

THE JOURNAL.

Coudersport, Pa.

Wednesday, Nov. 23, 1864.

M. W. McALARNEY, Editor.

Minnesota gives between 7,000 and 8,000 Union majority.

The merchants of Vicksburg have contributed $4000 to the Illinois Sanitary Fair.

Our columns are crowded with advertisements—our locals are not cum rousa. Will report in the next.

"Little Mac" has the blues badly and nothing but the blues. He has the Jersey Blues, the Blue Grass State, and the Blue Hens' chickens—Delaware.

The election of Gen. Paine, Union, in the 1st Congressional District of Wisconsin is pretty certain. The Democratic papers have been exercised about what they call a close vote in the State, but about 15,000 majority for Lincoln does not seem to us as very close.

Mr. Clafin, our County Superintendent of Common Schools, is among the "called for" in the last draft—consequently he will be unable to meet some of his last engagements for the purpose of examining teachers.

The Erie Gazette says legal proceedings are to be commenced against several persons in that city, of foreign birth, on the charge of voting for many successive years without being naturalized. Right.

Advices from Washington state that the President has issued a proclamation declaring that by authority vested in him by Act of Congress of June, 1861, the blockade of the ports of Norfolk, Va., and Perquimans and Pensacola, Fla., shall cease from and after the 1st of December next, and commercial intercourse be carried on with them, subject to the laws and military and naval regulations.

Many honest men will hereafter shudder when contemplating the dangers they have this year escaped. The Northwest understood it by the exposure of the plot to raise another Rebellion there; and hence their immense majorities. We have been saved, by a merciful Providence, from betrayal into the hands of leaders plotting to put the Union into the power of Jeff Davis and the Monarchs of Europe.

In the Legislature of Georgia, on the 20th inst., a series of resolutions were introduced asserting the right of each State to act in its individual capacity in reference to efforts to secure peace as well as in all other affairs, hailing with gratification the disposition in favor of a cessation of hostilities manifested by the Democratic party of the North favoring a convention of all the States, and calling on Jeff. Davis and the Rebel Congress to make offers for such a purpose to the government at Washington.

Gen. Gillem has met with a temporary reverse at Bulls Gap. Gen. Breckenridge, with a heavy force, attacked him on the 14th, and repulsed him after a desperate fight, which we lost four hundred prisoners. The Rebel account of the same affair claims that they also captured six pieces of artillery and ten stands of colors. A dispatch dated Chattanooga Saturday, says the Rebels, probably this same force, attacked our troops at Strawberry Plains on the 18th, but were repeatedly repulsed.

The latest information about Gen. Sherman is from The Cincinnati Gazette of Friday, which says the army left Atlanta in two columns, one on the 9th and the other on the 12th, moving eastward, the former via Macon, and the other directly toward Augusta. The Gazette adds that the first column was heard from on the 14th and had advanced seventy miles on the road toward Macon, driving everything before it, and destroying everything as it went.

OUR TRIUMPH.

A contemporary, with much propriety, says:—"We have re-elected Abraham Lincoln, as it was right and meet that we should do. We have fully established the purpose of the North to sustain and strengthen the hands of the Administration in the prosecution of the war. This we have done with as much earnestness and calmness as we could show. We cannot forget, however, that the campaign which ended on Tuesday was the most vindictive and bitter ever known in our history. This may have arisen from the desperation of our opponents, but of that let nothing now be said. It is our part to day, as victors, to harmonize our triumph. We are the dominant party in the North, and we must make our victory the means of restoring and strengthening public sentiment. We are one people. We live under one flag. Our happiness and the happiness of all our children depend upon the stability of this Government. We have therefore no other duty remaining but to continue in the path we have chosen, and, following out this war to the end, endeavoring to unite all men in its support. The victory of to-day teaches us loyalty, forbearance, harmony, and union. Let us accept it in this spirit, and with that wish we congratulate the friends of freedom in the universal world upon the result of the 8th of November, and unite with every loyal man in asking God to bless Abraham Lincoln, once again Our Chosen Chief Magistrate."

Old Father Bushnell of Vermont used to say that the best criticism he ever received on his preaching, was from a little boy who sat at his feet, looking up into his face as he was preaching in a crowded house. As he was going on very earnestly, the little fellow spoke out, "you said that afore!"

A Rebel officer who came up from City Point on Saturday, took the oath of allegiance and frankly confessed he did so because there was no use of trying to hold out any longer, as their overthrow was inevitable.

The Louisville Journal publishes figures to show that five thousand five hundred slaves have left their owners in less than one fifth of that state, since the war began.

