See the advertisement of the Manhattan Hotel, New York. From the representations of Mr. C. H. We advise our friends to give it a trial, confident that they will not be disappointed.

We call the attention of Merchants, Booksellers, Druggists, Painters and others, to the advertisement of "The Phoenix Manufacturing Company," No. 10 Cortland Street, New York, in another column. Success upon Merit. - If there is an instance upon the records of our country, where an article of American manufacture has made its way to universal favor solely upon its merits, and without extraneous aid, it is that of the Chemical Saleratus. It has only to be sold in one place and it is demanded in another, and so it has gone on increasing in favor, until the products of the extensive Chemical Works of D. B. DeLand & Co., of Fairport, Monroe Co., New York, are now immense. This article is made only at these works, by a process known only to the proprietors. They sell at wholesale; but this Chemical Saleratus can be had at the groceries generally, throughout the country.

DIED: In Dallas, Oregon, on the morning of the 21st of Dec. 1862, Mrs. MARY BELL, consort of L. F. CARTEE, aged 88 years. Mrs. Carlee was a native of Allegany county, N. Y. Spring bath its music and its bloom And more its glories light, But still a shadow from the tomb A sadness and a blight. Are ever on Earth's loveliest things - For the breath of change is there, And death his dusky banner flings O'er all that's loved and fair.

The funeral will take place from Rev. Mr. Devore's church, on Wednesday, the 24th inst., at 1 o'clock, P. M. The friends of the family are invited to attend. Mrs. Carlee was indeed a worthy woman, and one of the kindest and most affectionate of mothers. Her religious principles were well adapted to impart useful instruction to her children, and prepared them to discharge, with honor to themselves, and with benefit to others, the various duties and responsibilities of life. We sincerely sympathize with our friend and brother, in the loss of his truly amiable companion, and deeply regret that the grave has closed over such goodness of heart and gentleness of character. But her memory will not moult with her ashes; the remembrances of her many endearing qualities, of her sweetness of temper, her kind affectionate disposition, and most exemplary life, will long survive to mitigate in coming days, the keen anguish of her surviving family.
