The New York World declares that if the "Democrats" of Maine had concealed their real sentiments...

The confederate Gen. Walker, who was lately wounded in a duel in Arkansas, with Gen. Marmaduke, has since died.

The lady who lost her eyesight by reading a borrowed paper, has recovered it since she became a subscriber.

The Douglas Democrats of Berks county have come out for the Union ticket, which the soldiers of all former stripes are backing up with great effect.

The Utica Observer says that Jabez Halleck, of Oneida county, N. Y., grandfather of Major-General Halleck, died on the 17th inst., at the extraordinary age of one hundred and three years.

Mr. Tillotson brought us, last week, a hemp stalk, measuring 10 feet in length. We wonder what "Jeff" and the little "Adeff" will say about this luxuriant growth of hemp. One stalk would be sufficient to dispose of the carcass of some of the "lesser lights."

Michael Burke, long time a leading man among the Democratic Irishmen of Harrisburg, we see it stated, has resolved to support no man for office who would suit Jeff Davis, and hence opposes Woodward and supports Curtin.

In Harrisburg whiskey has in the brief space of three days sent three men into drunkard's graves, through grog-shops, via the railroads. The employees of the roads are clear of all blame. In neither case could they prevent the accident.

The latest style of hoop-skirts is the adjusting, double back action, buste-trucan, face exterior, Piccolomini attachment, gossamer, indestructible, poliochromatable. It is a very sweet thing.—Ex.

We are informed one lady told Judge Woodward she hoped he would be elected, so that her husband need not be drafted, and he had not the honesty to tell her the Governor of Penn'h had no power over the draft. His election will be more apt to cause than to prevent future drafts.

The Erie Gazette gives the vote of Col. Brown's regiment, the 46th, for Governor, as taken on the 5th inst., and certified by the Major, Adjutant, and a Capt., it stood, Curtin 15, Woodward 4. Enlisted men, Curtin 171, Woodward 4. Total, Curtin 186, Woodward 4.

Bishop Potter and 77 other Protestant Episcopal Clergymen of Phila., have published an indignant reprobation of a copperhead electioneering document in defence of Slavery, by a Bishop Hopkins, of Vermont. They consider it very derogatory to the church—and to the cause of Christ—and as an effort to establish a Nation upon the principle of perpetual bondage of the African.

Any information as to the whereabouts of one Catharine Hastings, who left Wellsboro on the 10th of August last, will be thankfully received by Messrs. Conners, or her mother, Mrs. Catharine Hastings. Said girl is about 12 years old, of light complexion, little freckled, has black eyes, and brown hair; had on when she left a dark colored flat, reddish dress with a small green figure, and a black silk shawl. Any person who will return said child to either of the above named persons, or give information as to where she may be found, will be liberally rewarded.—Ex.

As there may be some doubts among Judges of Election as to the rights of soldiers to vote at their own election districts without being in the district ten days previous to the Election, we extract the following from Judge Woodward's opinion, in the case of Chase vs. Miller 5 Wright, 423: "When a soldier returns to his election district, he resumes all the civil rights of citizenship, and, his residence being discontinued by his temporary absence, he has a right to vote on election day."

UNION MEETINGS. There will be speeches made at the following places at the times stated. Let all the friends of the Government attend! Let Union Democrats add their voices to the loyal decree that is to be made perfect by the votes of Pennsylvania's freemen. Let every man, be his past politics what they may, unite in the work of crushing the rebellion and repuking the treason of copperheads: Bingham Centre, Wednesday Eve'g, Oct. 7th. Ulysses, Thursday Evening, Oct. 8th. Harrison Valley, Friday Evening, Oct. 9th. Sandorville, Saturday evening, Oct. 10th. Several speakers will be present at each of these meetings. Other meetings will soon be appointed through the county.

The other day while Mrs. Norman Perry was doing her ironing in her back kitchen her dress took fire from a spark near her waist. As soon as she discovered it she went into the house to lay down and endeavor to extinguish the fire, by rolling herself on the carpet, falling in this, and fearing she might set the house on fire, she rushed out of doors and tied in vain to put it out by rolling on the grass. But before help arrived her body was completely consumed and her body was literally burned to a crisp, and in one or two places to the bone. This (Thursday) morning at 5 o'clock, she died. Mrs. P. leaves a husband and three children to mourn her terrible death—one a soldier in the army.—Wellsboro Press.

