

Local and General.

Gold is 31 cts. premium in New York. The proposed amendments to the Constitution appear in to-day's paper.

The draft has been made in Allegany County, New York.

Lieut. Harlan P. Bird, 12th Wisconsin, was wounded in the leg at Vicksburg and returned home last week.

THE TWO BURGERS.

Vicksburg! To whom shall we Grant the Meads of praise? Boys and Girls I get and save all the berries, fruits, pickles, &c., you can. The Soldiers will need them.

Admiral Foote's funeral at New Haven, on Tuesday last, was the most imposing ceremony of the kind ever known in Connecticut.

The Condersport Hospital Aid Society sent away two boxes of supplies, on Friday last. The Society will meet again to-morrow at 2 o'clock P.M.

The sale of Government five-twenties has already reached $140,000,000. The Secretary of the Treasury has extended the time 30 days for continuing the sale at par.

The Democratic Convention requested their candidate, Judge Woodward, not to resign his position as Judge of the Supreme Court. This shows they had no confidence in his being elected Governor.

PERSONAL.—Gen. Meade, the new leader of the Army of the Potomac, is the grandson of George Meade, of Philadelphia, an eminent Irish-American merchant, whose firm (Meade & Fitzsimmons) contributed in 1781 $10,000 to a fund for the relief of the famishing army of Gen. Washington.

We often hear it remarked by disloyal men, that if the Crittenden Compromise had been accepted by the North, the South would have never rebelled. But the truth is, it was the South itself that refused to accept that compromise. Mr. Crittenden himself, in a recent speech in Kentucky, alluded to this subject; and here is the language he used: "Had my Compromise Resolution," said he, "been adopted by the South as it was agreed to by the North, the rebellion and war would have been obviated." We trust that those copperheads who are so fond of referring to the Crittenden Compromise will hereafter saddle the onus of its rejection where it belongs.

POTTER AND GETTYSBURG.

During the battle of the 1st, 2d, and 3d of July, the companies from Potter nobly sustained their hard-earned reputation for courage and endurance. While we mourn the loss of those who have fallen, deplore the fate of those who suffer from painful wounds and sympathize with those who laid their noble sons a sacrifice upon our country's altar, yet rejoice that their blood has not been shed in vain, that our suffering has been recompensed by victory, and that the Keystone State is again free of the rebellious horde. It is impossible for us to give a full or certain account, what news we have is principally by rumors reaching us through soldiers paroled or furloughed.

The Old 8th Penn's gathered new laurels. The following are the killed and wounded: Capt. Arch. F. Jones was struck by a piece of shell on his left breast, cutting it badly and bending and breaking his collar bone.

Capt. Hatfield struck on head by a piece of shell, not serious.

Lieut. A. B. Mann struck on head by piece of shell, slight.

The following account is sent to us by J. B. Harvey, leader date of Taneytown, Md., July 1: Serg't John W. York, wounded in leg.

Almond, Chesbro, in both legs. L. W. Cushing, in leg. George Freeman, in hip. George Shutt, in shoulder. F. Stone, taken prisoner. Joseph Kile, wounded and since died.

All that are now left for duty with the company are: Serg't J. Stevens, Corp. B. J. Cushing, George Musto, H. Herr.

The 14th Regiment, although this was their first battle, fought like veterans, and won for themselves high praise.

Col. Roy Stone (acting Brig.-Gen.) was wounded, how seriously we do not know.

Lt.-Col. Walton Dwight, was wounded and taken prisoner. He kept the field until from loss of blood he was compelled to leave it. Is now at Baltimore.

Capt. Johnson taken prisoner. Lieut. Reynolds wounded in foot and taken prisoner.

Lieut. Bartley taken prisoner. These four officers, refused to be paroled, but by some surety, the particulars of which we have not yet learned, escaped from the Rebels.

The following brave boys are reported killed: Oscar W. Rounds, was killed instantly. He was not eighteen when he enlisted, and was a noble youth.

Austin Ayres, of Ayres Hill. David Dayton, we think from Hebron. Ryan, from near Ellsburg.

We have no names of the wounded or prisoners. There may be some mistakes in the different reports.

Capt. Dennis Chesbro was last heard of as being very sick in a Hospital in Washington. No other news from the 46th, save that some of the boys are missing.

S. Johnson, of Co. K, 149th, was reported in St. Aloraines Hospital, Washington, D. C. on June 25.

John Miller, of Loyalsock, gave one dollar ($30) to every soldier that left Williamsport for the war. His advanced years alone prevented him from shouldering a musket.

During the panic at Pittsburg, to prevent capture by the rebels, the bankers and others of that city transferred to Cleveland, O. $15,000,000 in gold, and on the succeeding day $650,000.

The total number of emigrants who have arrived at New York since January 1, 1863, to the 17th of June last, is 55,427, being an excess of 29,010 over the emigration during the same period last year.

The slaughter of negro troops by the rebels, in the battle of Milliken's Bend, has induced Gen. Grant to issue an order, declaring that hereafter should any soldier, whether white or black, wearing the uniform of a United States soldier, be captured and executed, retaliatory measures will be adopted by him, and rebel soldiers in his hands will be treated in like manner.