There is a boy in Quincy, Massachusetts, two years old, who can call all the letters of the alphabet, spell three or four words, and do a sum in arithmetic. His name is Frank Adams Tirroll.

The Manchester Print Works during last year, made 14,000,000 yards of daines, stuff for dresses for 1,000,000 ladies. The Works print about 20 miles of stuff per day.

Sherman has nipped Hood, and Sheridan has nipped Early. They are a pair of nippers—Louisville Journal.

NAIL MACHINE.—A new nail-making machine, called "Wickerman's," is being introduced, which promises to work a revolution in that line of business. Three million kegs of nails are now, it is said, yearly manufactured in the United States. Instead of manufacturing one nail at a time, as is done by the machinery now in use, this machine can cut from a twenty-inch iron plate, eighty-two and a half (eight-penny) nails at one blow, and can make four blows per second, thus giving thirty two nails, headed and pointed, in a second. The same machine will make one hundred and sixty half inch brads per second—forty at a time, or about thirty-six hundred pounds per day, including all sizes of a small finishing nails, at a profit of at least four cents per pound. By the old method but one nail at a time is cut. The cost of cutting by this new machine is not over one-tenth that of any other method. Two machines employing one hand, can make one hundred kegs of eight-penny nails per day. By the old method, two machines, employing two hands, make from two to eight kegs per day, according to the skill of the workman. One of the large factories with fifty machines produces fifty thousand kegs of nails annually. Fifty Wickerman machines will make seven hundred and fifty thousand kegs per annum! The nails are better pointed, too than by the old method, and have a much greater holding power.

IMPORTANT TO FRIENDS OF PRISONERS.

Here is something that will be hailed with delight by all those who have friends and relatives in Southern prisons. Major Mulford, agent of exchange of prisoners, has given authority for the publication of the following statement for their benefit:

Nearly all the prisoners recently captured, together with those formerly confined at Richmond and Lynchburg, have been removed to Georgia. The officers prison is located at Macon, and the principal depot for enlisted men is at Andersonville, Georgia. Most of the citizen prisoners are at Salisbury, North Carolina and Columbia South Carolina. All letters by flag of truce should be enclosed to Major General Butler commanding Department of Virginia and North Carolina, or to Major John E. Mulford, agent of exchange. One page of letter is all that is allowed to be written, and the contents wholly of a personal nature. Ten cents in Union currency must be enclosed in each letter to pay the postage inside the rebel lines, observance of the above regulations will insure the speedy forwarding of letters. In consequence of active operations at the front, and the uncertainty of communication, no boxes destined for prisoners at the South had better be forwarded till further notice.

GENERAL ARNOLD.—During the traitor Arnold's predatory operations, in Virginia, in 1781, he took an American captain prisoner. After some general conversation, he asked the captain "what he thought the Americans would do with him if they caught him?" The captain declined at first giving him an answer; but upon being repeatedly urged, he said, "why, sir, if I must answer the question, you will excuse my telling you the truth; if my countrymen should catch you, I believe they would first cut off your lame leg, which was wounded in the cause of freedom and virtue at Quebec, and bury it with the honors of war, and afterwards hang the remainder of your body on a gibbet."

SELF-COMMAND.—"He who desires to influence others must learn to command himself," is an old aphorism, on which, perhaps, something new may be said. In the ordinary ethics of the nursery, self-control means little more than a check upon temper. A wise restraint, no doubt, but as useful, to the dissimulator as to the honest man. I do not necessarily conquer my anger because I do not show that I am. Anger vented often hurries towards forgiveness; anger concealed often hardens into revenge.—Bulwer.

Old Father Bushnell of Vermont used to say that the best criticism he ever received on his preaching, was from a little boy who sat at his feet, looking up into his face as he was preaching in a crowded house. As he was going on very earnestly, the little fellow spoke out, "you said that afore!"

Table with 3 columns: RECAPITULATION, Union, Cop. House, 53, 47. Senate, 17, 16. Total, 70, 63.

The sinking of the Rebel ram Albatross, and re-capture of Plymouth, North Carolina, adds a new lustre to the glory of our gallant sailors and soldiers. The ram destroyed and scattered our fleet protecting Plymouth, and our troops were captured. We could do little on that coast since, until Lieut. Cushing so gallantly carried his little launch over the timbers surrounding the ram and blew her to pieces.

A terrific hurricane occurred in Calcutta on the 5th of October. Of two hundred ships in the Hoogly, nineteen were totally lost, and of the remainder only twenty are reported seaworthy. One hundred and fifty were driven from their mooring, stranded and damaged.—There was no severe loss of European lives, and most of the cargo will be saved. There was much excitement at Lloyd's in view of the heavy losses.

