R MT. Tottel etay จ.พ. เป็นผลัยรดง เลียงรู้ โดยโลดูในต

POTTER JOURNAL H. W. McAlarney, Proprietor: $1.50 se read, invariantly in advance.

" Devoted to the cause of Republicanism, the interests of Agriculture, the advancement of Education, and the best good of Potter, Owning no guile except that of Principle it will an inver to a lin the wirk of more fully freed mixing our Country.

ADVERTISEMENTS inserted at the foll wing

Sach subsequent insertion less than 13. Square three months. - - - - six ... nine Column six months. - - - - - per year. . . . 20 00 Administrator's or Executor's Notice. Buginess Cards, 8 lines or less, per yeaf Special and Editorial Notices, pe. tine.

*All transient advertisements filist paid in advance, and no notice will be taken of advertisements from a distance, unless the are accommanied by the money or satisfactor reference.

tended to promptly and frithfully

BUSINESS CARLOS.

EULALIA LODGE, No. 342, F. A. M. STATED Meetings on the 2nd and 4th Wednesdays of each mo th. Also Wesonic gatherings on every Wednesday Eve ing, for work and practice, at their Hill in Condersport. B. S. COLWELL W. M.

SAMUEL HAVEY, See'y.

JOHN S. MANN. ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW Condersport, Pa., will attend the several Courts in Poster and M'Kean Counties: All business entrusted in his care, will redole prompt attention. Uffice corner of Wesand Third streets.

" ARTHUR G. OLMSTED. VETORNEY M COUNSELLOR AT LAW Condersport, Pa., will attend to all busines entrusted to his care, with promptnes and fide ity. Office on Soth-west corner of Main and Fourth streets ISAAC BENSON STTORNEY AT LAW, Conference, Pa., with attend to all business entrusted to unit, with near the Allegheny Bridge. F. W. KNOX. ATTORNEY AT LAW, Condersnort, Pa., will care and promotness. Office on Second regularly attend the Courts in Potter an the adjoining Counties.

O. T. ELLISON,

PRACTICING PHYSICIAN, Condersport, Pa., respectfully informs the citizens of the village and vicinity that he will prompty respond to all calls for professional services. Office on Main st., in building formerly on cupied by C. W. Ellis, Esq.

C. S & E A JONES. EALERS IN DRUGS, MEDICINES, PAINTS Oils, Fancy Articles, Stationery, Dry Good: Groceries, &c., Main st., Coudersport, Pa. D. E. OLMSTED.

COLLINS SWITH

DEALER in Drv Goods, Groceries. Provisions Hardware, Queensware, Cutlery, and all

Goods usually found in a country Store .-Coudersport, Nov. 27, 1861 COUDERSPORT HOTEL.

J. GLASSWIRE, Proprietor, Corner of Main and Second Streets, Condersport, Pot-

Addivery Stable is also kept in connect

MARK GILLON. the latest and best styles -Prices to suit

the times.—Give him a call. . C. OLWSTED. : . : : : : : : : S. D. KELLY OLMSTED & KELLY, BALER IN STOVES, TIN & SHEET IRON

SPRING MILLS ACADEMY. Spring Mills, Allegany Co., N. Y.

ELIAS HORTON, JR.,. Principal Mrs. ADA WALEER HORTON, Miss Nellie Walker Assistant MISS GPRALDINE WOOD, The Full Term commences August 26. The Winter Term commences December 9 The Spring Term commences March 25.

Inition from Three to Five Dollars. Board $1.50 per week. Furnished rooms for self-boarding at low Prices. For further information address the Princip pei or the un tersigned.

WM. COBB. President-Board-of Trustees

MANHATTAN HOTEL.

NEW YORK. THIS Popular Hotel is situated near the corner of Murray Street and Broadway opposite the Para, within one block pleasant and convenient locations in the city. Board & Rooms $1.50 per day. Lings ON HUGGINS, Proprietor.

Feb. 18th, 1863, 200745777 The Rochester Straw-Cutter.

