Mr. Colwell wants Oats at his Store in Millport.

Snow is plenty, weather cold, and sleighing fine.

There will be no paper issued from this office next Week, it being "Holiday Week."

We see by the Wellsville Press that the Genesee Valley Seminary, Rev. J. Hendrick, Principal, opened on the 6th of December.

There has been another call for 300,000 men to make up deficiencies of the present call. Sub-districts are given until the 15th of February to fill their quotas by volunteering, if they are not full by that time there will be a draft.

FARMERS.—You are required to report to the U. S. Assessors all cattle, hogs, calves and sheep which you slaughter for sale. The tax on each head of horned cattle, is 40 cents; on each hog, 10 cents; on each calf, 5 cents, and on each sheep 5 cents.

DROWNED.—Margaret, Thomas and Henry W., aged respectively 8, 6 and 4 years, children of George Lloyd, of Newberry, were drowned in Lycopium Creek, on Sunday last.

Mr. Lloyd is a soldier, and arrived home on furlough just as the bodies of the two little ones had been recovered.—Williamsport Democrat.

ASSIST THE POOR.—Winter is at our doors. Fuel and Provisions are dear, and there are those among us that have not the means to buy. There are the families of our brave soldiers, many of whom will need assistance without being regarded as subjects of charity.

The Wellsville Press contains several rich and "original" illustrations of the man "Marsh Champ," who some weeks since headed the invasion from McKean county. From the appearance of one of the "pictures" it would seem that he has not received his regular rations of Democratic doctrine lately.

At the last Election there were two votes cast in Sweden township by a couple, who from the formation of that part of their body generally supposed to carry the brains, are not responsible for their acts. Of course they voted for the illustrious "gunboat general."

We find the following going the rounds of the press, and while we will not vouch for the story we will say this much: "It might have been."

How SAM MILLS PLAYED CITY LANDLORD.—Were you ever in Coudersport? Here is a description of the place. It is a village containing two hundred souls (i. e., if every human biped has a soul), and is situated between a clump of alder bushes and a noted frog-pond.

In times of old, there resided in said village a hotel-keeper, who, for convenience, we will call Sam Mills. Now Sam was an excellent landlord. Many miles have travelers gone out of their way to stop with Sam. His only failing was his love of city style.

CORRECT THE ENROLLMENT

We published last week, for the benefit of the Enrolled, the order of Major Dodge reference to Correcting the Enrollment, and we this week have the pleasure of announcing that the Commissioner and Surgeon of the Board of this District will be in COUDERSPORT on MONDAY and TUESDAY the 16th and 17th days of January 1865—to carry out the provisions of that order.

Here is the opportunity so long yearned for by the people; now let us see how they will improve it. There has been a great deal of fault-finding by persons who were ignorant in relation to that of which they complained, a hundred theories have been advanced by as many different persons as to the reason of our Enrollment being so large, and charges of fraud and negligence have become so common that it is no longer considered worth the trouble to refute them.

It is so frequently the case that fear of the Draft raises in the mind of the enrolled person a very exaggerated belief as to his own physical weakness; and, under this impression he presents himself for exemption when there is no real cause for his being exempted either before, or after the draft. He is disappointed and angry, and in many cases goes away with charges of fraud, &c., on his lips. This is foolish, and while we are anxious that every man who is not able to perform military duty shall be stricken from the rolls, we are equally anxious that every man who is able shall bear his share of the burden with the rest of us.

Cases of Alienage.—The papers should be made out, with the proper witnesses, and the Prothonotary's certificate that the person has not been naturalized in this Court, and also accompanied with any other papers that may have a bearing upon the case.

Persons Overage.—Should bring the Family Record, if they have one. The parents testimony is the best in these cases, where it can be procured, when it can not the oath of the person himself, and that of two witnesses that they believe his statement to be true, is necessary.

Those who have been in the service should bring the proper papers and also be able to testify as to dates of muster and discharge. Of course, the proof in relation to deaths, non-residence, and of being in the service of the United States can be furnished by third parties, and Committees should have the papers properly prepared before the time of meeting. Let these papers be properly stamped.

We presume there are in every township persons sufficiently acquainted with the forms to undertake the position of Committees. Let such persons attend to it immediately, remembering that according to this order, there can be no relief for them after this opportunity has gone by. We believe it is the desire of the Board that the Enrollment shall be fair and just, and that all should bear like burdens. We have believed and do believe that the Enrollment for this county is much too large, and we are anxious to see it reduced to something like truth, and now we will have no one to blame but ourselves if this is not corrected. Let there be no delay about this. Let the Committees go to work immediately and make it a just and thorough correction.

We hold that Potter has sent into the army more men in proportion to her population than any other county in the State. Our men have filled the quotas of adjoining towns in New York, in Tioga, and other counties in this State, and if we cannot get credit for them we can at least have them stricken from the rolls. Read, this article is addressed to you personally. See that you do your duty!

the same angle in an opposite direction. Each stroke should be slightly bent, and as long as possible, as the aim in skating is, while moving, to place the body on one foot at a time—equally with each foot, or a jerking backward motion will be acquired. The arms should not be swung, but raised, alternately with the feet, even then as imperceptibly as possible. Some of the best skaters keep the blades folded in front of the body.

We do not believe that any more directions are necessary; for after the feat of skating at all is accomplished, the best skaters in the world are smooth ice, and the attraction of good skates, and the attraction of skating. No exercise can be more delightful, or sensibly indulged in, more healthful than skating, or better calculated to make a young America broad-chested and strong, and to turn to the girl-phantom of the day into graceful, rosy and well-developed woman. It is the abuse and the use of the art which has served to create a prejudice against it in the minds of so many parents and guardians.

1st. Be careful not to have your skates too long, for they are apt to slip away, after a while, and in this case will inevitably get under the runners, and tell you one of those secrets of which we were speaking.

2d. Dress warmly. Boys' clothes generally afford ample protection from the cold; but girls should never go upon the ice without wearing Turkish or gymnastic trousers.

3d. Never kneel or sit upon the ice, especially when warmed by exercise, without using a cushion or some intervening substance by way of protection.

4th. Keep your mouth closed as much as possible while in motion, breathing through the nose only.

5th. Do not sit down immediately after skating without having an extra garment to throw about your shoulders.

MANHOOD: HOW LOST! HOW RESTORED! Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHOEA, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal losses, IMPOTENCY, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, CONSUMPTION, PHTHISIS, and Frigidity, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.

Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents. The celebrated author in this admirable essay clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife—pointing out a mode of cure, at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.
