

UNION STATE TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR,
ANDREW G. CURTIN,
Of Bellefonte.

FOR JUDGE OF SUPREME COURT,
DANIEL AGNEW,
Of Beaver County.

UNION COUNTY TICKET.

FOR ASSEMBLYMEN,
JOHN W. GUERNEY, of Tioga.
ARTHUR G. OLMSTED, of Potter.

FOR PROTHONOTARY,
HENRY J. OLMSTED, Coudersport.

FOR COMMISSIONER,
R. L. NICHOLS, Sharon Tp.

FOR REGISTRAR AND RECORDER,
DAN BAKER, Coudersport.

FOR ADDITOR,
S. H. MARTIN, Pike Tp.

News from the southern part of the State is cheering. Let the "Northern Tier" roll up a majority for the Union that will send Copperheads back into their holes nevermore to disturb the peace of our noble old Keystone with their hisses.

Remember, loyal men! our ticket is: ANDREW G. CURTIN and DANIEL AGNEW! Vote no ticket that does not compare with the one at the head of our paper. It is the only loyal ticket in the field. See that your neighbors vote the right ticket.

Beware of cards on election day. The last gasps of dying treason. The copperheads have money and will use it. Jeff. Davis and John Bull have opened their coffers upon Pennsylvania. If we but do our duty, their slims will have been expended in vain. It is only by hard labor that great ends are gained. See to it that the labor is freely given. Remember the 13th of October. Give one day to your country! A ballot against treason is as good as a bullet in a Rebel heart.

The Copperheads will lie like their father, the Devil. They will cheat when they can not influence with argument. They have staked their reputation upon the result of this election. If they are defeated, they will stand before the people with the brand of Judas Iscariot, Benedict Arnold and James Buchanan upon their foreheads. Watch them! They perform their work in the dark because their deeds are evil. Select some sharp man with a good club to watch the snakes as they creep from their holes. Give them such blows as Ben. Butler, Judge Knox, and every loyal Democrat in the State is giving them.

Remember!

Elections are the index to the popular heart. Let the index in Pennsylvania be as bright as the "News from Maine." Democrats, you who are loyal, remember that on next Tuesday it is not a question of party that is to be decided, but a question of loyalty. See to it that you vote right!

Republicans, give one more day to your country. Work, work earnestly and nobly, and a glorious victory will be yours!

Democrats and Republicans; Republicans and Democrats, join hands for the country and see to it that copperheadism and the more open treason is rebuked by a free people.

The Habeas Corpus.

Hon. Thurlow Weed, who some time since left the Republican party because Greeley and Seward was in it, writes to the Albany Journal the following pertinent approval of the writ of habeas corpus by the President. Let every honest Democrat; every man who has any claims to loyalty, read those cool words of a clear-headed man: "The President has, by Proclamation suspended the writ of Habeas Corpus. This, though a necessity in some portions of the country, and elsewhere perfectly harmless, will be made the occasion for renewed and vehement exhibitions of political hostility. The Atlas of yesterday announces it as a suspension of the Writ of Liberty. This proclamation, even while so more than one Judge McCune exists, is as needful as it was in New Orleans, where there was a Judge Hall and a General Jackson. None but enemies have anything to fear from it. But if it were otherwise—if, in isolated cases, this Power should be abused it is better that an individual should be wronged than that the Government and Union should be endangered. "This proclamation will strengthen the Government and weaken its enemies; and those who, for political effect, choose to re-assert the folly of the Federalists, will find themselves after the Rebellion has been put down, where the Federalists were after the war of 1812, compelled to disband—the leaders either seeking protection from popular indignation with healthier political organizations, or, in retirement and obscurity, invoking the forgiveness of their countrymen."

Hon. Thomas Cunningham, of Beaver county, long the leader of the Democratic party in that county, and a delegate and one of the vice presidents of the Charleston Convention, has avowed himself in favor of the Union ticket. He delivered an eloquent and powerful speech in Washington on Saturday, and will continue to speak until the election. In the course of his speech on Saturday he stated that last fall he had a conversation with Judge Woodward, in Pittsburgh, in reference to the war and condition of the country. As a political friend and Judge of the Supreme Court he wished to have the benefit of the opinion of Judge Woodward, and therefore asked him for it. Judge Woodward stated that, in his judgment, our only course was to withdraw all our armies north of Mason and Dixon's line, and offer terms to the rebel States! This statement, from a gentleman of the highest character, has produced a profound sensation in that city, where Judge Cunningham if well known.

