

Local and General.

Collectors will please notice the advertisement of Maj. J. M. Kilbourn. The Presbyterian Church in this place has procured a church-bell. They are boring for oil in Tioga county. The indications as yet are not very bright. The members of Co. A, 149th Regiment from Tioga county have sent home nearly $2,000 to their friends. We charge for obituary notices. A simple notice of death we publish free of charge. The President has issued a Proclamation agreeably to an act passed at the late session of Congress declaring that on the 20th day of June, West Virginia will be admitted as a State of the Union.

The Treasury Department has decided that the measure of a tun, in making the assessments for the internal revenue, shall be 2,140 pounds, in all cases under the excise law, unless the contrary is specified.

Hon. G. A. Grow has written a valedictory letter to his constituents whom he has represented in Congress for the past ten years. He shows up in beautiful colors the various phases of the Democracy on the Slavery question.

E. W. Capron, late editor of the West Chester Times has become one of the proprietors of the West Branch Bulletin at Williamsport. An able and vigorous writer, he will doubtless prove quite an addition to the editorial corps of the West Branch Valley.

A new brigade was formed a few days ago in the Potomac army, consisting of the 145th Pa., 53d N. Y., 2d Delaware and 27th Connecticut Regiments, under command of Col. Brooke, of this State, and bears the name of "Brooke's Brigade." It is included in Hancock's Division.

A correspondent writing to the New York Times from near Chancellorsville, opposite Fredericksburg under date of Friday, May 1, says "Capt. Overton of Gen. Sykes' staff was wounded—not dangerously." Capt. G. B. Overton, of this place, is on Gen. Sykes' staff and it is thought that he is the person here mentioned.

The Pittsburgh Gazette reports that two copperhead members of the Legislature were asked why they and their friends, while professing to hate banks, voted for all the bank bills that passed at the recent session. They made answer, that the matter was fully talked up in caucus, and that course taken in order to depreciate the currency issued by the government of the United States. That statement is most likely true in all its parts, and it shows how intensely hostile the locofocos, as a body, are to the suppression of the rebellion. They recognize the fact that the rebels are of their number.

The Hon. Thos. M. Howe, of Allegheny, declines being a candidate for Representative honors. Among the names mentioned of the Union men for that position are Hon. J. P. Penny, W. W. Ketchum, Eli Slifer, James H. Campbell, Galusha A. Grow, A. K. McClure, Morton McMichael and Wm. M. Meredith. The most prominent man at the present time, among the copperheads is Heister Claymer, of Berks county, one of the Senators who voted to refuse the Senate Chamber at Harrisburg to Hon. Andrew Johnson and ex-Gov. Wright in which to make Union speeches. His name is upon the roll of infamy, and we only hope his party will be foolishly enough to nominate him, as sure defeat will follow.

The Quaker State is yet too loyal to endorse an undisguised copperhead. But we give his party too much credit to do any such thing; they will most likely nominate some man who is half sheep and half goat—a man whom no one will know any thing about before the election, but who is to "show his hand" after.

The Wellsboro Banner gives us the credit of complimenting Gov. Seymour. We admire every man who does right, and some of the acts of Gov. Seymour have been such as to give the loyal people hope that he was true to the Government; but a shadow has been cast over the hope by his veto of the bill allowing the soldiers the right of voting. Opposition to this just measure has been and is one of the pillars of the copperhead party, and if he will thus give his support to them, where can he be placed? What is he? Loyal men find no difficulty in consenting to the soldiers voting—if any class are likely to vote right it is not reasonable to suppose they will. His course is weak and vacillating—like an April day, one moment bright and the next cloudy. And somewhat like the Banner-man's knowledge of the future, he tries to be loyal but has not the courage to break loose the bonds that bind him. We do not know what to expect from him. He will act just as it happens—if fear of party rules the hour, we will hear the hiss of copperheadism as in his veto message; but if he can work his courage up to the loyal point, he has wit enough to make it known. As a man he is corrupt; as a politician, selfish and unprincipled; and as Governor, the tool of mongrel-headed politicians.

A correspondent writing to a Philadelphia paper says that the "last session of the Legislature was the most iniquitous and corrupt ever known." Corruption and Treason went "hand in hand" in the Democratic House, and if the Senate had not been composed of men of some respectability our citizens would have been burdened with a weight of taxation such as never before emanated from a Pennsylvania Legislature. Let the people take warning from the past; let good men be selected. Men who are not only loyal but who are also honest. Let us have a body that will legislate for the people and not for its pocket. In such a matter as this it don't make any difference as to party. Either party has persons among its members who are honest and who have courage and honor sufficient to carry them through the breakers of "corporation briers." Take the record of the past winter and you will find good men who were suspicious cast upon him, throw him out next fall. We see some few of our exchanges are getting into a fret about the conduct of their members; we are not troubled in this way, and do not make these remarks for home consumption—Potter is pleased with her choice, and has no complaint to make. The character of each individual member has its effect upon State Legislation, and that it may be just and honorable it is necessary that the members be just and honorable men. Let the people throughout the State watch public opinion that it be turned into the right channel and that men be selected to frame our laws.

The Superintendency.

