

THE JOURNAL.

Coudersport, Pa. Wednesday, June 8, 1864.

M. W. McALARNEY, Editor.

Potter county, with two-fifths as many voters as Wayne, paid only $5 for licenses. No taverns, or stores, or eating houses were licensed to sell intoxicating drinks. Such is the law in Potter. A brewer or distiller had a license. It would not do to affirm that the absence of licenses to sell was an exact measure of the abstinence of the people. Even in Maine, under the Prohibitory Law, much grog is surreptitiously obtained and eagerly consumed. No doubt grog-drinking and drunkard-making is carried on in Potter. But, after all, Potter is, in comparison with Wayne, a model county, in respect to temperance.

The above is from the Honesdale Republic, and is one of the many high compliments paid to our noble little county for the energy with which she resists the tide of intemperance overrunning our country during these perilous times. All honor to those who have made her deserving of this truthful remark.

WAR NEWS.

WASHINGTON, June 2-12: 25 p. m. Major-Gen. Dix: A dispatch from Gen. Grant's headquarters, dated yesterday, June 1, at 10 a. m., has been received by this department. It states that about 5 p. m. yesterday (May 31), Gen. Sheridan, perceiving a force of Rebel cavalry at Cold Harbor, which proved to be Fitz Lee's division, attacked and after a hard fight routed it, together with Clingman's brigade of infantry, which came to Lee's support. Sheridan remained in possession of the place. He reported at dark that he had a considerable number of prisoners, and that there were many Rebel dead and wounded on the field. He was ordered to hold the position, and at 10 p. m. the 6th Corps set out to occupy it. We have not yet heard from Wright or Sheridan this morning, and do not know whether the former got his troops to their destination. Smith must be close upon Wright's column.

This morning the enemy are also moving a heavy column in the same direction. The order has just gone to Warren to fall upon their flank.

Wilson had a fight last evening, near Hanover Court House, with Young's brigade of cavalry. He routed Young, killing and capturing many, but there has been a good deal of artillery firing in that direction this morning.

Warren reported last night that in his fight of Monday afternoon, near Bethesda Church, Col. Tyrrell 13th Virginia, and Col. Willis, commanding Pegram's brigade, killed. Col. Christian, 49th Pennsylvania, was wounded and captured, so was the Assistant Adjutant-General of Ramsey's brigade, name not reported; ten other commissioned officers were also captured and seventy privates. Sixty Rebels were buried on the field.

In our center, Burnside reports his advanced line as being this morning (1st) within a mile of Mechanicsville.

No other military intelligence has been received by this Department since yesterday.

WASHINGTON, June 2, 9:30 p. m.—To Major-Gen. Dix: A dispatch from Gen. Grant, dated this morning, June 2, at Bethesda Church, 7 o'clock a. m., has just been received. It states that: "Yesterday afternoon an attack was ordered to be made on our left at Cold Harbor by the 6th Corps, and the troops under Smith, Warren, Burnside and Hancock held in readiness to advance in their respective fronts. The attack was made with spirit about 5 o'clock p. m., continuing until after dark, and resulting in our carrying the enemy's works on the right of the 6th Corps, where we still hold them, and also the first line in front of Smith. The latter, however, were commanded in the rear, which made those carried untenable. The enemy made repeated assaults on each of the corps not engaged in the main assault, but were repulsed with heavy loss in every instance. Several hundred prisoners were taken, but I cannot say what number, nor estimate either our or the enemy's casualties. During the night the enemy made several assaults to regain what they had lost, but failed."

No despatches from any other quarter have reached the Department to-day.

WASHINGTON, June 3-10 p. m.—To Major-Gen. Dix: A dispatch dated yesterday, at 7:30 p. m., has this evening been received from Gen. Sherman. He reports that on Wednesday, June 1, McPherson moved up from Dallas to a point in front of the enemy at New Hope Church.

On Thursday, June 2, Schofield and Hooker, having been shifted to the extreme left, pushed forward toward Marietta. At the same time, Stoueman's and Garrard's cavalry were sent to Allatoona Press, which they reached and held possession of. These movements, the dispatch says, have secured the Pass, which was considered a formidable one. Movements are reported by the dispatch as in progress which are not proper for publication.

Nothing has been heard from Gen. Grant since his dispatch dated at 7 o'clock yesterday morning. Telegraphic communications have been delayed by a violent storm on the Peninsula yesterday evening and last night, and cannot be re-established before some time to-morrow.

EDWIN M. STANTON, Secretary of War.

WASHINGTON, June 6-7 a. m. We have dispatches from Gen. Grant's headquarters down to 6 o'clock last evening, which states that there had been no fighting during the day. The enemy made an attack on Saturday night upon Hancock, Wright and Smith, but were everywhere repulsed. Hancock's lines are brought within 40 yards of the Rebel works. The Rebels were very busy on Saturday constructing intrenchments on the west side of the Chickahominy, at Bottom's Bridge, and toward evening threw a party across the east side.

A dispatch from Gen. Sherman dated yesterday afternoon, June 5, 3 1/2 o'clock, at Altoona Creek, states that "the enemy discovering us moving round his right flank abandoned his position last night and marched off. Gen. McPherson is moving to-day for Ackworth; Gen. Thomas on the direct Marietta road, and Schofield on his right. It has been raining hard for three days and the roads are heavy. An examination of the enemy's abandoned line of works here show an immense line of works which I have turned with less loss to ourselves than we have inflicted upon them." The army supplies of forage and provisions are ample.

EDWIN M. STANTON, Secretary of War.

WASHINGTON, June 6, 1864. The enemy made a night attack on the 2d Corps last night, which was repulsed with great loss. All quiet this morning. Sheridan took Bottom's Bridge last night. There are no indications of a renewal of the battle to-day, though it may open at any moment. The wounded are being sent off.

SENATORS: Johnson and Wilson are appointed delegates from this district to the Baltimore Convention, and Col. A. Gregg and J. Hamilton, alternates.

AN OLD PAPER.—Mrs. L. A. Wright, of Chester Borough, has furnished Mr. Abr. Perkins for presentation to the Central Fair, a copy of the Pennsylvania Gazette, printed and published in Philadelphia, by Benjamin Franklin, Postmaster. The paper, now worn almost to pulp, bears date April 14, 1763, and is mainly filled with advertisements from Chester (now Delaware.) Montgomery, Bucks, and the adjoining counties in Pennsylvania and Delaware.

A riot of females, demanding "bread or blood," took place in Savannah, Ga., on the 17th ult. The band appeared armed in the streets, seizing all the food they could find. The military was called out, suppressed the tumult, and the ringleaders were consigned to prison.

LIEUT. COL. GEO. F. McFARLAND, of the 15th Regiment Pennsylvania volunteers, who lost a leg during the first days' fight at Gettysburg, and who was formerly Principal of the McCalisterville Academy, Juniata county, has been appointed statistical clerk in the School Department.

We learn that Mr. Worden, editor of the Lewisburg Chronicle, had been tendered the above position, but he declined to accept it, preferring to have it filled by one who had served his country in the field of battle. Mr. W. deserves commendation for this noble act.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

It should be generally known, that by a recent decision of the War Department, all soldiers discharged from the service by reason of wounds received in battle, are entitled to a bounty of $100, no matter how short their term of service.

THE CLEVELAND CONVENTION.—The Convention of Radicals, discontents, one term men and other opponents of the Administration, which met at Cleveland, Ohio, on the 31st of May, nominated John C. Fremont for President, and John Cochran of New York city, for Vice President. Their platform, in brief, is for the Union, for the Constitution, for the laws, for suppressing the Rebellion without compromise, for free speech, free press, and habeas corpus in all places not under martial law, for amending the Constitution so as to forever prohibit Slavery and secure equality before the law, for integrity and economy in Executive officers, for the right of asylum except legally refused, for the Monroe Doctrine in full, for thanks to the Army and Navy, for a one-term Presidency, for voting directly for President, for leaving reconstruction exclusively to Congress, and for confiscating Rebel lands and dividing them among our soldiers and sailors.

HEAVY ROBBERY.—$13,000 STOLEN.—The residence of Mr. D. BRAINARD NELSON on William street, in this city was burglariously entered on Thursday night or very early Friday morning, May 27, and $13,000 in greenbacks taken from a pocket in Mr. NELSON'S pantaloons, which he had placed under his pillow for safe keeping. Mr. Nelson returned Thursday afternoon from Philadelphia, where he had been engaged for several weeks in disposing of a large amount of wool which he had collected together, partly by purchase and partly placed in his hands by farmers and dealers in this section to be sold by him.—Eldred Press.

THE OUT-SIDE PRESSURE at the Cleveland Convention was made up entirely of Copperhead Democrats, who gave to the spavined old political hacks assembled as delegates all the encouragement they received while in conclave. In Pennsylvania there is not a consistent Republican or Union journal in existence that will endorse the proceedings of the Cleveland Convention or place its nominee at the head of its columns. The Copperhead organs will be compelled to blow hot and cold—one day a warm blast for their own favorite—the next a cool puff for the tools of the Cleveland Convention.

BANK ROBBERY.—The Tioga County Bank was entered and the safe broken open on Wednesday night, 25th ult., and robbed of about $15,000 in 5-20 Bonds and Bank Notes of the old issue, of 5's, 10's, and 20's. An advertisement will be found in to-day's paper, giving a description of the Bonds and Notes taken therefrom. The public are cautioned against purchasing or taking them.—Agitator.

BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES, for Coughs, Colds, Pulmonary and Asthmatic Disorders, have proved their efficacy by a test of many years, and have received testimonials from eminent men who have used them.

THE Hon. Joshua R. Giddings died May 27th, at Montreal, Canada. Known and loved as a friend of his fellow man, an early and persistent champion in Congress of universal liberty, living down by a pure record the bitter malignity that long followed him, recognized by faithful service as the "Father of the House," idolized by a grateful constituency at home, and, lastly, intrusted with important diplomatic powers near her Majesty's Government, the zealous and loyal old man passes away to final rest just as his eyes began to see the dawning of the glorious result for which he had labored nearly a life-time.