ESCAPE FROM GUERRILLAS

During the advance of the Army of and every one seemed to be asleep. the Potomac to meet the enemy at Get were ordered to join the main army, in the woods and toads well " order that every available man should Being one of this number, on account of ed to let the horse graze. a recent fever, I was placed in charge of a large amount of a compattion, together horse is loose" with several others from my regiment: The boxes of carridges were piled close together, at Fort Duncan; and our shelter tent pitched to the immediate vicinity

2 00 take the boxes away and which we were turn in the r. ad, and at once mounted. natural that we should feel incusy, for in a gainter. ramors reached us of many guerrillas I had nearly reached Schomon's Gap a chance to steal and destroy. While we were discussing the best means of ank |Sentingle the our escape in case the outlaws gave to unaders, Jones came rushing into our dould small camp, out of breath, and informed us that the "out throats" were close upon Have you got the coulteasign?" us; and that we had not a moment to lose it we wished to make our escape. Renea bering our instructions to burn the hat the flames spread but slowly, I was claimed ! order data return and light the trush on the opposite side. Write so engaged I heard the feet of galloping horses and My companions were gone and I would he alternative bresolved to hide myself

he horses feet. Never shall I to go by emotions wells there, almost suffed by the sanke, and expecting nomentarity be explosion of the a mountain I head the coices of the guerrillas a bey booked at the barning brush. Widen was did they un? exclaited tough voide "They took to the woods"

"Hank; you take a squad and hu-

"Ammunition." was the reply "Well, 'taint no use botherin ; we will look after the stores. Keep guard while we search " I could hear the clanking of the sabres as the sentinels moved, also the crackling of some dry (wigs which had just caught fire. Merciful heavens! I must perish!

My wife! My children! I fainted

It was dark when I regained conscious ness. I could not for a time remember where I was; but, by degrees, I recalled TALOR—nearly opposite the Court House—the circumstances which surrounded me, will make all clothes intrusted to him in and began to think of some way to escape. With great caution I moved to the edge of the pile. The night was still, and the moon an hour high I could detect horses fied to the trees, and judged that the guerrillas were bivouncing in WARE, Main st., nearly opposite the Court that the guerrilles were bivouncing in House, Coudersport, Pa. Tin and Shew the woods This belief being confirmed fron Ware made to order in good style, do by the expiring embers of fires, and an occasional groon, like that of a restless sank, I would steal away, and I use to fortune for escape At last the moment came for my at tempt. I crawled from my place of con Teacher of Music cealment, and rolled my-elf caution-ly toward some high grass. Here I lay tor, a few moments to listen. I could observe that the fire we had kindled had and corched. The boxes of hard bread every corner of the room : had been backen and removed, and the indesiry with which the ransacking had been done, showed the perpetrators' tkill lu devastation

"Who goes there !" growled a liusky voice -I was motionless. Presently a horse, guish flie word weich was evidenally their countersign His horse turned his head ioward me and shied. . .

exclaimed the horseman; and kicking his seized the boy by the collar Jan ping Commission, The Slaveholders' rebellion the rebels to hold on to Vicksburg, dehorse, he passed on a short distance, and away and dumping the chips at his feet, has made him a confirmed Abilitionia, claring that the success of his party in

After some conversation, which i could partially overhear, their voices ceased.

"If I could only get that horse," I mutty-burg the troops at Harper's Ferri tered to maself, "I could e-cape, knowing

With the caution of an Indian I rolled add to its strength. The harried move import towards the horse. He watched ment made it necessary to leave a large me, and seemed alarmed, but did not circumstances: A small guard was de fully, gradually slipped the rein off the tailed to profest it; with men being se stump. Rolling over gently, I drew the lected from those must able to march " horse after me. Every few yards I pans

"Jim," exclaimed the sentry, "joni

A groan was the only response:

· Jom, you tazy fool "D-with beast. He won't go far." I continued to let the horse graze for We watted for a day after the troops some time, and then resumed his gradual to accompany as a guard; but they did Riding over the grass, I kept him on a not arrive. The next day arrived, and fast walk, until I thought his feet would no indication of any wigons. It was but not be neard, when I increased his speed havering in our vicinity and waiting for when I came studenty on a rebel picket. "Who goes there?" challenged the

"Friend;" answered I, as gruffly as "Had! halt! or you are a dead man

· · Ves. "Give it."

The per-piration beaded on my fore pile in case of necessity, we hastily gath head. Suddenly it occurred its me that ered the brush and fence rails from the ir must be the name of one of their lead teluity and see it on fire. Observing ars, and as my case was desperate, I ex-

"kongsitedi".

"Right. Advance."

That I did do so, it is almost unneces saw he butternote dashing tound the sary to say. I continued on up the hill and of the read. The thought of seffantil out of sight, when I took a wood consulting was instantly upperation could, quite indistinct, and seldom traver red I had not gone to before I heard have a cleared space to cross before I the sound of horsemen riding with baste. could reach the woods. Terrible as was After the challenge Leould hear, "Which road did be take?" "The d-d Yan" brong the boxes of a amunition. Find- kee " "Stole a horse " "Hang him !" eg an opening. I wormed myself into the and other exclamations of a similar char> ands of the lawless men. I discounted and taking sook sait from my haversask, I gave some to my blent. orse, to keep him amused and prevent ala from neigrang of I approached the Catechin range. They then began to drag away the which I knew was held by our troops,-"What is it, anyhow?" exclaimed the good one. If I had been a rebei he might Government, how long, think you, could almost unanimously voted in favor of the EALER IN DRY GOODS, READY-MADE first voice, which seemed to be that of have become mine; but as it is our tule, the South sustain itself in this contest? Administration? I next day received an order to "turn him Not long into the quartermaster's department.' need 'ridden by an "wagon master."

