"How are you Sanitary?"

Down the picket-guarded lane Rolled the comfort-laden wain, Cheered by should that shook the plain, Soldier-like and merry-Phrases such as camp may teach, Sabre cuts of Saxon speech, Such as "Bully!" "Them's the peach !" "Wade in, Sanitary!"

Right and left the cassions drew As the car went lumbering through, Quick succeeding in review

Sunburnt men, with beards like frieze, Smooth-faced boys, and cries like these: "U. S. San., Com." "That's the cheese!" "Pass in, Sanitary."

In such cheer it struggled on, Till the battle-front was won; Then the car, its journey done, Lol: was Stationary. And where bullets whistling fly, Came the sadder, fainter cry, "Eelp us, brothers ! ere we die; Save us, Sanitary."

Such the work. The phantom flies, Wrapped in battie-clouds that rise: But the hero's dying eyes, Veiled and visionary, See the jasper gates swung wide, See the parted throng outside-Hears a voice to those that ride-"Pass in, Sanitary."
