

THE POTTER COUNTY JOURNAL

Coudersport, Wednesday Evening, Feb. 11, 1863.

Local and General.

See New Advertisements.

The deepest snow of the winter fell on last Thursday night.

Robert Pott has received the appointment of Deputy Marshal for this District.

Capt. L. H. Kinney, of this county, has resigned his commission as Capt. of D. 83th New York Militia.

See the card of Stewart, Stevens & Co. Capt. J. H. Graves has the necessary papers for procuring Pensions, Bounty, and Back-pay. Give him a call.

We are in receipt of the Student and Schoolmate, published by GALEX JAMES, 15 Cornhill, Boston, at One Dollar, per annum. It is a very interesting and instructive monthly and should be in the hands of every school-boy. It contains anecdotes, dialogues, poetry, speeches, puzzles, and in fact everything calculated to interest the young.

Time is Money—This adage is only good when time is available and improved to further the ends of life. Time, without health to improve it, will yield but little money. How can one expect to possess health to improve time, if accustomed to eating heavy and unwholesome bread, such as all are liable to have who do not use the Chemical Saleratus made and sold at wholesale by D. B. DeLand & Co., Fairport, Monroe Co., New York. This is just the article to be used, and we commend it to all good housewives. Good grocers have it.

The loco-focos in the House at Harrisburg have presented a resolution in which they deny the right of the President to suspend the writ of habeas corpus, and ask Gov. Curtin to interfere with the Government in the matter. Of course, nothing practical will result from this snapping and snarling of the traitors North, but yet it evinces a spirit of which every honest man should be ashamed, and which, if he is not a coward and a galleus, and a lily-livered cur, would find him a situation in the Rebel Army.

Albert D. Boileau, of the Phila. Evening Journal, who was some weeks since imprisoned in Fort M'Henry for publishing certain articles in which he drew comparisons between President Lincoln and Jeff Davis, denouncing the war against the rebels to be a war carried on for the sole purposes of plunder and blood, has been released. He acknowledges the articles to be treasonable, denies their authorship, and pledges his honor that no more articles of that character shall appear.

Ex-Gov. E. D. Morgan, New York, has been elected to the United States Senate for six years from the 4th of March next. Erasmus Corning was the nominee of the democrats. The pirate, Peranado Wood, came within three votes of receiving the nomination of a party claiming to be Union. For the most villainous demagogue and traitor in the country to receive such support should cause a blush of shame to suffuse the cheek of American manhood.

The following item informing us of the murder of EBEN N. FORD, who worked in the Journal office some years ago, we copy from a Pittsburg paper of last week: Shot by a Deserter—Lieut. E. N. Ford with a squad of the Provost Guard, was detailed a few days since to arrest a deserter in Fulton county, named John Fursey. He had previously been arrested for desertion, and escaped by a habeas corpus. As Ford neared the house, Fursey shot him from a second story window, through the body. The wound is said to have been mortal. We believe Ford was originally detailed from this city for Provost duty.

The following were elected to fill the several offices of the Borough during the coming year: Burgess—John S. Mann; Council—Geo. C. Mauley, S. P. Minar; Constable—Z. J. Thompson; High Constable—E. Sturkewether; School Directors—Orson H. Crosby, John M. Hamilton; Judge of Election—George Metzger; Inspectors—O. H. Crosby, Sam'l Haven; Assessor—Collins Smith; Auditor—P. A. Stebbins, Jr.; Overseers of the Poor—P. A. Stebbins, Jr. and M. W. McClarney.

The officers of the Agricultural Society are requested to meet in the Court House on Tuesday evening of next week. The following are the names of the officers: President—Jno. M. Kilborn; Vice Presidents—S. M. Mills, David Conway, Isaac P. Howe, W. B. Gardner, Sala Stevens, Seth Taggart, G. W. Hackett, Jacob Barth, E. Thatcher, Cyrus Sunderlin, W. H. Hydror, Jeremiah Baker, Jerome Chesbro, J. Q. Merick, — Roberts of Pleasant Valley, H. F. Sizer, John Lyman, Sr., Leroy Crittenden, Edwin Lyman, Robt. K. Young, O. C. Warner, Duick Whipple, Daniel Bensley, E. Crippen; Committee—G. B. Overton, S. Ross, D. F. Glassmire, Alon Nelson, John P. Taggart; Treasurer—P. W. Knox; Recording Sec'y—S. D. Kelly; Corresponding Sec'y—Jno. M. Hamilton; Librarian—Alex. Eydam.

THE PAY FOR MAKING THE ENROLLMENT.—Ed. Journal: I desire to give information to the several gentlemen of this county who so promptly assisted me to make the enrollment of the reason they have not been paid and what the prospect is for receiving the pay for their services. For this purpose please publish the following from the Pittsburg Gazette: J. S. MAXX.

Mr. Murdoch, U. S. Marshal for the Western District of Pennsylvania, has placed in the hands of Gov. Curtin the accounts of the officers who were appointed to make the militia enrollment in this District. The accounts will be forwarded by Gov. Curtin to Washington for final adjudication. The enrolling officers will therefore understand that they need not address any further inquiries to the Marshal on the subject. He will promptly advise them, by letter or otherwise, of any information he may receive touching their accounts.

PENSIONS, BOUNTIES, BACK PAY, WAR CLAIMS, AND CLAIMS FOR INDEMNITY.

Stewart, Stevens & Co., Attorneys-at-Law and Solicitors.

ALL KINDS OF MILITARY CLAIMS.

111 Pennsylvania Avenue, Washington, D. C.

This firm, having a thorough knowledge of the Pension business, and being familiar with the practice in all the Departments of Government, believe that they can afford greater facilities to Pension, Bounty and other claimants, for the prompt and successful accomplishment of business entrusted to them, than any other firm in Washington. They sign for security such amount of this business as will enable them to execute the business for each claimant very cheaply, and on the basis of their pay contingent upon their success in each case.
