| IV..- NuTileer | COUDERSPORT, POTTER COONTY, PA,\% WEDNESDAX, MAACH 4, 1863. |  |  |  |  |
| :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: |
| POTTER TEGURNA | THE POISONED CUP. | $\left\|\begin{array}{c} \text { "Nay, ms good uocle," he said, "four } \\ \text { sillingenss to oblige us is enough.". } \\ \text { "It is our royal pleasure," he added, } \end{array}\right\|$ | With his life. The rest you kaow."  "Who is the trusty friend of mhom | From the Army:   My Dear Journal:-A feit days ago, | right. Almost imperceptibly it its itself to him, grows to be a parto of him, and bo will march nearly as easily and rapidly |
|  | The silken apras of King Heary's apartuent was suddenly thrast aside | "It is oir royal pleasure," be added, "that the bearer of this cup shall drink | thou speakest ?" | My Dear Journal:-A ferdays ago, onie of tae many numberg of the Joumali, |  |
| m | The uonarch started. and placed hus tand upun his swurd, for his life had | of it to the confusion of the enemies of our crown and person !" | and who will bear witness that what $\ddagger$ say is true." | seetitby kind friends at home, succeeded in rinoniog the gauntlet of our army mail | In this part of the world the ooldater fins it necessery to depand for his 00 |
|  |  | As Henry said this, he fixed his eyes | The kiag turned a dark look upou Sir | oficias, and worn and traein satated th | fort solelely upan nimself. He in to to dos |
|  | been atteupted more thatronce. But he suiled at this canseless fear, as his eyesfeil upon the slight form of the intruder feil upon the slight form of the intruder | keenly upon the countenance of the servitor, who, during this conversation, had | John, who stood pale and trembling, the very picture of guilt:and terror. |  | cide whether be will sleep io the mud exposed to the fury of the storm, or on |
|  |  |  |  | befora; but when there is anything of |  |
| of more fuly freedom | The young girl adrauced with a timid et graceful step, add eauk down upur ne knea: | creasing agitation.  He curned slightly pale as the king | upon him that $I$ conferred the Darcy He bas dealt treacherously by us both. |  |  |
|  |  |  |  | interest to write about the ooldier:'s time is generally occupied. Ho only has the | clothes, or wead t |
|  |  |  |  | leisure fer correspondence, in | ity he has, the better he will be likely to fare. I trust the boys from Poter are not deficient in that quality. |
|  |  |  |  | themes, and teo |  |
|  |  |  |  | ? | The grand sonwstorm of the keason commenced here last night ; the fall was |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  | d | faet ind furious duriog the enirit day ${ }^{\text {a }}$ ( |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  | where it was raised. It is not expected  that your readers would be interested 10 a detailed account of our adventures, but they way be pleased to - learn that the they may be pleased to learn that the |  |
| 1 and Editorial |  |  | - "You hare mate me wore tivn that, |  |  |
|  |  |  | ithe pride gone that naught but kiuduess |  | Sonershat free expressions of diseon- |
|  |  |  |  | they way be pleased to learn that the the intelligenoe and patriotisus of Central Pentuslyania, is a good one and is ably |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  | raising the jerelled hilt ot his sword toliis lipy us he spuke. "'Nuw, go oon." | ing his esauple, arose, and stood lovking at eacb other in terror and dismay. | geatle daughter, whose loyalty and filial devotion have saved thy life and mine. | ion Xo. 1, commanded by Geo. Wads. | sentiments of a more manly charatoter.Judging by what I bire beed able to seeund hear, the tone of feeling here, has |
| BUSINESS CARUS |  |  |  | the defeated candidate for Governor there |  |
| Eufalita lodge Mo. 3 t |  | at eacb other in terior and dismay. "I trust that your majesty will bear |  |  | adranced fully twenty per cent within thd |
|  |  | vice, |  | or of the District, and is novi one of tbe | teill on the mend, with considerable room: |
|  |  |  |  | Oldests alest and most patriotio Gever. als in the aruy. He is Lrown here as | for further improvement. I remaia very traly thy friend, |
| and practice, at theit Hill ii comuersport | $\mid$ traitur to lis king? .Not to my knowlege, sire, yet it is | "I mould that the hearts of all present |  |  |  |
| Sec |  | iog his trand kiudy upon the dik's |  | ident's Ewancipation policy. In'a word he is ore of those Generals who koow | P. S. 18th still storming, rain presdominates, snow tgoing of, mud aboni |
|  | uer, cod waity my wordj well. In |  | to accuracy, considering the astronomy of |  |  |
