

Local and General.

Gold is 23 cts. premium in New York.

Col. C. B. Curtis has resigned his commission in the 58th Pennsylvania Regt.

Some of the emergency men have returned.

The publication of the JOURNAL was unavoidably delayed one day this week.

Hugh Young is Quartermaster of the 35th Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteer Militia.

It is reported that Capt. Overton has been removed from Washington to his home in Towanda.

The DRAFT.—The day for the commencement of the draft in this district is not yet decided.

Godey for August, is on our table, filled, as usual, with much that will interest the Ladies. Its value increases with its age. No lady should be without it.

We notice items in different papers throughout the State making mention of how far the reports of the cannon at Gettysburg were heard. We have been told that it was heard in different parts of this county, quite distinctly.

OPPOSING CONSCRIPTION.—The rioters in New York professed to be opposing conscription; but they went to shops where men were peaceably working, and forced them to fall into their ranks under penalty of being pounded to death.

Persons who can claim exemption from the present Draft, will find the proper forms in another column. The blank places are for the names and dates. No one can claim exemption under the $300 clause after presenting himself for examination.

BLANK CARTRIDGES.—Col. O'Brien fired blank cartridges at the traitor mob in New York, and they hung him with a real rope. If he had used grape and canister, they would have respected the argument. Treason and mobs are not to be soothed or frightened by mere sound.

The cause of the Union, says the Buffalo Express, is the cause of peace, of civilization, and of liberty. The cause of the rebellion is the cause of war, of barbarism, and of tyranny. Let all who prefer peace and civilization and liberty, to war and barbarism and tyranny, work and pray that the Union cause may speedily triumph.

T. Jefferson Boyer, of Clearfield, the man who figured so honorably (?) in the last United States Senatorial election, was making a copperhead speech the other day, when some young ladies, being mortified at his being permitted by the sterner sex to vent his treason in a Free State, treated him to a dose of "rotten eggs." He has had them bound over to court.

People of this county should not believe any of the reports in reference to the draft when it will take place. How many to be drafted, or how it is done—as to one in the county will be likely to know anything about it until it has been drawn. The foolish stories circulated are merely intended to excite the people.

IN CANADA.—The Confederate Government connived at the escape of Villandigham to Canada. The question arises: Why do they not connive at the escape of the correspondents of the N. Y. TRIBUNE, now in Libby prison? The answer is plain: Val would aid their cause, while the correspondents would not. Val was traitor, the others were loyal. Comment is unnecessary.

A correspondent writing from Gettysburg, under date of July 11, says that Almond M. Chesbro died about 10 o'clock p.m. of the 10th inst., and was buried on the field. His grave has been marked so that his friends will be able to find his body. He was a generous hearted boy and a brave soldier. He was shot through both legs, lay on the field two days before he could be brought off, and finally, after being taken to the Hospital, bled to death. His funeral sermon will be preached in the Homer School House, on Sunday, August 9th, at 2 o'clock p. m.

His brother, Capt. Dennis H. Chesbro, was also in the battle, but escaped unhurt.

Perhaps at no time since the war began has there been a greater demand for Hospital Supplies than at present, and while vigorous efforts are making in the North to meet this demand, earnest calls are still being made by the Sanitary Commission, coupled with assurances that the wounded and sick are still suffering for lack of the many delicacies within our reach. The ladies of this place and vicinity deserve great credit for the quantity and quality of the supplies they have sent. From resources that some might have considered hopeless they have drawn generous supplies. They merit the thanks of all. There is an urgent call at the present time for Bedquits, Sheets, Towels, Lint, Stockings, Yarn, Berries, &c., &c. Our friends in the country have not been very active lately; indeed, scarcely anything has been sent in. Now, we do not believe they have failed for lack of interest in the cause or for want of desire to assist, but because they were somewhat removed from the Headquarters of the Society; and did not happen to think of it when coming to the village. This should not be so. We have a common interest and a common cause. All should feel it their duty to assist. Let our friends in the country think of this.

The following is the list of articles contained in the Boxes sent July 10, to United States Sanitary Commission, Philadelphia Agency:

2 dozen deep pillows, 7 dozen hog rings, 3 feather pillows, 13 cotton pillows; 4 pairs socks, 3 flannel shirts, 7 new cotton shirts, 6 old cotton shirts 5/2 dozen cotton handkerchiefs, 3 dozen linen handkerchiefs, 4 calico wrappers, 13 towels, 4 pieces old flannel, 1 box lint, 4 pairs slippers, 4 old linen tablecloths, 4 rolls old linen, 4 rolls old cotton, 1 pair old sheets, 13 rolls bandages, all widths, 3 pairs cotton flannel drawers, 3 quarts dried raspberries, 3 quarts dried blackberries, 122 pounds dried apples, 2 bottles blackberry cordial, 1 bottle currant wine, 6 cans gooseberry jelly, 1 glass currant jelly, 2 cans gooseberries.

DEAD:

In Hebron, June 28, 1863, of malignant Scarlet Fever, SARAH ARELLA, only child of Stephen P. and Mary A. Reynolds, aged 7 years, 4 months and 23 days.

Thou art gone, and we are lonely,

But we know thou'rt happy now

With the angels, ever singing,

With a crown upon thy brow.

This we know: God means to teach us,—

While we bear affliction's smart—

Where our treasure has been taken

We should follow with our heart.

Then, our weary journey ended,

We shall meet thee, gentle one,

To enjoy thy presence ever,

In that bright and happy home.