A HARD HIT -The scene of the fol named Jones and Arwood ! case a quarrel arose about a certain sidehill line fence. The querie resulted in a law-uit, in which neighbor Jones, hav fellows, proceeded to recruit new armies most tremendous lies on trial, gained the the war through the summer and fact. case. A short time after untice was givto wrke a few remarks on the text - and determination? Brother Jones arose, and commenced his temarks by saying: here tell how much a soul is worth?" Betore he could proceed further,

"I know what one man's soul is worth li's worth just tine rod of side hill !'

His First Prize -Some time since : uperanuated old Commodore was placed man approached and answered, as I tho't, modore "hove in sight" and growled out : the Conto listion, with appropriate cere traitor sheet. of the Hudgon River Rail Road and near the Street "I could not exactly distin- Drop that wood you young rascal! Drop montes, and thinks that some respectable

it. I say " took in your life.

How to Destroy Rebellion.

great importance indeed.

for the destruction of the power which said might be true, but he did not believe organization

when the South resorts to guerrilla war took the bet fare to sustain its failing fortunes, that day will be remembered as the dying day respect the siege of Charleston operates to forward the Union cause But it and Bragg and Lee's armies yet remained he yelled outintact.

The true policy of war, and it is the policy adopted by the Government, is the ground when Moss shouted outdisable the enemy in every considerable way To destroy his armies and material, to shut him up in as small a compass as possible, by cutting off his communica ions with the butside world, and to ini poverish him in men-this is the shortest route to a permanent; peace through the downfall of the rebellion and the destruction of its aiders, directors and abettors.

Perhaps no other mode of disabling the rebellion could have been devised so effective as the proclamation of freedom. to the slaves. The slaves of the south it- hands, arms, legs, and feet.

Valley All day I remained concealed. Vallar dyhan, and all northern rebels, perhead snakes explain one fifet connect admired my horse which was really a Northern public men to tally around the Missouri, being allowed to vote in camp. Conscription bill, will be a dead letter.

For the last eight months of war and and I now uccasionally see my "friend in its attendant horrors, its cast expende tures of blood and treasure these northern rebels are entirely responsible. They lowing incident was in Western N Y in gave their nobler southern coadjutors to t'e town of D and the parties who understand that they would put the coun were the heroes of it are two farmers try against the Government in the sum mer and fal elections, and thus disable Their farms join , and, as is often the the adminis ration of the Government in their efforts to destrot the tebelion -With thi, assurance, Jeff. Davis and his ing (as Atwood claims) swore to the and to devise new modes of prolonging

- What have the fall elections accomease. A short time after notice was given bished? Can we read the news from age gud bore a good character in his coma certain evening in the school nouse. On the seat of war and not see that the rebet pany for interfacence and sobriety. His his discourse—from the text, what shall retiring belove an salvane ? Can any after he reached home a man give in exchange for his his soul?" one point to a single field where the rebet sleeper, I determined, when the moon invited and of those present who wished armies have fought with their old vigor

These northern rebels lied to their "What small a man give for his sorty thing so often before that it is a wonder How much is it worth? Can any one that the dupes remained dopes. That landigham, &c , shows that they were regone out on account of the greenless of tinger pointing to brother Jones said, in never deceive either traitor or true man the wood; but the Boxes were blackened a shrift piping voice which penetrated again; if the friends of freedom and law are vigilant and active. - Agitator, lies behind Richmond, and which upholds the Moss replied that he would bet him and sustains the arms of Jefferson Davis fittents for all the gentlemen present that Without an army, the rebellion cannot be would make ins dog do three things, soldides enlisted, is fast expiring: :but)

> The editor of the Sunbury Guzette colored man would be the most appropri fire.

"Swim Major, swim!" The dog swam, of course. Moss kept could not benefit us one iera if to day we his eyes on the dog. As soon as he perhad Charleston, Richmond and Mobile, ceived that the dog could touch bottom > Wade, Major, wade!" Major wailed till he landed on the Shake yourself, Major, skake your Major shook himself. Most turned to the captain, who with the gentlemen pre-

"There I have won the bet." It is useless, perhaps, to say that the captain paid the treats.