|  | the bancyuer-bill you will observe among |  | the times; but it was not quite accurate as it made the year noarly eieren minutes too loog. The error was. corrected by | "stars". are on the abeendant. Our Brigade Commander Gen. G. R. | Meclellan's army on the Peninsula, whowere under the impresesion that they hadseen man before now say that thay urdconcinced that they never did. |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  | Our Brigade Commander Gen. G. R. |  |
|  |  |  |  | one a week. On these occasions he likes |  |
|  |  | fases hie dies at the rieatk of day Duriag this sene, a ligit female fig. | toreat |  |  |
|  |  | her |  |  | Tes, they are eleeping, s long, dream: |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  | Must of the Catholicuations adopted the reforin ; but it was not till 1793 that the Grearina calendar was adopted in | neath housusife on serubiag day. | less sleep, from which they will nevci amaken. Slecping far away from mothort |
|  | Heut givep by the Dube | d As soon as Henry obeerved her, he |  | - | from brother and sister, and the fair gen |
|  |  | 10 |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  | The boys are all well spoben of by, their | the girl whose cheek has faded like the rose when the clilling blasis of Autamid |
| the stle |  |  |  | oficers and courades. Capt. Jones, itis suid by those capable of juagiog, is one | It be lored one  Perhaps it has not been long sinde they |
|  |  |  |  | fle refy bett Diptains in the Volun. ter jervice and Lt. Harry Baker, re. |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  | England's king!"  "I will not rise. sire," returned the |  |  |  |
|  |  |  | and to meet their accimuktion, it is proviled that "the gears 1800 , 1400, 2100. | stainless reputation as an officer, and takes wisi' ham the best wishes of all who know | Hears at hove! How eagerly they |
|  |  | Sutappy man, uy mreecleded, wissuided | Lord which ghall happen in tive to come, except only every fourth handredth year | ne irst Suoday after our Regimentbere, I wenu mith a friend to io isit |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  | that 1 ask at your bauds  "What " excliiumed Hoary, with a fromn, whe life of wy utlempened wurde | of our the first, shall not be copsidered as leap years.". The. year 1860 was not consideted leap year ; and since that timie | $\begin{aligned} & \text { Berves. I was not long in fonding the } \\ & \text { guarters of my old friend Mark French, } \end{aligned}$ | arrive at the ospected tiame. Then comenthe nems of a great batle, great lose of life, glorious victory. Eagerly they grisp -there is a wist before their egea |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  | of the triue and lafity lalll, and was cur:urred withe every variety of the substantial |  |  | me just where he lived. He figures as Captiain of Cu.E, 19t Pa. Caralry. Wheu |  |
|  |  | fromn, "the life of uy attempted wurderer? Methiaks that is a strange request, | there bave been twelied days between the old and new stles, in other words, the |  | -there is a mist before their eyes.  "Here, Marf, you read this;" says a |
|  | - dishes of the time and ara Wuth all the deumoustration of respect | lady :"' liene," said the maiden, implor- | old and new otyles, in other "ुords, the | Capiuin of Cu. E, lat Pa. Cavalry. Wheu I arrived he was a way visiting the "Buck- | wother whose son was in the battle; "ioy eves are:not as good as they used to be.' |
|  | paid to ro, yles, the king saie tesorted ton | ingly, "remeuber thiue oath! Breaknut thy siugly nord. Let wo vot feel |  | tals," but he did not keep we to waiting long. Of course we had a good time es ghanging car latest news fron Potter, an |  |
|  |  |  |  |  | eves are not as good as they nsed to be.  But 'tis not ber eyes ; 'lis the terrible fear that is koawing at her heart, that |
|  | Upur his right sat his host; upon his teft the Earl of Derby: the rest we keated secordang to their station, tie low | become a parricide : |  |  |  |
|  |  |  | is fuite, and weak, ani poor, and per- |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
| this Hotel |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
| the latest and west sylyes - Prices to |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
| jeitien risto |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
| Ware made rt notic |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
| Letisisile, July fl is6. |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
| Popular Hotel |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  | They were semomhat tired, as the walking |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
| Feb. 188t, 1883. |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |

