See New Advertisements. CASH paid for Wood at this office. We have delayed our meeting two days in consequence of the meeting held here on Thursday.

Mr. Stebbins has just returned from New York with a splendid assortment of new and fashionable Goods. He is determined not to be undersold by any in this market.

Coughs, Bronchitis. The entire freedom from all deleterious ingredients renders Brown's Bronchial Troches, or Cough and Voice Lozenges, a safe remedy for the most delicate female or youngest child, and has caused them to be held in the highest esteem by Clergymen, Singers and public speakers generally.

Dids't Take. The copperhead collector of the East Ward, recently wrote to a soldier in Sheridan's army urging him to vote the "Democratic" ticket. The soldier went away a "Democrat." Judge of the surprise of our official, when he received an indignant note from the soldier boy, saying: "The Democratic party is played out in Sheridan's army." He also said that there were 3,000 voters in that army, and not 250 for Little Mac. Our collector thinks the soldiers should not vote.—Williamsport Bulletin.

The Ladies' Friend.

We learn from the November number of this New Magazine of Fashion and Literature, that it has already attained a large circulation. The aim of its publishers is to rival the three dollar magazines in the quality of their engravings and contents. Thus it has given during the present year, in every number, a finely engraved and colored Double Fashion Plate, while its other numerous engravings are of the best quality. The long and brilliant array of the literary contributors to the Ladies' Friend, nearly all of whom are ladies is highly creditable to the Magazine, and also to the country, as showing how large and cultivated a class of lady writers it possesses. Many may wonder how any magazine can be got up in so handsome and lavish a manner as this is, at the low price of $2.50, saying nothing of the reduced rates to clubs. The publishers say that it is only done by having a very large circulation, as money would certainly be lost on a small edition. Price $2.50; 2 copies $4.00; 3 copies $5.00; 21 copies $35.00. Single numbers sent on age paid, for 25 cents. A Sewing Machine Premium is also given on certain terms. Address Deacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut street, Philadelphia. Now is the time to begin making up Clubs for 1865.

For the Soldiers.

Brookland, Pa., Nov. 3, 1864. Mr. McLANE: The Ladies of our little city and vicinity have been at work a little for the benefit of sick and wounded soldiers, for a few weeks past, and as they do not seem disposed to herald their own doings, I thought I would tell the people what has been done, and how. This contribution may look so small as to provoke a smile from some, but it is from these small sources that the great stream is supplied that is constantly ministering to the wants of those who have suffered in the service of their country. In the first place they contributed material and made a quilt (nice enough, by the way for any one to sleep under), next day they made a quilting, inviting all hands to come in the evening for a visit and supper at a charge of 40 cents each. They provided a rousing supper and a tip-top entertainment at the house of E. Horton, realizing $14 in money notwithstanding the evening was dark, rainy and muddy. Contributions were also made for a soldiers' box. This box was shipped to the U. S. Christian Commission in Philadelphia, Nov 1st. It weighed 65 pounds, consisting of 1 quilt, 25 ounces lint, some bandages and old cloths, dried berries and currants, all valued at over $15. With the $14 in money they intend to buy yarn and cloth to knit and make up at their evening circles. They also have a box open at the store of L. Bird for contributions at any time, from people in the vicinity, and as often as practicable, one will be packed and shipped. Secy Miss SARAH HORTON, Treasurer, Mrs. E. Z. BIRD, N. D.

On to Victory!

MASS MEETING.

The people of Potter witnessed on Thursday of this week an exhibition such as they have not seen since the exciting campaign of '56. Although for a week previous the rain had fallen without scarcely any cessation, making the roads nearly knee-deep with mud, and the most sanguine of our friends in the village had begun to feel somewhat blue at the prospect, yet notwithstanding all this we had the largest and most enthusiastic meeting ever held in the county. There were delegations from almost every township, and by one o'clock the streets were crowded with people. Forming on the green south of the Allegany, under the able Marshalship of Maj. Jno. M. Kilbourne, aided by Capt. A. F. Jones, Lt. S. Hoyt and Horton, and Mr. N. Vannoy, they rode and drove through the principal streets, making a procession nearly a mile in length. In the procession we noticed among others, the following banners:

The first was a very fine oil painting, on one side of which was the head of the "Father of his Country" with the inscription "The Father of our Republic, GEORGE WASHINGTON," on the reverse, the head of "Father Abraham" with the inscription "The preserver of our Republic, ABRAHAM LINCOLN." This was one of the finest Banners we have ever seen at a public meeting, and the people are under many obligations to Mr. CHAPMAN for the able manner in which he executed his task, and to the ladies of the village for the beautiful trimmings. This banner was admired by every one.

The next banner carried had the following motto as the watch-words of the campaign: "Liberty and Union; No Compromise with Traitors."

The next was the picture of a gunboat, and over it the words "McClellan's head-quarters during the battle of Malvern Hill." The people pretty generally appreciated the point of this "joke." Then came one with the words "The God of Abraham delivered the Israelites from Egyptian bondage." He will also by the aid of Abraham deliver the bondsmen of America.

The next represented Mr. Lincoln holding out to his hand a popinjay of about the size of Tom Thumb supposed to represent Little McClellan, and saying, "This reminds me of a little joke" while the pigmy holding out a purse in one hand, says, "I'll stick to my $6,000 a year." This is supposed to refer to the fact that although he has not done anything in two years to earn a salary he continues to draw pay as Major-General! This created a great deal of merriment.

Another, the richest and most significant, was one representing a snake under which was the word "Chicago," every letter of which was an ingeniously shaped snake. McClellan has a field glass to his eye looking for some object in the far distance. Out of the mouth of the snake come the words, "I say Mac, do you get a view of the White House?" to which Mac replies: "Nary a view, my dear Pendleton, and I greatly fear our bearings will land us far below."

There were other banners which we have no room to mention in this connection. The display of flags was the finest we have ever seen in a procession of its size. The meeting was organized by calling Hon. BARAK NILES to the Chair. A prayer was offered by Rev. Mr. Stevens. It is impossible at this time to do justice to the incomparable speeches of Landon, Lloyd, and Armstrong, but a few words are due to the speakers and the cause.

After a stirring Loyal Song, happily executed, at 10 minutes to 3 o'clock, Mr. Landon was introduced to an audience as ever assembled in this county, and was received with hearty demonstrations of satisfaction. He spoke for an hour and a half as one having commission to teach, not as a politician. He spoke earnestly for the country, not for party. He showed the utter folly of resorting to falsehood and meanness or to any wrong act to build up a party; said such efforts might bring present success but were certain to end in the overthrow of any party that resorted to them. His description of a great man of himself worth traveling through, even the present and twenty miles to hear. His definition, briefly told in plain prose, is that a great man is one who faithfully and cheerfully discharges every duty that the occasion and his relationships impose on him. His explanation of the origin and cause of the war, was the most effective and wholly unanswerable of any we have listened to. The whole speech from beginning to end was a grand effort, well calculated to elevate and improve those who heard it, with not a single passage which addressed to the passions or prejudices of his hearers. We feel very certain that every candid McClellan man who heard the speech of M. B. Chapman, of Cuba, and then treated himself to listen to the speeches at the Court House on Thursday last, must have felt ashamed of Mr. Chapman's manner of trying to aid the election of his Chief.

At the close of Mr. Landon's speech we had another loyal song from "Oliver's Brigade" which did everybody good who heard it. Clinton Lloyd, Esq., was then introduced, who being to speak, was greeted with a genuine Potter county welcome. He had been pleasantly referred to as a thunder cloud, whose storm was to break upon the audience, but his speech from opening to close sparkled with wit and humor, poetry and prose. Being an old-line Democrat he could tell the foul dire wrong, the so-called Democracy were attempting to force upon the country. He was listened to with the greatest attention, and we heard many gratifying remarks from his audience touching his arguments, eloquence, and the point with which he capped many of his periods. Union Democrats were strengthened by his remarks, and general good could not help but flow from them. After music by the Band, the meeting adjourned to meet in the evening. Hon. Wm. H. Armstrong addressed the meeting in the evening. He reviewed the pending issues in a most masterly manner carrying conviction to the mind of every lover of his country and her institutions, as to his duty in the present crisis. He held spellbound the large audience between two and three hours; his earnest and patriotic utterances often being greeted with long and loud applause. In this effort Mr. Armstrong done noble service to the Union cause, and won an enviable reputation in the minds of all who heard him. His speech was a rare treat to our people. Among the many grand successes of the Day was the Torchlight Procession and display of Fireworks! It was something new to our people and attracted a good deal of attention. There were one hundred and fifty torchlights, besides the Banners and Transparencies. Our columns are so crowded that it will be impossible to give a minute description of it all. We will only stop to give the mottoes of the Red White and Blue Transparencies. "No Party but our Country. Death to Chopperheadism." "How are you Gantlett Galena? I don't remember." "Pendleton, the man who boasts that he never voted a man or a dollar to crush Rebellion." "Out

Maryland: Free Maryland! Victory will bring Peace for our Whole Country. Chicago—A Ray of Light to none but Rebels. We go for Baltimore. Johnson, where many faltered, stood firm by the Union. It is dangerous to swap horses while crossing a stream.

We congratulate our people upon the success of their efforts and we will no doubt, in our next, have the pleasure of announcing to them the re-election of "Abe and Andy."

WISTAR'S BALSAM

OF WILD CHERRY ONE OF THE OLDEST AND MOST RELIABLE REMEDIES IN THE WORLD FOR Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Difficulty of Breathing, Asthma, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Croup, and every Affection of THE THROAT, LUNGS AND CHEST, INCLUDING EVEN CONSUMPTION. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY. So general has the use of this remedy become, and so popular is it everywhere, that it is unnecessary for me to recount its virtues. Its works speak for it, and find utterance in the abundant and very recent testimony of many who from long suffering and settled disease have been restored to pristine vigor and health. We can present a mass of evidence in proof of our assertion, that CANNOT BE DISCREDITED.

The Rev. Jacob Sechler.

Well known and much respected among the German population in this country, makes the following statement for the benefit of the afflicted: HANOVER, Pa., Feb. 15, 1859. Dear Sirs:—Having realized in my family important benefits from the use of your valuable preparation—WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY—it affords me pleasure to recommend it to the public. Some eight years ago one of my daughters seemed to be in a decline, and little hopes of her recovery were entertained. I then procured a bottle of your excellent Balsam, and before she had taken the whole of the contents of the bottle there was a great improvement in her health. I have, in my individual case, made frequent use of your valuable medicine, and have also been benefited by it. JACOB SECHLER.

From Jessie Smith, Esq.

President of the Morris County Bank, Morris-town, New Jersey. "Having used Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry for about fifteen years, and having realized its beneficial results in my family, it affords me great pleasure in recommending it to the public as a valuable remedy in cases of weak lungs, colds, coughs, etc., and a remedy which I consider to be entirely innocent, and may be taken with perfect safety by the most delicate in health."

From Hon. John E. Smith.