A Point.

litionists" Now, so far as sholitionism and the Union of the United States: 225 We have yet to see or know any man is concerned, the snakes are well convince of thought, not a traitor in deed or that, ed that it is about the first change which They dashed on I agai a parsued thy Too.bs, and Wigfall, and all the traitors is once crushed out, treason and rebellion way By morning I had reached the in arms. So, also, Fernando Wood Ho will be forever at an end in the States of dge of the woods, and was near Pleasant ratio Seymour, Geo. W. Woodward, C. L. the Afferrean Union. But, will our cop-> bout to take a ride in the Hartford horsecars, asked him as he scraubled in: "Why, aren't you going to kiss your nother before you go?" The fittle rogue was in such a harry that he couldn't stop, and hastily called ont-"Conductor, won't you kiss mother for Usras II Hunter, of Co G, 3d Maine regiment, was shot for desertion at the headquarters of the Army of the Potomac on Friday last. He was only 21 years of the profitted evening the neighbors as armies fight with much less tenacity than or it execuse for descring was tout he was crew were subsequently sent ashore in ...

organization at Alexandria on Wedness to make another capture. The Chessisses Southern dupes. They had done that was real, contains an argument, against secession and in tayor of the emancipathey took the words of Woodward, Val tion of all the slaves in the State. He says that heither rebels, paupers nor tel-Before he could proceed further, beautifulant, &c., shows that they were to wish he ve any right to vote, and he denies currently was dispatched in purious it is that the people of Virginia are favorabe by the collector of that port. The steam

The press and type of the late Phila delphia Evening (copperhead) Journal. were sold at Sheriff's sale under a landstates that a gentleman of that place, who the establishment were the press and in charge of one of our navy yards. One during Buchanan's Administration was types. The former brought $575, the day a poor little fellow had just filled Lis appointed Commissioner under the Fugi fatter 101 cts (not quite the price of old basket with chips as the gonty old Com- tive Slave Law of 1850, proposes to burn dictail,) per wound. A fitting end to a

A correspondent says that, in convers-A chase ensued The boy was small ate person to consign it to the flames. He ing recently with Union citizens of Alaand his load was heavy, and presently has reas it to rejoice that he never per- bania, he learned that Vallandigham, "What is the matter with you. Jack?" the old Commodore pulling and blowing, formed any of the duties enjoined in the while in that section, repeatedly exhorted OLESTED & KELLY, Condersport, have dismounted, tied his horse to a stump, and the boy exclaimed and hence his intention to have this relie Onto depended altogether on the ability. The three principal horse at Washing-Union armies beseiging that place.

OLD MOSS AND HIS WONTERFUL DOG. PARTY Suicine. The organs of them The taking of a city is, in itself, a mat - During the summer of 1850, a gentle- Peace Democracy have had much roller or little consequence, considered in its man, by the name of "Old Moss," who recently in condemnation of the duetrings. bearings upon the present struggle But was considerable of a wag, was traveling of "State suicide." Whatever may be the destruction of a well organized and on a steam boat up the Mississippi river the true positiot on this point, they have disciplined army is something of very He had with him an ugly cur that he certainly demonstrated the possibility were called "Major." O'd Moss was scated suicide of another character, viz : porty To take Richard is no longer an ab with a marber of men in the cabin, and suicide. The late elections have clearly ject of the army of the Potomec even if as was usual with him, was beasting of shown them guilty of jelo ile seguend amount of government property to be attempt to break his bridle. On nearing it ever has been If taken at all it will what he could do The captain who was nothing remains but for the people to and-equally disposed of according to him. I found a twig, and raising it care be a simple meident of a campaign made standing near, remarked that what he administer upon the estate of the defunct

The time for which our veteral exist one day. Should the time arrive he folling him to do them: The captain many are te colisting, in consideration of retaining their present organization. sulfor Old Moss then opened the door and the present tides of victory holds; it said went out on the guards, followed by the highly probable nearly all of our veterine? capisin and gentlemen present, who were will re enlist, unless they should happily of the rebellion captain and gentlemen pre-ent, who were will re enlist, unless they should heppily. The siege and bembardment of Charles quite auxious to see the sport. Moss find it unnecessary, owing to the clear of the to makes it necessary for Mr. Davis to seized his dog by the mape of the neck the war. It would be perfectly naturalis had left, expecting the train that was to abstraction. Finally, I drew him to the keep a small acmy there in readiness to and tossed him overboard. As soon as that, having fought thus far gloriottaly. repel any assault by our forces. In that he touched the water, Moss yelled out—through, they should want to be the dies the death" of the infamous rebellion: *******

> An amusing and yet important of the currence took place during the Chattaway ouga battles. Two hundred mules, packed la near Gen. Hooker's line, broke loose, and charged furiously across the field, toward where a Georgia regiment was stationed & Thinking at was cavalry, or somethings else, the regiment broke in confusion andog ran, leaving one thousand Enfield rifler of T the Lest description behind them, whiches sent were convulsed with laughter, and fell into our hands: Who does not love Mules after this, even if they do have how ugly bray !

