Nebraska has voted not to organize a State government as yet. In this, we think she has decided wisely.

To the Polls!!!

See that the Soldiers are not Disfranchised!!!

Don't forget the Election next Tuesday, August 2nd.

It is to be hoped that, in the midst of the bustle and excitement of the times, the freemen of Potter will not forget the special election of the 2d of August, proximo.

Judge Woodward, it will be remembered, decided that the soldier could not vote, under the Constitution, while on duty in the field.

The friends of the Government may not be aware that the Copperheads in the State, and more particularly in the lower part of the State, are bent upon defeating this amendment to the Constitution.

It has been suggested to us by friends in various sections of the county that the people are not fully aroused to the importance of the issues involved in the result of this election.

The importance of this election cannot be overrated. It is to decide whether 150,000 soldiers, citizens of Pennsylvania, shall be permitted to vote while in the military service.

At the Sociable, for the Soldiers' Aid Society, held at the house of D. F. Glassier, on Tuesday evening, the 19th inst., the amount of $15.95 was realized from the sale of Ice Cream, &c.

On Tuesday evening, August 2d, there will be another Sociable, for the same object, at the house of A. G. Olmsted, Esq., to which ALL are cordially invited.

Washington Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, July 12, 1864.

DEAR JOURNAL: The celebration I was going to write about was too much like all city celebrations to interest the reader.

The fire works were good, judging by the eye, but in another way—that is, by their fruits—they were not so good. They caused several fires in the dwellings of poor people.

Stopping at Baltimore, I took advantage of a short breathing spell to visit Paterson Park Hospital. Here I found one Potter county man, Mr. William F. Hosley, formerly of Ullyses, who is general ward master of the Hospital.

The city is somewhat excited. The enemy are within 14 miles (some say within 4 miles) of the city, but in what force is not known.

When I came into possession of more facts I will give them. My next will, most probably, be written "on my knees" from some camp.

The Copperhead press and leaders delight in their libels and slanders of the President. To indulge in personal detractions of Abraham Lincoln, is to attract the attention of the world from the enormity of the rebel leaders.

Marvelous men are these Copperheads. The Democratic party, as every one knows, always laid great stress upon the assumed fact that it was not only "the people's party" but that it was the only peoples party in all the country.

Then, again, these "wonderful, most wonderful" Copperheads are fairly bellying about "freedom" while, at the same time they are shedding bottles of ink in defence of "the sum of all villainies."

The "love of a bonnet" exhibited in the Philadelphia Fair was awarded to Mrs. Gen. Burnside. It was a Lehigh bonnet, costing one hundred and seventy-five dollars.

The Peace Democracy.

When the slave-holding Democratic leaders of the South were secretly engaged in arranging their plans of rebellion, one of the grounds upon which they based their certainty of success, was the promised aid of the Northern Democratic leaders.

There are these, however, who stand upon a higher plane; whose love of truth and sense of justice cannot be swayed by any selfish considerations, and who stand by the right as firm as the rock of Gibraltar.

This is the Democracy that glories in support of the Constitution and laws. Its doctrine of every man acting toward the Government as his "sense" may dictate, is of course, original.

The Detroit Tribune says that Michael Shoemaker, ex-collector of the port of Detroit, is on trial in that city for swindling the Government.

A party in power will always attract swindlers. The only difference between the Democratic and Union parties in this respect is, that the latter detect and prosecute their own rogues.

Under the new Revenue Law, which takes effect on the 1st of August, 1864, the following Stamp Duties will be required on papers of most common use.

- Bond of Indemnity, on every $1,000, or fractional part thereof, recoverable thereon, 50c. Bond for faithfully performing duties of office $1 00. Bond or Mortgage or Bond and Mortgage, for the payment of money, for each $500, or fractional part of $500, 50c. If the sum does not exceed $100, exempt. Bond other than above, 25c. Certificate of Stock in Corporation, 25c. Certificates not certified in Act, 5c. Check on any bank, at sight or on demand, for any sum, 2c. On any other corporation, or individual, when the sum exceeds $10, on demand, 2c. Deed, for each $500, or fractional part of $500, of the consideration, 50c. Lease, for a rental not exceeding $300, 50c. Additional for each $200, or fractional part of $200, in excess of $300, 50c. Proxy, for voting in Corporations, 10c. Power of Attorney to transfer stock, collect dividends or rent, 25c. Power of Attorney to convey land, $1 00. Probate of Will or Letters of Administration, where the estate does not exceed $2,000, $1 00. Additional for every $1,000, or fractional part of $1,000, 50c. Receipt for payment on money, exceeding $20, 2c. Receipt for satisfaction of Judgment, Mortgage, or Decree of Court, exempt.

A COPPERHEAD DONE FOR.—A well known rebel sympathizer, near Baltimore cooked a very nice dinner—got it up in style, regardless of expense—and invited about fifteen of his rebel friends to dine with him.

Having secured the services of HENRY S. COWBURN, BLACKSMITH, of twenty years experience in England and America, I am prepared to furnish farmers and travelers with the best of Horse and Ox Shoeing.

Rebel Opinion of Vallandigham.

From the Atlanta Intelligencer, June 24.

The telegraph of yesterday brought us the news, that Vallandigham had suddenly appeared at Hamilton, Ohio; that he has been elected a delegate to the Democratic Convention which is to meet at Chicago to nominate a candidate for President and Vice President of the so-called United States, and that the Convention at Hamilton has pledged the Democracy of the State to defend him and his individual rights under the Constitution.

The sudden advent of this persecuted man into Ohio, there is no doubt, has created great sensation in that State, as well as throughout the whole of Lincoln's dominions.

The latter, backed though he is by a hired soldiery, is not so powerful as he was when, some time ago, through the unprincipled and dastardly General Burnside, he laid violent hands upon the great Ohio commoner, deprived him of his liberty, banished him from his kingdom, and committed other outrages upon his personal and individual rights.

There is, however, another view which must be taken of the effects which must result by the return of Vallandigham to his home, and his being permitted by Lincoln to remain there.

As an opponent, then, of the Abolition nominee for President, at large in the field he is to be dreaded: Arrested and imprisoned, he is also to be dreaded.

A NUMBER of years have elapsed since the introduction of HOSSETTER'S CELEBRATED BITTERS to the public. The prejudice existing in the minds of many persons against what are denominated patent medicines at first greatly retarded its sale, but as its virtues and merits became known, this barrier of prejudice was overthrown.

For sale by Druggists and dealers generally everywhere. HENRY S. COWBURN, BLACKSMITH, of twenty years experience in England and America, I am prepared to furnish farmers and travelers with the best of Horse and Ox Shoeing.
