

Condorsport, Wednesday Evening, Apr. 22, 1863.

Local and General.

The Maple Sugar season has thus far been very unfavorable.

There has been a new bank granted at Scranton under the Free Banking Law.

Remember the Loyal League meeting to-morrow evening.

The bill legalizing the Shipmasters issued during the past winter has become a Law.

Our Representative, A. G. Olmsted, Esq., is at home. The Legislature adjourned on the 15th inst.

Miss Virginia D. Smith has been selected as teacher for the village school during the coming season.

The snow has almost disappeared from the hills and the grass is beginning to look "grassy."

Hon. John P. Coffey, of Allegheny, has been elected Speaker of the Senate for the interval between now and the next session, and in case of the death or resignation of Gov. Curtin, becomes Governor.

That sterling loyal paper, the Nashville Union, says: "The man who asserts that this is an 'Abolition war,' would gladly see the abolition of the Federal Union. He is a sneaking apologist for the Southern rebellion."

The next Congress now stands thus: Administration, 85; Opposition, 73 or possibly 74; to be elected, 10; viz, 3 in Vermont, 3 in West Virginia, 3 in California, and 1 in Missouri.

Prof. Coburn of Bradford county, has been appointed by the Governor, and confirmed by the Senate, as State Superintendent of Common Schools. The appointment gives general satisfaction.

The women of Philadelphia have within a few days past organized a number of Union Leagues, to encourage the spirit of loyalty to the Government and assist the good work of aiding the United States Sanitary Commission.

Lieut. A. B. Mann was at home this week, on a ten days furlough. He is well, and, as usual, in a very good humor. He reports the army in an excellent condition, anxious to be doing something, and very proud of their commander, General Hooker.

It is estimated that Gerrit Smith has contributed more than $100,000 toward the war in the shape of bounties to volunteers, aid to their families, &c. He has just offered $3,500 towards raising colored regiments. Now name us the Republican or Democrat who has done as much.

The Government has not yet decided what course to pursue under the law authorizing the President to grant letters of marque and reprisal. The question has been discussed in more than one Cabinet meeting, in connection with the question as to the proper means to adopt to prevent the construction and sailing of rebel vessels from foreign ports.

Lieut. R. Z. Roberts has been ordered to join his regiment. While he was stationed at this village as Recruiting officer and for the purpose of arresting deserters he has been earnest and indefatigable in his labors. He has recruited more men than all the other officers of his regiment combined. We wish him success on his return to the brave and gallant Fifty-Third.

The Spring Examinations of Teachers will be held by the County Superintendent at the following times and places, commencing at 10 A. M. Writing materials will be needed.

Table listing names and locations for teacher examinations: Maj. J. M. Killbourne's, 24; Sunderlinville, 25; Andrews Settlement, 27; Genesee Fork, 28; Brighton Center, 29; Harrison Valley, 30; Lewisville, May 1.

We are in receipt of a copy of the Democratic Leader under a new administration. It is a terrible fret over the arrest of the four Knights of the Golden Circle, last week, whom even J. Glancy Jones feared to defend. The Government should send these treason-scribbles to Fort McHenry and perhaps they would follow in the footsteps of Mr. Boileau and become converted to loyalty.

A soldier, lately from the army, and who has been through the hardest fought battles of the Peninsula, says, the soldiers were enthusiastic for McClellan up to the time of his associating with the copperheads of New Jersey and New York, but when they saw him in daily and hourly intercourse with open and notorious traitors they thought there must be "something rotten in Denmark," and that now they denounce him in the most unmeasured terms. A man who will receive the sympathy and adulations of traitors should not complain if doubts as to his loyalty arise in the minds of the people.

In his farewell message to the Legislature, last week, Gov. Curtin announces that the President has offered him a high position under the Government—supposed to be the Mission to Spain—and that he will retire from the service of the State at the close of his present term of office. This will be a source of regret to thousands of his friends who hoped to show their confidence in his administration and testify their high appreciation of his many good qualities, by again electing him to the office of Governor. Wherever he may go the prayers of a grateful people will follow him. We will publish his message next week.

The bill for the payment of a half month's wages to the militia who rallied against the rebels in September last, has passed. It was originally designed to pay a month's wages, but Lambertson, (copperhead) of Clarion, raised such a howl about the dreadful expense of the "half month they were not in service," that the majority yielded, and left it in that shape—paying men who lost nearly a month, wearing clothes, and furnishing themselves provisions and some accoutrements—paying for all this, and loss of time, less than a Legislator's pay for one day!

The Democratic Leader calls the Administration "an imbecile and infamous Government." What should be done with men who will write in this style? Hang them! we say. But conservatives (?) call this administration a Bourbon tyranny, even in the face of the fact that such men as these writers are at liberty. If they are not aiding and abetting treason, what can this be called? Surely, not loyalty; and if not loyalty, what is it? Journalists in the South think that this means something—and it undoubtedly does. No paper could live for a day in any of the so-called Confederate States that would assert that Jeff. Davis' government was "infamous and imbecile. Is it any wonder that the Union men of the North deemed it necessary to organize Loyal Leagues. Anarchy and a bloody civil war may be thrust upon us at the north if we are not careful of our liberties now, if the law is not enforced to the very letter. Let the people beware how they give aid and comfort to these "instruments of the devil" treason

Below is a copy of an act releasing the County of Potter from the payment of a certain judgement in favor of the Commonwealth. It was incurred in the contested election case of 1856, Beck vs. McGee. The thanks of the people are due to Representative Olmsted and Senator Wilson for the efficient services rendered, in thus releasing the county from a heavy and unjust tax. The amount is something over $2,800.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the County of Potter is hereby discharged and released from the payment of a certain judgement in favor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania against the said county of Potter, said judgement being number one hundred and thirty-five, June Term, Anno Domino one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in the Common Pleas of said county and said county of Potter is hereby released and discharged from the payment of judgement number seventy, September term, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, said last mentioned judgement being entered upon a scire facias to revive the judgement last before mentioned.

Union League. The Loyal men of Condorsport and vicinity are invited to meet in Council at the Court House, on Thursday Evening, April 16th, at 8 o'clock for the purpose of pledging united and organized support to the National and State Governments, for the suppression of rebellion and maintaining the Nation in its integrity over all the territory ever covered by its flag.

Pursuant to the above call a number of the loyal people of Condorsport met, and owing to the stormy nature of the weather no permanent organization was effected. The meeting was called to order by nominating D. C. LARRABEE, Chairman, and M. W. McALANEY, Secretary.

On motion, a committee of three—Jno. M. Hamilton, J. B. Smith and H. J. Olmsted—was appointed to report a plan of organization, at the next meeting.

On motion, A. G. Olmsted, Esq., was invited to address the next meeting, and the Secretary requested to notify the gentleman of the wishes of his fellow-citizens. [It is expected that Mr. Olmsted will be present.]

On motion, the meeting was adjourned to meet again THURSDAY EVENING, April 23, at 8 o'clock.

Let the loyal people turn out! Let the Government feel that the people are enthusiastic in its support; that suffering and trial serve only to endear the old Union to its supporters. Let the people come forth in their might that copperheadism and "peace-men" may feel the power of their strong arm. Let the friends of such men as Butler, Brady, Van Buren, Dickinson, Brewster, Dix, Johnson, Wright, and the leading Jacksonian Democracy unite in this good cause. Let every loyal man join the Union League!

M. W. McALANEY, Sec'y.