Rep. Union maj. in Maine, 18,500. It staggers the Cops. The leaders see they are floored, and are growing desperate, wild, and reckless with the prospect, but still try to fool their followers—"Sings in working," boys! let the snakes hiss and squirm; the frosts of October and November will send them to their dens, silent and fagless.

Brownlow's Knoxville Whig & Rebel Ventilator.

I propose to publish a weekly and tri-weekly journal, bearing the above title, at Knoxville, in East Tennessee; and the weekly paper, made up from the contents of the tri-weeklies, I propose to send out to distant subscribers for $2, per annum, invariably in advance. Subscriptions and remittances will be forwarded to me at Cincinnati, from which point I expect to ship my paper and materials.

I expect to issue the first number in October, as it was in that month, two years ago, my paper was crushed out by the God forsaken mob at Knoxville, called the Confederate authorities. I will commence with this "hell-bound rebellion" where the traitors forced me to leave off, and all who wish the paper would do well to begin with the first issue, as I intend that single paper shall be worth the subscription price to any unconditional Union man.

In the rule of my editorial conduct I shall abjure that servility which destroys the independence of the Press, and cast from me that fawning opposition which gives to party what is due to country.

And whilst the name of my journal indicates, in unmistakable terms, its politics I shall as a faithful servant, forget Whigs, Democrats, Know Nothings and Republicans, and remember only my Government, and the preservation of the Federal Union—as richly worth all the sacrifices of blood and treasure their preservation may cost—even to the extermination of the present race of men, and the consumption of all the means of the present age!

Publishers inserting this Prospectus once, prominently, and sending me the paper to Cincinnati, Ohio, will be favored with an exchange.

W. G. BROWNLOW.

September 8, 1863.

Signs Show.

One of the Democratic nominees for Assembly, in Allegheny county, Penn'a, is stamping it for Curtin.

Blair county gave Curtin 789 in 1860, and now promises 1,000.

Riddle Roberts and C. H. Shriner, two of the Democratic speakers in Lewisburg in 1860, are now laboring for Curtin.

In 1860, Curtin had 6 majority in Selinsgrove, and will now have say 75.

Wm. E. Lehman, the only Democratic Congressman from Philadelphia in 1860, is out for Curtin, with Forney, Brewster, Brown, and thousands of men who voted for Foster.

Sunbury gave 11 majority against Curtin in 1860. It will now give him 150 to 200 majority.

Even "Bickhard's dog's" master, who "barked" for Foster in 1860, is now said to be "loud-mouthed" for all the Union candidates, "double skulls" included!

Capt. Harry Foster has accepted the Union nomination for Assembly in Centre county, entirely unexpected as it was, and 375 men of the county at once endorsed him, and by a publication signed by their own hands urge his election as a supporter of the State and National Administrations. Most of these soldiers call themselves Union Democrats. Copperheads are awful scarce among them!

Norristown gave 800 maj. for Foster—will now give Curtin 50 to 100 maj.

Col. Wm. H. Blair—Dem. candidate for Senate in this district, two years ago—is on the stump for the Union in Centre county, as he has been in the field for the same cause.

We are informed that Col. Fisher (Dem.) of the Pa. Reserves, spoke last week in Chester, in favor of Curtin.

Francis J. Grund, recently editor of the Philadelphia "Age," now a Copper head paper, addressed the Germans of Philadelphia upon the Administration, and voting for the Union State nominations.

The Boll and Everett men who voted for Foster in 1860, nearly all support Curtin in 1863.

We see it stated that Col. McDowell, not long since one of the editors of the Harrisburg "Union," is announced to speak for Curtin in Beaver county. In some places, we admit, the absence of soldiers will reduce the vote for Curtin, but his aggregate majority is likely to be increased.

The Bucktails Forever.

CHERRY CREEK, Pa., Sept. 23, 1863.