Pursuant to an act of the Legislature of 1854 the School Directors of Potter county met in Convention, in the Court House in Coudersport, on Monday, May 4th, for the purpose of electing a person to the office of County Superintendent to serve for the next three years, and also decide the amount of compensation for said office. The Convention was organized by electing Maj. J. M. Kilbourn, President, and H. J. Olmsted and Miles White, Secretaries. The compensation was fixed at $500 per year. The Convention then proceeded to the election of Superintendent: L. S. Robertson nominated J. W. Bird, Jacob Peet " R. T. Claffin, Saml Thompson " Seth Lewis. The following were the ballots: Lewis 38 33 37 33 37 36 34 35 35 40 Bird 26 27 23 21 20 19 21 19 13 23 Claffin 29 29 33 38 36 37 37 37 43 51 On the 10th ballot Rufus T. CLAFFIN was declared elected. There were 99 Directors present.

DIED: At Newbern N. C., March 30, 1863. WILLIAM H. BRITMAN of Co. D, 85th Regiment New York Volunteers. He enlisted from Sharon township, Potter county, Penna.

NOTICE IS HEREBY given to delinquent Collectors of Military Taxes that unless the amount of such commutations, now due by them, are paid over to the County Treasurer by next September Court, according to the act of 21st April, 1863, so that said monies can be applied to the Relief Fund, agreeably to the supplement of said act, that it will be my duty to notify the District Attorney in writing of such neglect, whose duty it will then be to collect the fines and penalties imposed by law. The following statement shows the amount due from the several townships in this Brigade: Collector of Keating for 1860 $2 00 do Wharton do 95 do Sylvania do 7 00 do Bingham for 1861 17 75 do Hector do 14 93 do Pleasant Valley do 3 22 do Rowlet do 18 53 do Stewardson do 4 47 do Sylvania do 4 47 do Abbott for 1862 12 87 do Allegany do 11 40 do Bingham do 28 50 do Coudersport do 6 00 do Eulalia do 5 50 do Hector do 26 83 do Homer do 2 37 do Jackson do 35 do Rowlet do 18 50 do Sweden do 2 30 do Stewardson do 9 00 do Sylvania do 10 00 do Summit do 4 75 do Wharton do 95

The foregoing sums amount to two hundred and nineteen dollars and twenty-four cents, scattered over twenty-three townships or already in the Collectors hands; one thing is certain, it is not paid into the Treasurer. It should be cheerfully paid that it may be distributed where it belongs, to the needy families of our neighbors now in actual service. It is confidently hoped that no further action will be necessary to secure the prompt payment of these taxes. JNO. M. KILBOURN, Brigade Inspector 3d B., 11th D., P. M. Brigade Inspector's Office, Pike Centre, April 25, 1863.

DR. SWEET'S

Infalible

LINIMENT

THE GREAT REMEDY

FOR RHEUMATISM, GOUT, NEURALGIA, LUMBAGO, STIFF NECK AND JOINTS, SPRAINS, BRUISES, WOUNDS AND CUTS, PILES, HEADACHE, AND ALL RHEUMATIC AND NERVOUS DISORDERS.

For all of which it is a speedy and certain remedy, and never fails. This Liniment is prepared from the recipe of Dr. Stephen Sweet, of Connecticut, the famous bone setter, and has been used in his practice for more than twenty years with the most astonishing success.

AS AN ALLEVIATOR OF PAIN, it is unrivaled by any preparation before the public, of which the most skeptical may be convinced by a single trial.

FOR NEURALGIA, it will afford immediate relief in every case, however distressing. It will relieve the most cases of HEADACHE in three minutes and is warranted to do it.

TOOTHACHE also it will cure instantly. FOR NERVOUS DEBILITY AND GENERAL LASSITUDE arising from imprudence or excess, this Liniment is a most happy and unfailing remedy. Acting directly upon the nervous tissues, it strengthens and revivifies the system, and restores it to elasticity and vigor.

FOR PILES.—As an external remedy, we claim that it is the best known, and we challenge the world to produce an equal. Every victim of this distressing complaint should give it a trial, for it will not fail to afford immediate relief, and in a majority of cases will effect a radical cure.

QUINCY AND SORE THROAT are sometimes extremely malignant and dangerous, but a timely application of this Liniment will never fail to cure.

SPRAINS are sometimes very obstinate, and enlargement of the joints is liable to occur if neglected. The worst cases may be conquered by this Liniment in two or three days.

BRUISES, CUTS, WOUNDS, SORES, ULCERS, BURNS AND SCALDS, yield readily to the wonderful healing properties of DR. SWEET'S INFALLIBLE LINIMENT, when used according to directions. Also, CHILBLAINS, FROSTED FEET, AND INSECT BITES AND STINGS.

Dr. Stephen Sweet, of Connecticut, the Great Natural Bone Setter.

DR. SWEET'S INFALLIBLE LINIMENT FOR HORSES is unrivaled by any, and in all cases of Lameness arising from Sprains, Bruises or Wrenching, its effect is magical and certain. Harness or Saddle Galls, Scratches, Mange, &c., it will also cure speedily. Spavin and Ringbone may be easily prevented and cured in their incipient stages, but confirmed cases are beyond the possibility of a radical cure. No case of the kind, however, is desperate or hopeless, but it may be alleviated by this Liniment, and its faithful application will always remove the Lameness, and enable the horses to travel with comparative ease.

Every Horse Owner

should have this remedy at hand, for its timely use at the first appearance of Lameness will effectually prevent those formidable diseases, to which all horses are liable, and which render so many otherwise valuable horses nearly worthless.
