Tioga county. official, 2,505 majority for Lincoln.

There is a Union gain in Lancaster of 1463 since October.

Marshfield, the home of the great statesman, Daniel Webster, gave 224 for Lincoln, and none for McClellan.

The Soldier's vote of this county, as far as received, gives Lincoln 141 majority. .The majority in the county will be 700.

Those afflicted with Coughs, Hoarse ness, Irritation and Soreness of the Throat, will find nothing so efficacious as a Throat Remedy, as Brown's Bronchial Troches. Sold by all Druggists.

A Supplementary Draft has taken place for this county. We will publish the names as soon as we can produce them. Those and ink. who have advised their friends to run away to avoid the draft are thus made to see the wickedness and folly of such a course.

We have been shown by P. A. Stebbins & Co., a newly-patented "clothes-wringer" called the "Little Giant" which promises to excel all others. We would advise the ladies to call on Pierre and assist him in developing its merits.

As we expected, the Pacific States share in the great uprising for Freedom. In California all the Union Candidates for Congress are elected, and Lincoln's majority will be from 20,000 to 25,000. Oregon goes the same way by a handsome figure; and the new State of Nevada comes in with a Union Congressman and about 3,000 majority for Uncle Abraham.

On June 10, 1863, the writer of this called at his residence. He said he was without charge. Respectfully yours, 103 or 104 on that day; he wished me to put 103 or 104 on that day; he wished me to put his name on the roll, (as I was an enroling officer), and also put down that he was at the battle of Monmouth, and that he had ten grand-sons in the Union army. I put these facts on the roll and they were copied and sent up to Harrisburg and Washington.

The feeling was not so much of exultation over a fallen and disgraced foe as of gratitude that our Country had been saved from imminent peril. Every loyal heart had a right to feel jubilant when it became evident that the strong common sense of the people, the love of home and liberty, had trodden down under their feet the demagogues arguments of "taxes," "draft." and"stamped match-boxes." "John Brown's soul is marching on." Free Maryland rings it out upon the November air, purified Baltimore takes up the shout and echoes and re-echoes it through her blood-stained streets, and even traitor Jeff is made to sing it in a minor strain for the purpose of filling the depleted ranks of his rabble with swarthy braves. Yes.