FRIEND CURTIN:—As you may be anxious to know something of the political preference of as much of the army as possible, I give you the vote of the Bucktail Regiment, as taken yesterday. It is believed that each man had as fair a chance to express his preference, as he could have had even at home, and at the polls. The vote was taken by companies, as follows, viz:

Company A,	Curtin 22,	Woodward,	0
" B,	" 27,	" "	2

I have heard of elections in other parts of the Reserve Corps, which show about the same state of feeling.—S. A. MACK, in Tioga Agitator.

The following spicy letters passed last month between a father and son in Montour county, Penn'a. It shows how real war makes Democratic youth enlarge their minds and hearts above old, dead fogey partisans. There are thousands of soldiers writing home like this spirited and patriotic youth:

LIMESTONEVILLE, Sept. 3, 1863.

DEAR SON * * * You spoke about the draft—you hoped the draft would fetch all the Copperheads. I did not think that I had a son, that thought a Nigger as good as himself. I suppose you will come home some of these days with a bigger wench for a wife. The term copperhead is meant for Democrats. Your father is a Democrat and so was your Grandfather. I am surprised that you are turned so easily. I will here send you stamps, but do not wish for the Democrats to be drafted or copperheads as you call us. * * * Your father, J.

THE REPLY.

CAMP NEAR PORTER'S FORD, Va., Sept. 9, 1863.

FATHER: Your traitorous letter was duly received, and were it not that you are my father, I would not condescend so low as to answer it. I hope, however, it will be the last. I do not wish to have any correspondence with father or relation, friend or foe, that writes such letters to Soldiers. Are you not ashamed of yourself for sending such a letter to a son who has been in the service for two years, and who intends, Negro or no Negro, to stand as long as there is a traitor to face that is in arms? I was not aware when I wrote my last letter, that you was a copperhead. I thought you had more good sense than to oppose a Government that has done so much for you. I will not attempt to argue with you, but will give you a little wholesome advice.—Never again send such a letter to any person. Discard those rascally stories of Limestoneville. Never, with such principles as you now have, come among Union Soldiers, or the worst of traitors will be yours. If you cannot write words of cheer and comfort to me or any other Union Soldier, for God's sake don't write, and if I again hear of your copperhead movements I shall openly show you, and not recognize you as a father or a relation, and consider you a disgrace to the name. My love to Mother.

Your Union-loving, Government-supporting son,
Comment is unnecessary.

Gov. CURTIN, notwithstanding the war, has paid nearly a million dollars of our State debt. Justice Woodward, by assuming the rebel debt, would more than double our present taxes. This fact, now a chapter in the history of as glorious and as just an administration as ever directed the official affairs of the State of Pennsylvania, now annoys our copperhead opponents excoecingly. And yet Gov. Curtin, by the wise policy of his administration—by his thrift and economy—by the statesmanship with which he has guided the State Government, has enabled the proper agents of the Commonwealth to reduce the State debt nearly a million of dollars. The fact is on the record, and the result is too immense to be affected by loco-foco lying.

What has Judge Woodward ever done to help put down the rebellion?—Who can point to a single act of his that has had for its object the preservation of the Union? What assurance have the people of Pennsylvania that he if elected Governor, will not resist the National Government, and thus help the traitors to the extent of his power? Answer these questions calmly and thoughtfully, and decide whether you are willing to vote for such a candidate.

It appears that, in Northumberland county, a lady may not only be kicked with impunity, for uttering Union sentiments, but the sex is also liable to excommunication from the Church for the exercise of "free speech." This remark is suggested by the information we have received, that on last Sunday a young lady of Milton was publicly "read out" of church, for calling the preacher a Copperhead. The bull of excommunicating the young lady, was fulminated from the pulpit by the exasperated shepherd. We don't know which most to admire in this reverend gentleman—his clerical dignity, or his christian charity. In the matter of gallantry he might answer as a model.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

Hear a War Democrat.

In a letter just published, written by D. S. Dickenson, of New York, declining a re-nomination for the office of Attorney-General of the State, he says:

"The rebellion has received its death blow. It has little power for mischief, save in its spasmodic struggles as it gasps out its ignoble existence. It may, by galvanic application from its friends in the loyal States, once or twice rise to its feet and stagger on a little further, but this will rather hasten than postpone the hour of its final dissolution. As it passes away, and the law is preparing its halbers and dungeons, and banishments for conspiring leaders, let us pray for the forgiveness of the deluded masses who have been cheated or driven into this wholesale murder to minister to the unholy ambition of some of the most fiendish monsters who ever desecrated earth! As for the mole-eyed politicians amongst us whose poverty of intellect has not enabled them to comprehend the magnitude of the crisis, when they shall cease to encourage the murderers of our sons and brothers, let us endure their exhibitions and the ebullitions of their spite without murmur, and in sheer pity measure out to them, as an antidote for their ineffectual virus, that scorn which is made most emphatic by expressive silence.

