HEAVEN'S REGALIA.

'Twas night ; a Christian lady slept, And dreamed a dream of beaven; She thought within its pearly gates To her was entrance given.

She stood upon the Sea of Glass. Amid the white-robed throng: She walked the golden streets, and sang The everlasting song.

The conquering palm was in her hand, She tasted bliss untold : And on her radiant head she wore A crown of shining gold.

O! clime of glory, no regret, May ever man thy rest; Yet signed the sleeper is she dreamed. She was not wholly blest.

She marked the flashing diadem O'er many a princely brow, Resplendent with the diamond blaze

O'er turquoise fair, and princely pearl; The emerald glory streamed But in her heavenly crown, alas i No radiant jewel beamed.

O! that to grace her coronet One gem she yet might win : "!! O! could she but return to earth, And save one soul from sin.

They were the souls of sinners shown The error of their ways. She woke, and lo! 'twas but a dream: But, in the Rook Divine, She read who in the courts of bliss

For well she knew what jewels gave

These crowns so rich a blaze

Shall first in glory shine: That they who unto righteousness. Do many sinners turn, Like stars in heaven's firmament

For ever more shall burn.
