flag; General Butler again, who first hung a man for tearing it down; General G. N. Fitch, ex-Senator, who hung rebels for treachery to his troops; Senators Rice and Wright, who were among the most earnest for negro soldiers; Colonel P. S. Nickerson of Maine, who offered to lead a colored regiment; D. S. Dickinson, one of the most efficient advocates for using the negro in any way that will quench the rebellion; General Busted, one of the same; General Hunter again, the first to raise a colored regiment; General Sprague of Rhode Island, the first who proposed to head a colored regiment. How many of the Democrats of our present Legislature will show a similar determination to do right at all hazards?

The Post Office at Scranton, Pa., was broken into on the night of the 14th, and cleared of its contents, including a number of mails.

Resignation of Gen. Burnside. Gen. Hooker to Command the Army of the Potomac.

FREDERICKSBURG, Jan. 26, 1863. This morning Major-Gen. Burnside turned over the command of the Army of the Potomac to Major-Gen. Joe. Hooker, who came to the headquarters of the camp for that purpose. As soon as the change became known throughout the army, a considerable number of the superior officers called upon Gen. Burnside and took their parting leave of him, with many regrets.

NEWS ITEMS.

The Philadelphia Press says that Gen. Grant has placed his Army of the Tennessee upon transports at Memphis, and is now, in all probability, engaging the enemy about Vicksburg. The third siege of this stronghold is now in progress, and there is but little doubt that it will fall.

In the United States Senate, on Saturday, the Secretary of the Navy was directed not to accept the title to League Island unless authorized by Congress.

We have news from Southern papers that the steamer Huntress attempted to run the Charleston blockade on the 18th, but failed, and was burned, with 400 bales of cotton. The enemy are supposed to be in strong force, and on the advance. They are building bridges over Cove Creek. It is doubtless a feat to cover their movement at Wilmington of Weldon. The Unionists are 60,000 strong, and have twenty days' rations.

Gov. Seymour's Message was received with much eclat at Richmond. It was published in The Enquirer under the following announcement in starting capitals: "He says the Proclamation will be resisted:—Alliance Proposed Between the West and South!"

The list of nominations and promotions sent to the Senate by the President is printed, and makes a large pamphlet. Nearly everybody is in it who has had any expectations, making in all about 1,500 names. There are 21 Major-Generals in the lot.

In the Indiana Legislature, last week, a resolution was offered ordering an investigation into the secret political societies alleged to exist in Indiana. Every Democrat in the House voted against the resolution.

Western papers anticipate an immediate attack on Rosecrans. They say that Longstreet has superseded Bragg, and that 30,000 or more of Lee's army have reinforced the Rebel force at Shelbyville. The theory is that Rosecrans must be defeated, and the South West held at any cost. Rosecrans is said to be amply prepared, and confident of his power to resist any onset.

Gen. Mitchell has ordered the destruction of the property of certain Rebels who have been convicted of obstructing the railroads near Nashville. He gives notice that hereafter all Rebel property within one mile of any place where railroads are destroyed will be burnt, as far as possible.

That fearfully radical State of Massachusetts is going to do it again. What will Conservatism think of the terrible innovation of a State undertaking to pay all its troops in the national service promptly as their wages are due, borrowing money to do it, and taking the General Government's stipend whenever it may please the Secretary of the Treasury to pay it? Can this be constitutional?

General Rosecrans has ordered all rebel officers to be confined until the revocation of Jeff. Davis's recent retaliatory order. The prisoners will be fed on army rations, and all the delicacies furnished by rebel sympathizers will be confiscated for the use of the hospitals.

Our hero of Western Virginia—the real hero—of Iuka, of Corinth, and of Murfreesboro, is well named Rosecrans, or Rose-wreath. He garlands the great deeds of a week with the rosy chaplet of victory.

Our loss is reported to be two hundred, mostly by shells from the gunboats which were co-operating with the land forces.

Oil matters, says an Erie paper, for two or three weeks have been almost at a stand still in this city. Some small lots of crude have been sold for fifteen cents per gallon. The refineries have nearly all stopped on account of the difficulty of procuring crude oil and a great falling off in the demand for the refined article.

On the re-election of Zachariah Chandler by the Legislature of Michigan to the United States Senate for six years from the 4th of March next, the New York Tribune says, and many a loyal heart throughout the country will re-echo the sentiment: "We thank the State of Michigan for having made so wise a choice, and we congratulate the country on the re-election of a Senator who has ever been found faithful to duty and liberty."

Further particulars of the late fight at Springfield, Missouri, represent the battle as having lasted 13 hours. The rebel force was 5,000 picked mounted infantry, who opened fire on the town without a moment's notice to remove the women, children and sick. They were soundly whipped by a Union force of 2,600 men; and, at last accounts, were in full retreat.