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted by the officers and men of the 150th and 149th Penn'a Regiments with a request that each officer should send a copy to the publisher of the paper in the county which he is from. This is simply repeating what has become the plainest truth, that were the soldiers at home they would all, or nearly so, vote for CURTIN. In the 5th and 10th Penn'a Reserves they took a vote with this result: Curtin, 693; Woodward, 21. Let the friends of these brave boys remember this fact: The Soldier's Candidate is ANDREW G. CURTIN.

Voice of the Bucktails.

Resolved, 1st. That we deem it the sacred duty of every loyal citizen who desires the preservation of our National integrity and honor, and the establishment of enduring peace and prosperity, to support, by their suffrages, no person who has not declared himself unconditionally for the War. That Gov. Curtin, by his untiring efforts to aid in crushing the Rebellion, and his attention to the wants of Penn'a Soldiers, has proved himself, in patriotism and ability, second to none in the land.

2. That while we contend with armed foes in our front, we appeal to our friends at home to take warning by the fate of New York with her Copperhead Governor and accompanying mobs and, laying aside all partisan feeling and prejudices, to act for the good of the country.

3. That no citizen can give a clearer proof of devotion to his country and appreciation of good Government, than the soldier who offers his life to defend it. That Judge Woodward, by his decision in disfranchising the soldier, has forfeited our confidence.

4. That our national interests demand that our Executive who has the organization of our State forces in his power, should be familiar with the interests of the service, and that it would be a sad calamity to entrust the Administration of our State Government to a person of doubtful patriotism and loyalty.

5. That as the election of a man, avowedly opposed to the war, for Governor of our State, would encourage the enemies of our country, we earnestly appeal to our friends in Penn'a to put forth every effort to elect an able statesman, a true patriot, the soldier's friend; by rallying unitedly to the standard of FREEDOM, UNION, and ANDREW G. CURTIN.

RICH SCENE ON A RAILROAD TRAIN.

An affair worthy of notice occurred yesterday on the train between Baltimore and Elmira. A number of soldiers were on board the train. Two of them wore blouses of a different color from those worn by the rest. An old copperhead on the train notified this, and supposed them to be "South'n brethern." He approached them, and entered into a conversation, methinks like the following: Copperhead—"You gentlemen do not belong to this party of soldiers?" Soldiers—"No sir." Copperhead—"Do you belong to the Southern Confederacy?" Soldiers—"Yes sir." Copperhead—"Have you any money?" Soldiers—"No sir." Copperhead—"Have you no Confederate money?" Soldiers—"No sir; we lost everything when captured by the Yankees." Copperhead—"Giving each of them a five dollar bill." "It's a pity that gentleman engaged in a good cause should be robbed of everything." After this generous act on the part of the old man, he asked, "What State in the Confederacy do you belong to?" Soldiers—"From the State of Maine!" Copperhead—"Simmered down," and left the train before it had fairly stopped at Hanover Junction.—Elmira Press.

"If posterity condemns me, it will be because I did not hang John C. Calhoun as a traitor. They may condemn me more for this than any other act of my administration." ANDREW JACKSON.

"I think this time not unlikely to come when I shall be blamed for having made the few arrears, rather than too many." ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

EUREKA!

"I HAVE FOUND IT!"

Was the exclamation of the Astronomer who first discovered that the world moved in its orbit; not less joyous has been the exclamation of those who have found THE PLACE where GOODS can be purchased FIFTEEN or TWENTY PER CENT. below the market price, and yet find them as represented. Two things are to be considered in purchasing Goods: the Quality and the Price; and purchasers studying both, can be better satisfied with our stock than any other in this or adjoining counties. Think twice before buying "DEAR TRASH." Now is your time to procure a GOOD ARTICLE. "Delays are dangerous and sometimes fatal." Don't wait for another enormous advance in Goods.
