

te. Main st. Condersport, Pa. racerie doubt and discouragement at first. But loved. A mutual gaze transfixed both : an awful abolitionist she is !" But, as weeks rolled on, things chang-l, and, owing to a sudden slack of busi-D. E. OLMSTED, DEALER IN DRY GOODS, READY-MADE Clothing, Crockery, Grockery, Grockery, Allines to a sudden slack of busi-Could sport, Pal COLLINS SMITH. Dut, as weeks folice on, things change, life's happiness was at stake, and ne would out twas only of a moments durated, and then Helen, with a cry of joy, threw Court Life and The PRINCE of clothing, Crockery, Grockery, Grockery, Grockery, Grockery, Allines to a sudden slack of busi-make himself worthy to claim Helen, or and then Helen, with a cry of joy, threw Court life, has received a power-large and elegant store, and re-open a the voice of war, as the heroic bravery of COLLINS SMITH. Court life, has received and the world of state of the sweetest birds of the pig, but it will be as gleeful and as parlor they were scon sected and their and Princess of Wales, and the world of p small book-binding establishment on a Sumpter's little band was heralded thro; parlor they were soon seated, and their and Princess of Wales, and the world of Mar. BALER in Dry Goods, Groceries, Provisions, second floor. This frustration of his first every city, town and village; and thous souls were so full of happiness and words fashion is rapidly re-assuming the aspect hopes and brilliant promises may have ands of patriots, well worthy of their rev. to speak that tongues were found too dull it were during the early days of the pres-

In spring be a strict vegetarian, be a May.-Halle Journal.

Goods usually found in a country Store.-Coudersport, Nov. 27, 1861.

COUDERSPORT HOTEL. F. GLASSMIRE, Proprietor, Corner o-Main and Second Streets, Coudersport, Potter Co.. Pa.

tion with this Hotel.

MARK GILLON,
TAILOR—nearly opposite the Court House—agree

 will make all clothes intrusted to him in met.

 the latest and best styles—Prices to suit
 Th
 the times.—Give him a call.

Ulysses Academy Btill retains as Principal, Mr.E.R.CAMPBELL, of course reached her startled ears. Some Preceptress, Mrs. NETTIE JONES GRIDLEY; As-Freceptress, Mrs. NETTIE JONES GRIDLEY; AS. sistant, Miss ADA WALKER The expenses girls, with less love in their hearts and per Term are: Tuition, from $5 to $6; Board, forgiveness of purpose, would at once from $1.50 to $1.75 per week, Rooms for self-boarding from $2 to $4. Each term commences upon Wednesday and continues Fourteen him had she placed all her future hopes weeks: Fall term, Aug. 27th; 1862; Winter term, Dec. 10th, 1862; and Spring term, March 25th, and expectations. No wonder that the 1863. O. R. BASSETT, President.

W. W. GRIDLEY, Sect'y. Lewisville, July 9, 1862.

MANHATTAN HOTEL.

NEW YORK. THIS Popular Hotel is situated near the corner of Murray Street and Broad- place, which cast her new resolutions way opposite the Park within one block and hopes from her mind-blasted forof the Hudson River Rail Road and near the Erie Bail Road Depot. It is one of the most pleasant and convenient locations in the city.

N. HUGGINS, Proprietor.

Feb. 18th, 1363:

objected to.

Now is the time to subscribe for your County Paper-THE JOURNAL.

wine cup. Being at a social party one evening be it even with their lives.

ever.

made the acquaintance of Helen, the prinagreeable young lady that he had ever the seat of war.

were kept from the trusting Helen, but rades fell beneath the galling fire of mus- murmured, at last they became publicly known; and, ketry and cannon balls. poor girl wept when the terrible and humiliating news was broken to her but she knew; William's heart, and she could turn him from his evil ways-at least so she thought. But an unfortunate occurrence took place, which cast her new resolutions lieutenancy. The printer and his good wife in positive but gentle terms informed her Curtis through all of these. The Rochester Straw-Cutter. that henceforth all intimacy between her Our rapid transfer to zesist General He hath but lent it to me, that I might OLMSTED & KELLY, Condersport, have and William must cease, as the respecta-Pope brought us into the engagement of bestow it on such as you." machine, in this country. It is constant different different billing of the household demanded it; and the second Bull Run; and though many. machine, in this county. It is covenient, du-able, and CHEAP. Dec. 1, 1860.-12 objected to. regiment, still fate again favored our tinct; they died sixty years ogo, and left to Helen; but being a girl of good sense, and he found himself facing the rebels at neurped their places.

been the reason of his dabbling at the olutionary sizes, flocked under the loved to express what each would say. His ent reign. The obdurate retirement of banner of our Union, and swore to defend struggles for her sake, his faithfulness the Queen contrasts strangely with the

Among the first to place their names years, were soon spoken. and Second Streets, Coudersport, Pot-o., Pa. A Livery Stable is also kept in connect a to be the the connect of the enclosed as a private, and when his regi-band in both of his, "have I not shown ing the is also kept in connect of the connect o her to her home he came to the conclu- mont was organized, armed and equipped, you the depth of my affection? Can you ing some distinguished members of the sion that she was the finest and most it was sent flying over the iron rails to not trust me? But the sufferings of the aristocracy with their presence at dinner.