PARIS, NOV. 1.—The following telegram received from Calcutta, details the destruction caused by the hurricane.—One hundred and ten ships were wrecked, and twelve thousand persons drowned. The total loss was estimated at $220,000,000. The greater portion of the city was inundated, and the villages bordering on the river were washed away.

WASHINGTON, NOV. 14.—A large number of packages for the army arrived at the Washington post office with their wrappers destroyed, or the address so mutilated that they cannot be forwarded, and are therefore necessarily sent to the dead letter office. Persons sending such packages should write on a card the full address and fasten it securely to the contents of the package, inside the wrapper, and this will secure prompt delivery.

Three years ago, Gen. McClellan banished the Hutchiesons from his camp, for singing noble and inspiring songs (which the men loved) because they were hostile to slavery. "John Brown's soul is marching on," is now common in the Army of the Potomac. And "who will care for Georgey now," since both the Home vote and the Army have condemned him?

The question of enlisting Slaves into the Rebel army, is creating great, bitter excitement. Some say it is necessary to make them fight, and give them their liberty, while others denounce it as more inconsistent than the course of the Abolition Yankees. State sovereignty also assumes new shape—Georgia and North Carolina threaten to confer with the United States for terms of peace, and claim that as sovereign States they have that right.

Sherman's army now excites much interest. One report is 'that he has left Atlanta, and struck for Mobile, Charleston or Savannah. It is 171 miles from Atlanta to Augusta—137 from Augusta to Charleston—308 miles in all. His course excites great speculation.

NEW FEDERATION.—Upper and Lower Canada, New Brunswick, Prince Edwards and Newfoundland are to be united as the "British North America Confederation." The Governor General and Upper chamber of legislation are appointed by the Crown; the Lower chamber is elected for a term of five years; Ottawa the capital. The Provinces have local powers much like our States. The population is about three millions, over one third of them Roman Catholics.

Let us rejoice with and not over the many honest men who did not vote with us at the last election. The Rebellion is not dead, nor are Slavery or Treason yet extinct. Very much is gained, but victory is not assured until the last man-shackle is struck down, and the last perfect Union organization—lose nothing by inaction or over-confidence; but, keeping step with the march of events, be prepared resolutely to perform every new duty that may appear.

Sixty-five Counties in Kentucky gives Lincoln 17,654 to 48,158 for McClellan. There are 110 Counties in the State.

General Fremont has subscribed $50,000 to the new loan. How about the "financial failure" of the Government.

WISTAR'S BALSAM

OF WILD CHERRY. ONE OF THE QUICKEST AND MOST RELIABLE REMEDIES IN THE WORLD FOR Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Difficulty of Breathing, Asthma, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Croup, and every Affection of THE THROAT, LUNGS AND CHEST, INCLUDING EVEN CONSUMPTION. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY. So general has the use of this remedy become, and so popular is it everywhere, that it is unnecessary for me to recount its virtues. Its works speak for it, and find utterance in the abundant and voluntary testimony of the many who from long suffering and settled disease have been restored to pristine vigor and health. We can present a mass of evidence in proof of our assertion, that IT CANNOT BE DISCREDITED.

The Rev. Jacob Secler, Well known and much respected among the German population in this country, makes the following statement for the benefit of the afflicted:

HANOVER, Pa., Feb. 15, 1865. Dear Sir—Having realized in my family important benefits from the use of your valuable preparation—WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY—it affords me pleasure to recommend it to the public. Some eight years ago one of my daughters seemed to be in a decline and little hope of her recovery was entertained. I then procured a bottle of your excellent Balsam, and before she had taken the whole of the contents of the bottle there was a great improvement in her health. I have, in my individual case, made frequent use of your valuable medicine, and have also been benefited by it. JACOB SECLER.

From Jessie Smith, Esq., President of the Morris County Bank, Morristown, New Jersey.

"Having used Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry for about fifteen years, and having realized its beneficial results in my family, it affords me great pleasure in recommending it to the public as a valuable remedy in cases of weak lungs, colds, coughs, &c., and a remedy which I consider to be perfectly safe by the most delicate in health."

From Hon. John E. Smith, A distinguished Lawyer in Westminster, Md. I have on several occasions used Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry for severe colds, and always with decided benefit. I know of no preparation that is more efficacious or more desirable for general use with excellent effect; by J. B. Elliott, Merchant, Hall's Cross Roads, Md.