THE CAMPAIGN OF 1864 -The Ution: ists of New Hampshire have opened there Campaign of 1864 by issuing a call for area Our copperhead belligerents continue State Convention, to be held on the branch to refer to the vote of the soldiers who of January, representing all the People of :2 ern nabobs are their hands and feet as were sent home to exercise the right of the State of New Hampshire; in favorsofter well as the conservators of their false and franchise, as great trands on the election sustaining the National Administration at lying social status. When Mr. Lincoln laws. These beauties of all that is pure in the vigorous and effective prosecution; proclaimed freedom to the slaves of the in polities; insist that the Administration of the war praiost Treason and Rebellione ? rebeliions States; he virtually ordained at Washington sent home to vote; only and of maintaining; at all hazards; die J that t've rebellion should be deprived of such soldiers as were known to be "abo- their original integrity, the Constitutions" who has one word to say against the proc a soldier experiences, after he enters the that after January 1st. 1864, their terms 3 of the of the pile, and strained by ears acter, shouled with wrath and too plainly lamation of freedom. We have yet to army. If he goes in a violent Democrat, of subscription will be two dollars per and the pile and strained by ears acter, shouled with wrath and too plainly lamation of freedom. We have yet to army. If he goes in a violent Democrat, of subscription will be two dollars per and the pile and strained by the pile and the see, or know of, one sympathizer with he is sure to come out a furious aboli num in advance, and two dollars and firty rebellion who has not a vocabulary of thoust. This change is natural, because cents when not paid in advance. They abuse for that great action of the Prest the soldiers are forced to look the slave are right, as it is the conclusion to which holding traitors in the eye, and see and all printers must sooner or later come to; Jefferson Davis hates it and denounces hear the fact that the tebellion is waged unless the price of paper comes down as So does Lee, and Benjamin, and entirely for slavery; and that when slavery well as the price of everything else; to more moderate figures.

Judge Agnew entered upon his ed with the vote of the soldiers. If the on Monday last. He takes the place of Administration sent home only the aboli- Lowred. A majority of the Judges will They then began to drag away the wine I knew was need by our transportant of the soldiers of t There must be concord among traitors, tron soldiers to vote, keeping the demo- now be in favor of sustaining the Govern

> THE HERO OF THE WAR. - Gen. U. S. The mother of a little fellow who was 90,000 prisoners during the Rebellion Grant has captured 472 Cannon and taken a 'arger number than any other one man. He is truly an Unconditional Suffender Grant as the juitials of his name would indicate.

The rebels have perpetrated another bold theft. The steamer Chesapcake, a vessel of about 600 tons burthen, ply ng berween New York and Portland, left the tormer port on Saturday, the 5th just - Tues When off Cape Cod the passengers, sixteen secessionists in disguise; shot the engineers, and placing the captain and crewest in irons, seized the ship as a prize to theza Confederate States. The captain and sembled. The preacher, having finished ever before? Are they not everywhere tred of the service. Hunter was arrested a Loat, and when last seen the Chesapeake 4. was taking coal from a vessel she had ... cantured. She is not a fast ship, and willow, The Virginia Legislature completed its a chance for the good people of Portland peake is one of the vessels they used large. summer to capture Lieut. Reed and theory cutter Caleb Cushing Immediately upon its receipt of the news at Portland of the carture of the Chesapeure by pirates, all it so er Agawam was also disparched in pouit, with a battery of light artillery care board.

> Governor Cartin received a communic #: cation from the War departs out annuche 323 ing that the government declines to adops: his ruggestions, made some weeks ago; 23 upon the subject of recruiting. No news?! organizations are allowed to be formed, 47 except of a few companies to fill incomplete regiments

The Unicu State Committee of California, recommends Getty-burg aga if suitable blace for holding our next National Union Convention. Street states Backine, in this county. It is covenient, du. joined the rest. I could perceive that he old skinflint, it's the first prize you ever of the sum of all villainies' consumed by of the rebel Government to baffle the ton have cleared from $30,000 to $100,000 to 1000 a year since December, 1861.