Many persons are not aware that by the provisions of the enrollment law, drafted men are entitled to the same allowance, pay and bounty as volunteers. The section referring to this subject is as follows:

Sec. 11. That all persons thus enrolled shall be subject for two years after the first day of July succeeding the enrollment, to be called into the military service of the United States, and to continue in service during the present rebellion, not, however, exceeding the term of three years; and when called into service shall be placed on the same footing, in all respects as volunteers for three years, or during the war, including advance pay and bounty as now provided by law.

The act having gone into effect on the first day of July, those enrolled under its provisions are liable at any time to be called into service.

The bridge over the Susquehanna, at Columbia, which was destroyed on Sunday night week, was reconstructed in 1834, at a cost of $175,900, and was the property of the Columbia Bank. It was 5,020 feet long, 14 feet above high water, built all of wood, and about 40 feet wide; had two tracks, also used for vehicles and foot passengers and low-paths, and later for the Susquehanna and Tide Water Canal.

A lady correspondent makes a suggestion to tax assessors and collectors which is worth attention. She proposes that at the head of every tax bill, notification, assessment or other paper in relation to the new taxes, should be printed a sentence to this effect: "This tax you have to pay because three hundred thousand slaveholders chose to rebel against the Union." Then, while men are grumbling at the unaccustomed burden, they will be reminded whose crime it was that inflicted it upon them.

It is in contemplation to publish a record of the names of all the uncondemned peace men and secession sympathizers of the North, to be compiled subsequently in alphabetical order for easy reference, after the war for the Union is over. The loyal people of the North intend that the present infamous proslavery and monarchial rebellion shall be put down, and they want some handy means of knowing, when the country has been restored to peace and prosperity through the capitulation of the Rebels, who the home traitors were. The first number of this important record will probably be issued soon.

The Pittsburg Dispatch in speaking of the meeting held in the Court House on Tuesday evening of last Court week, uses the following language: "The platform of the Potter County Union Convention is one of the most patriotic we have met since the opening of the campaign. There is a ring of genuine Unionism in their resolutions that should command them to the earnest attention of the Convention. Let us have a nominee upon whom all loyal men, irrespective of party, can unite, no matter what his political affiliations may have been. There is but one issue now before the people, a vigorous prosecution of the war for the Union, or a shameful yielding to the demagogues who would sell every principle of honor for a temporary party triumph."

A letter from Columbia states that the only volunteers that traced out at Columbia, Pa. on Sunday to defend that place, was a company of negroes, who after having been engaged in digging trenches, took muskets and fought bravely: One of the principal lumber firms at Columbia is composed of two wealthy negroes, who have fitted out 80 negroes from that place for the service, and also take care of their families during their absence.

The Legislature of Ohio has before it, and will probably enact into a law, a bill excluding from the privilege of voting an individual from that State who shall be convicted of desertion. The same bill provides that any person who shall entice a soldier to desert or attempt to resist the enrollment law, shall likewise be excluded from the privilege of voting at any election held under authority of that State.

At a special meeting of the Union State Central Committee held in Philadelphia, Wednesday, June 24th, it was resolved that in the present emergency, while many of the delegates to the Union State Convention are engaged in the military service, and cannot be present at the meeting held in Pittsburg on the first of July, it is deemed expedient to postpone the Convention until the 5th of August, 1863.

A Joint Resolution proposing certain Amendments to the Constitution.

BE it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendments be proposed to the Constitution of the Commonwealth, in accordance with the provisions of the tenth article thereof.

There shall be an additional section to the third article of the Constitution, to be designated as section four, as follows: "Section 4. Whenever any of the qualified electors of this Commonwealth shall be in any actual military service, under a requisition from the President of the United States, or by the authority of this Commonwealth, such electors may exercise the right of suffrage in all elections by the citizens, under such regulations as are or shall be prescribed by law as fully and effectually as if they were present at their usual places of election."

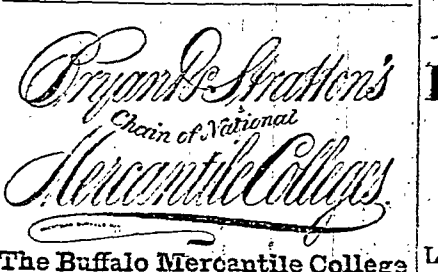

There shall be two additional sections to the eleventh article of the Constitution, to be designated as sections eight and nine as follows: "Section 8. No bill shall be passed by the Legislature containing more than one subject, which shall be clearly expressed in the title, except appropriation bills. "Section 9. No bill shall be passed by the Legislature granting any powers or privileges in any case where the authority to grant such powers or privileges has been or may hereafter be conferred upon the Courts of this Commonwealth."

JOHN CESSNA, Speaker of the House of Representatives. JOHN P. PENNY, Speaker of the Senate.

Office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, Harrisburg, July 1, 1863. PENNSYLVANIA, SS: I do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of the original Joint Resolution of the General Assembly, entitled "A Joint Resolution proposing certain Amendments to the Constitution," as the same remains on file in this office.

In Testimony Whereof I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the Secretary's office to be affixed, the day and year above written. ELI SLIFER, Secretary of the Commonwealth.
