

Local and General.

The Lycoming Insurance Company has made an assessment of five per cent.

Capt. E. H. Rauch, of Mauth Chouk, has been appointed Provost Marshal for the Northampton Congressional District.

The election in Virginia will be held on the 28th of May. Several of the districts have put forth Union candidates for Congress.

The Lancaster Examiner & Herald says the prospect is fair for a good wheat crop in Lancaster county the coming season.

Capt. W. W. White, of Lock Haven, has been appointed Provost Marshal of this Congressional District.

The extensive tannery belonging to George Slate, of Williamsport, was destroyed by fire on the 2d inst. Loss $10,000.

We refer our readers to the advertisement of Henry & Holmes in another column. Their reputation for faithfulness is unimpeachable. Now is the time to support home manufactures.

The nine months' and two years' men are about being mustered out of service. Many of the soldiers will re-enlist after a short visit home.

Robert Hawley, Esq., of Muncy, has been appointed by President Lincoln Commissioner on the Board of Enrollment for this Congressional District.

The weather for the few past weeks has been unusually warm and pleasant for this season of the year. If it continues as it has commenced our farmers of Potter county may expect an abundant harvest.

The Sons of Temperance publish, this week, a series of resolutions in reference to the death of Corporal Barnet F. Stebbins. They are just and true. He was reported a steady, enduring, and courageous soldier.

Yesterday afternoon the chimney of the residence of Mr. Mann was struck by lightning—no damage done except to the chimney. This is the first time that lightning has ever struck in our village.

The report is confirmed as to Capt. G. B. Overton being wounded, but it is not known how bad. A rumor has it that one of his legs must be amputated; this is not believed, as the papers speak of the wound being "slight."

Major Strouse of the 46th was killed in the battle at Fredericksburg, and Lieut. J. B. Geiger and J. H. Rusler, of Co. H. (the old Potter company) were wounded. There are some reported wounded in the 53d and 149th but none from this county.

Senator Conness, of California, at a late Union League meeting in Sacramento, pledged himself to sustain the Administration in its most radical measures for suppressing the rebellion, and not to follow the lead of Senators McDougall and Nesmith. Good!

At last the public is graciously but distinctly informed, that hostility to the South, or to Great Britain must not be expected from the rebel democracy. The acknowledged organ of that party, the "World," in a late issue says: "A philippic against England or the South would be as much out of place" in the late address of the Democratic members of the New York Legislature as a stanza of poetry in an arithmetic.

Now a stanza of poetry in an arithmetic would be simply incongruous, unless it related to mathematics; and denunciation of treason would be inconsistent with a party that sympathizes with, and teaches and practices, treason. The public will be duly grateful for this explanation and frank admission from the accredited organ of the unquenchable Copperheads.—Aquila.

The 37th Penna. Regiment, in which are the drafted men from this county, has adopted Resolutions expressive of their detestation of copperheadism, loyalty to the measures of the Government, and perfect confidence in the commanders of the army; they also express their thanks to Gov. Curtin for the energy and patriotism he has displayed in raising, arming and equipping the troops sent forth by the Old Commonwealth at her country's call, and especially for his efforts to have the sick and wounded returned to hospitals within the State, and to their homes until fit for duty. The resolutions occupy two much room for the crowded state of our columns, but they contain the same spirit as those we have published heretofore.

Vallandigham, the traitor, was arrested in Dayton, Ohio, by order of Gen. Burnside. His friends rung the fire bells and attempted to resist, and were overpowered—but they went to the office of the Union paper, in the city and sacked and burned it to the ground.

Vallandigham has been making vile treason speeches counseling mob law, resistance to the laws, and all the other iniquitous proceedings with which copperheadism has attempted to produce open violence in the North and thus give the Rebels aid. There are men in the North—in every little village, our own not excepted—while they have not the courage to say what this traitor says, defend his course and call his arrest an interference with the right of free speech. Poor, miserable, and contemptible puppets; with their knees so weak that they dare not go South and fight for their Rebel friends, they should not only be made to stop their hissing by public opinion, but should also be made to feel the power of the law.

The following are the names of the new Common School Superintendents, and their salaries, as far as received by us—those marked with a † were re-elected:

Table listing school superintendents and salaries: Potter—Rufus J. Claffin $500; Union—Capt. J. Owens 500; Dauphin—S. D. Ingraff 400; Luzerne—Abel Marcy 400; Perry—Jacob Gantt 300; Lycoming—John T. Reed, $500—The salary fixed upon seems to us either too great or too small. The services of a competent man for that office are worth fully $1,000 per annum; while the services of an incompetent man are worth just about $500 less than nothing.—Lycoming Gazette.

That the friends of the 149th Pennsylvania Volunteers may know of how great things really earnest men are capable, we publish the following high compliment to that regiment, contained in General Order No. 14:

HEAD-QUARTERS 2d Brio., 1st Army Corps, April 22, 1863.

1. The Colonel commanding congratulates the officers and men of this Brigade, upon the successful conduct of one of the most difficult and fatiguing marches of the campaign. 2. The command, after marching almost continually for 50 hours, in mud and rain, came into camp with full ranks well closed up, as if from dress parade, and without a straggler behind. 3. It may be doubted whether this achievement has a precedent in the annals of the service; at all events, its record is more valuable in the estimation of military men than that of a great victory in the field. 4. The troops have shown the discipline and physical training of veteran regulars, while by their earnest enthusiasm and unflinching cheerfulness in the midst of hardships and fatigue, they have exhibited the higher qualities of the patriot volunteer who, having given himself to his country, counts it but pleasure to suffer for its sake. By command of Col. ROY STONE.

COUDERSPORT, Pa., May 9, 1863. W. P., Officers and Brothers of Eulalia Division, No. 383, S. of T.

Your Committee, appointed for this purpose, respectfully present the following Preamble and Resolutions for your consideration: Whereas, all reasonable ground for hope that our brother, Barnet Stebbins, survived the battle of Fredericksburg, Dec. 13, 1862, has been removed by the lapse of time, it is proper that we should express our deep regret at his loss and due to his memory that we place on record a brief expression of our high regard for his faithfulness as a Son of Temperance, and for his patience and fidelity as a soldier in the Grand Army of the Nation; therefore,

Resolved, That in parting with our brother, Barnet Stebbins, in October, 1861, the loss to us of an ardent friend to our noble cause and of an active, energetic co-laborer in our Division, seldom or never absent from his place at its sessions, was but partially mitigated by the reflection that our country had a claim upon those energies, acknowledged by himself, greater than ours, and that our loss was her gain.

Resolved, That in the death of our brother this Division has lost a faithful and true member, whose memory we will tenderly cherish as a brother beloved, who cheerfully gave his life to serve the Nation.

Resolved, That the fidelity of our departed brother to his Pledge, surrounded, as he was, by the temptations and privations of a soldier's life, should encourage us to greater exertions to bring other young men within the ennobling influences of this Division, and justifies us in commending his example to the youth of this community as worthy of imitation.

Resolved That departing from our usual course in adopting these Resolutions, we are prompted by a feeling of deep respect for the worth of our lost brother, and of deep sympathy with his relatives and friends in their bereavement, suffered in the cause of our common country.

Resolved, That our R. S. be instructed to furnish the parents of our late brother, Barnet Stebbins, with a copy of the above Resolutions, over the Seal of our Division, and also a copy to the Editor of THE POTTER JOURNAL for publication.

Respectfully submitted, JNO. M. HAMILTON, JNO. S. MANN, EZRA STARBUCKETT, Comrs.
