EIGHTEENTH YEAR.

VOLUME VIII .- NEW SERIES.

A new volume of this popular Journal com ences on the first of January. It is published weekly, and every number contains sixteen pages of useful information, and from five to ten original engravings of new inventions and discoveries, all of which are prepared ex-pressly for its columns. To the Mechanic and Manufacturer.—No person engaged in any of the mechanical or manufacturing pursuits should think of "doing without" the Scientific American. It costs but six cents per week; every number contains from six to ten engravings of new machines and inventions, which cannot be found in any other publication. To the Inventor.—The Scientific American is indispensable to every inventor, as it not only contains illustrated descriptions of near-ly all the best inventions as they come out, but each number contains an Official List of the Claims of all the Patents issued from the United States Patent Office during the week thus placing in our possession all that is trans-piring in mechanical science and art in these old countries. We shall continue to transfer to our columns copious extracts from these journals of whatever we may deem of interest

HARPER'S PICTOBIAL HISTORY

THE GREAT REBELLION IN THE UNITED STATES

Messrs. Harpers & Brothers have commenc-ed the issue in Numbers of a complete History of the Great Rebellion in the United States. The work has been for many months in course of preparation, by a writer every way qualified for the task. The Introduction contains a clear and suc-

inct account of the formation of the Confederacy of the States; the formation and adop-tion of the Constitution of the United States, and the establishment of the National Govern ment; the origin, developement and progress of the doctrines of Nullification and Secession, and the various phases which they assumed until their final culmination in the Great Rebellion. The History comprises a full account, drawn from the most authentic sources, of all the Events of the War; the intrigues of the Southern leaders at home and abroad; the gradual defection of one section; the great Uprising of the People for the maintenance of the National Life and Existence; the rapid creation of an immense Army and Navy; and the Battles by Land and Sea.

The Illustrations comprise Portraits of all those who have borne a prominent part in the struggle; Maps of the different localities; Plans of the leading actions; Views of every scepe of interest, and of the most important Battles. These illustrations are mostly from for that purpose to accompany every division of our Army and Navy.

For our Army and Navy. Every facility at the command of the Pub-lishers has been employed in the preparation and execution of this work; and they confi-dently believe it will form the most trustworthy and valuable history which can be prepared of the Great Struggle for the American Juion. 🗧 Mode and Terms of Publication The work will be issued in Numbers, consisting of 24 pages of the size of Harper's Weekly, printed from clear type, upon fine paper, and will probably be completed in Twenty Numbers. The numbers will be issued at intervals, i possible, of about three or four weeks.

The price of each number, which contains matter equivalent to an ordinary volume, will be Twenty-five Cents.

The Illustrations in each number are alone worth the price asked. Men out of employ-meht, especially Sick or Disabled Sold ers, can find no other work so sure of ready sale and good profits. For further particulars apply to the publishers HARPER & BROTHERS, Franklin Square, New York.

Parents abaild have it in store against the invidious enemy that reaches upon them unprepared. We have alumanit grounds to believe the CHERENT PECTORAL SAVES more lives by the con-sumptions it prevents than those it curves. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are curables nor zep-lect them until no human skill can master the inscirolable canker that, fastened on the vitals, east your life away. All know the dradind fatality of lung disorders, and set they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not de more than to assure them it is still made the best it east. PREPAREN BY DR. J. C.