Provost Marshal General Fry has decided that a man who is under obligation to perform military duty on his own account, cannot be received as a substitute for another. Also, that if the Board of Enrollment has been imposed upon, and has granted a certificate of exemption because of a substitute furnished who proves to be a deserter, or one already in the military service, the board should, after notice to the party proceed to reconsider its action and should set aside the former judgment, and annul the certificate of exemption granted. The certificate of exemption having been vacated, the party's original liability under the draft remains. From this it will be seen that the party furnishing a substitute has to take all the risk of his own substitute having been in fact in the service at the time he is accepted as a substitute.

Capt. White has issued the following order: "Deputy Provost Marshal will give desecrators from Parole Camp until the 15th of October to return to duty. By doing so they will not be treated as deserters." The friends of such soldiers will please notify them. A reward of Thirty Dollars will be paid for the apprehension, arrest, and delivery to Provost Marshals of Deserter. Any person has authority to arrest a deserter.

About fifty soldiers, from the Hospitals came into the county last week in time to vote. The copperheads look "blue." They said the soldiers were all on their side—but some how or other the soldiers that are on their side are too far south to vote in the Northern States. Every regiment that has taken a vote has given all its votes, save perhaps a vote of every 100, to Curtin, the "Soldier's Friend."

Our friend, Mr. Conway, of Abbott tp., has sent us a specimen of his apples—large, solid, smooth and finely flavored, their possession must be decidedly gratifying. Capt. Jones has shown us an apple picked from a tree in his yard that weighed 14 ozs. But Capt. Kinney beats them all! He has presented us a specimen of his apples that really surprises us. One weighs 1 1/2 ounces, and four together weigh 3 pounds 7 ounces. And now, we can not see why, with these evidences of the success of fruit raising in this county, our farmers and land holders do not strive more to cultivate it. We feel certain if they could only see our table they would surely make the effort. Will they think of this and speedily make amends for their past negligence.

THE OLD GUARD OF OSWAYO.

EDITOR JOURNAL: I send you the names of the Old Guard of Oswayo who voted for, supported and approved of the administration of Andrew Jackson. The Old Guard would follow any leader, be it Andrew Jackson or Abraham Lincoln, for the salvation of their country. They will all march to the ballot-box next week, and there deposit a vote for Andrew G. Curtin for Governor of the State of Pennsylvania; and should that time arrive as predicted by Frank Pierce in his famous letter to Jeff Davis, then will the Old Guard be ready and willing to use the cartridge-box. H. H. M. Franklin Gale, Lemuel Lovell, John Davis, Jacob Beckow, Gardner West, Thos. West, Jerome Chesbro, H. H. Munson, Joel Haskins, William Shattock, Nathan Goodenoe, Nathan Goff, Calvin Stillson, Orson Abbot, Wm. Lockwood.

Col. Dwight sends us the resolutions of the 149th, published in another column, with the hope that they may influence some friend of the soldier's to vote right. The following quotation is from the Philadelphia Press: "The resolutions were unanimously adopted on the 19th September, 1863, by the 149th and 150th Regiments Pennsylvania Volunteers, having been submitted separately to each company in both regiments, and meeting the unanimous approval of each. These regiments, it will be remembered, fought with distinguished valor at Gettysburg. They were in the 1st Corps, under the command of the lamented Reynolds, and suffered terribly in the battle of the 1st of July, losing two-thirds of their officers and men, killed and wounded, before giving ground, and then yielding their position when the whole line was ordered to fall back. Notwithstanding their fearful losses, these regiments presented an unbroken front in the battles of the 2d and 3d of July, and assisted handsomely in the final repulse of the enemy on the latter day. They are now in the front of the Army of the Potomac, near Gettysburg, eager to encounter their country's open foes with bullet and bayonet, and now appeal to their friends at home not to allow our brave army to suffer from a fire in the rear."

Last night some of the copperheads who are ashamed to ventilate their treason in daylight, distributed documents upon the door-steps of loyal citizens. It may be consulting to these blue-lights to know that a proper disposition of the papers was immediately determined upon. The contents of the pamphlets and the method taken to distribute are of the same color. Always blaming Republicans with having upon the "Nigger" they exhibit their consistency by rehanging all the state negro slang of the past and the present, cursing President Lincoln and his supporters and praising Jeff. Davis and the rebels, and finishing up, as every rattle-brained, shallow-pated, foul-mouthed copperhead in the country always does, with the "Bible Verse of Slavery," just as though a traitor dared read a Book that contains the history of Judas Iscariot! A successful copperhead politician could win an "estampé" Five Points and Mack-raville, as generally supposed to be devoid of any knowledge of the principle, "do unto others as you would have others do unto you." Treason and Whiskey, Slavery and Adultery, Copperheadism and Woodward, are the hand-in-hand devils that would sink Patriotism, Nationality, Freedom, and Morality, into the gloom of the dark ages. But, thank Heaven! that day has not yet come.