agreeable young lady that he had ever him in to suit 13.41 to friendship, and, at last, into love; KELLY. but, although William was paying his KELY. the times.—Give him a call. 13.41 into friendship, and, at last, into love; with although William was paying his addresses to so chaste and beautiful a be-battle of Buil Run. Here the regiment Bouse, Coudersport, Pa. Tin and Sheet Iron Ware made to order, in good style, on Here a long time these secret revelres tron ware made to order, in good style, on the grave unattended by a single relaived the grave unattended by a single relaived tron ware made to order, in good style, on the grave unattended by a single relaived the grave unattended by a single relaived tron ware made to order, in good style, on the grave unattended by a single relaived tron ware made to order, in good style, on the grave unattended by a single relaived tron ware made to order, in good style, on the grave unattended by a single relaived tron ware made to order, in good style, on the grave unattended by a single relaived tron ware made to order, in good style, on the grave unattended by a single relaived tron ware made to order, in good style, on the grave unattended by a single relaived tron ware made to order, in good style, on the grave unattended by a single relaived tron ware made to order, in good style, on the grave unattended by a single relaived tron ware made to order, in good style, on the grave unattended by a single relaived tron ware made to order, in good style, on the grave unattended by a single relaived tron ware made to order, in good style, on the grave unattended by a single relaived tron ware made to order, in good style, on the grave unattended by a single relaived the grave unattended by a single relaived tron ware made to order, in good style, on the grave unattended by a single relaived tron ware made to order, in good style, on the grave unattended by a single relaived tron ware ware to the grave to the grave to the grave to the grave to the

The Sergeant-Major was killed, and our William, having been noticed by the Colonel, was appointed to fill the vacancy. During the long winter that followed he attended diligently to his duties, and the spring campaign opened, and the regi-bride served the henced delta for his late father is popular. As has begun bride and the regi-bride served the henced do the provide the ment found themselves in front of the bride, and that he neceded but their con- life well. Let it be hoped that he will poor great Mozart ! And Constance formidable defences in front of Yorktown sent, they could not find it in their hearts so continue to its close.

Our here had displayed so many mili-tory qualifications and repeated evidences of his ability to command, that he was recemmended for and obtained a second.

The battle of Williamsburg followed A lady, on giving a sixpence to a begour entrance of Yorktown; then Fair gar, accosted him thus : "I have now given baving become aware of the almost beast- Oaks; afterwards Charles City Crossroads you more than ever God gave me." Board & Rooms $1.50 per day. ly state into which their daughter's lover and Malvern Hill; and the protecting which he replied: "No, madam: God to his digust, for I could hear him swear this day not Vienna, nor any one in the had descended, called Helen to them and providence of God shielded Lieutenant hath given you all your abundance."- when it failed to go off. One of our men world knows where the great Mozart lies "That is your mistake," said she; "for

Den and women have become ex

This was the most cutting blow of all Lieutenant. Only a day or two passed, no heir ! Ladies and gentlemen have Digger Indians are never known togenile. "Certainly, Certainly, I will put a cinhor They must be grave Diggers. 1.0

POOR GREAT MOZART I-He died in and her secret devotion for the long two bustleand animation constantly prevailing after Keen suffering he fell asleep peaces in the Court of the Prince of Wales. fully at one o'clock on the morning of the neon, his body was carried to the Metrorong drink and to associate with men of oubtful character. For a long time these secret revelries harmed, though many of his brave com-grasp, and, amid choking emotions, she the trusting Helen, but rades fell beneath the galling fire of mus-were kept from the trusting Helen, but rades fell beneath the galling fire of mus-were kept from the trusting Helen, but rades fell beneath the galling fire of mus-were kept from the trusting Helen, but rades fell beneath the galling fire of mus-were kept from the trusting Helen, but rades fell beneath the galling fire of mus-were kept from the trusting Helen. but rades fell beneath the galling fire of mus-were kept from the trusting Helen. but rades fell beneath the galling fire of mus-were kept from the trusting Helen. but rades fell beneath the galling fire of mus-were kept from the trusting Helen. but is to be seen at more important gath-lowered into the ground. The man who Weber, Mozart's patient, devoted wife, where was she? Ill. So ill when her En A correspondent of the New York husband died As to be blessedly uncon-

Tribune, describing the duels of the scicus of his burial. But after awhile sharpshooters on the Rappabannock, pre- she recovered, and when she weat with ions to Hboker's advance; says : weak, faint steps to her hisband's grave, "At one time during the day, in a pit the unhappy woman found that the grave. weak, faint steps to her husband's grave, near at hand, I heard a rebel snape his maker had not the slightest recollection To gun several times; but it missed fire, much of where he had buried him. And to

An exquisitely dressed young gentleman, after buying another seal to dangle about his person, said to the jeweler that the would like ah to have ah someper A Missouri paper says that the thing on it-ab, to denote what he was:" fen it," said the tradesman.

"Hello, reb, where did you get your percussion caps?' " 'They're Northern Copperheads,' was his quick response."

vious to Hooker's advance, says :