We heard, the other day, that one of the respectable members of the ticket nominated by the self-appointed committee of six copperheads, "red and white," was not present at the time the nomination was fixed and when apprised of the part he was expected to play, exclaimed: "Oh, no! I can't run. I'm out of politics now." Intimating that he was ashamed to be on a ticket with men who are avowedly against the Government, and the idea of being placed upon the record as opposed to the War was decidedly repugnant to him. We are sorry to hear by any of the Tory sheet in Wellsboro, that he was induced to let his name remain on said ticket. The dark-jantern party having found the "old knight" foolish enough to supply his agents in this county with a little money they think it best to make some show of spending it. A word more about this ticket; it was christened by one of the "little-headed-big-bellied knights" "Disorganizer." They have on it the brother of the man who says he can "control" Potter county; this controlling agent is to be extended to the whole ticket, its property arm, are to encircle it about and assist in gathering in votes from those who are "on the fence" and who, were it not for this ticket and these "arms," would in the end vote for the Right. Let our friends remember this, and watch the "arms" (1). Another thing on this "disorganizer" is something that said it would "go out" from the Union Convention if a couple of resolutions in favor of sustaining the Government were passed. They passed, but it was too ignorant to know it and so remained in the Convention. This thing wants to go to the Legislature, but as he has 4000 majority against him there is not much need of discussing his merits or demerits—Our friends will remember that it is simply unjust to give our nominees a cordial, hearty and unanimous support. They are, every one of them, intelligent, honest and capable, loyal and true, every honest man will give them his support.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS! Are not a new and untried article, but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American public; and their reputation and sale, are not rivaled by any similar preparation.

The proprietors have thousands of Letters from the most eminent CLERGYMEN, LAWYERS, PHYSICIANS, and CITIZENS. Testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS! AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS. We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS" will cure every kind of disease induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters." PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 23, 1863. Messrs. JONES & EVANS.—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouchsafed for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully conversant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Capt. R. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the Steamer "State of Maine," from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again. I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under such circumstances; and, accordingly the physicians who had been working faithfully, tho' unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinborn, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To you, invaluable Bitters, I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life. Very truly yours, A. C. MANNING. We have occurred in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to health. John Cuddeback, 1st New York Battery. George A. Ackley, Co. G, 11th Maine. Lewis Chevalier, 92d New York. I. E. Spencer, 1st Artillery, Battery F. J. B. Fawcett, Co. B, 2d Vermont. Henry B. Jerome, Co. B, do. Henry T. Macdonald, Co. C, 6th Maine. Herman Koch, Co. H, 72d New York. Nathaniel B. Thomas, Co. F, 93rd Penn. Andrew J. Kimball, Co. A, 3d Vermont. John Jenkins, Co. B, 106th Penn.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS! See the signature of "C. M. JACKSON" is on the WRAPPER of each bottle. Price per Bottle 75 Cents, or Half Doz for $4.00. Should your nearest druggist not have the article, do not be put off by any of the intemperate preparations that may be offered in its place, but send to us, and we will forward, securely packed, by express. PRINCIPAL OFFICE AND MANUFACTORY No. 631 Arch Street, JONES & EVANS. (Successors to C. M. JACKSON & Co.) PROPRIETORS. FOR sale by Druggists and Dealers in every town in the United States.

Our connection with some of the best jobbing houses in New York will always enable us to sell many goods very much below the market price.

Dry Goods from Jason H. Bookover, Messrs. Claffin, Mellon & Co., New York, also, Haysland, Lindsey & Co., two of the best houses in New York. Clothing from Messrs. Baldwin, Starr & Co., No. 12 Courtland st., also Messrs. Longstreet, Bradford & Co., 348 Broadway. Yankee Notions from J. Henry Smith & Payne, 25 Courtland st. Hardware from Morgan, Quackenbush & Co., 20 Courtland st. Groceries from Mr. Oscar Cheesman, 149 Duane street. Groceries from Messrs. Ahrens & Maize, 235 Washington street. Hat and caps from Miller & Nourse, 208 Broadway. Also Dry Goods from Wm. Crowell & Co., 85 Franklin street, N. Y., who ever have good bargains for all that call upon them. Fall not to call upon us and examine our Goods. Get our prices before purchasing elsewhere.

All jobbers furnished for the trade at New York wholesale prices, and let it be remembered that we are the only firm in the county that has a wholesale license. Hoping to receive an early call, we remain, Yours Respectfully, Wm. Radde, Esq.

C. H. Simmons. Oswayo, August 26, 1863.
