HEADQUABTERS CO.F,210th P.V. Feb. 12, 1865.

DEAR PA: I promised you a fuller account of the battle of Dabuey's Mill, and will keep the promise. We left our camps at five o'clock on Sunday morning

Feb. 5th, and moved towards Hatcher's Run, singing 'Rally Round the Flag.' About 12 o'clock we reached the Run and found the 'Jonnies.'

The line was formed and the old Bucktails deployed as skirmishers. In a few moments the order was given--Charge, Forward, Double quick, March ! and in we went, driving the Rebs through the him, so that his fellow countrymen may woods and taking four prisouers. Soon we came in sight of their works, but the Loan" is-what are its peculiar merits, Run had to be crossed before the works -- how they can subscribe for or obtain could be reached. The Rebs had felled the notes, &c. treetops into it which made it a little Let Question. Why is this Loan called difficult knossing. But we crossed, coming the "Seven Thirty Loan'?, out with clothes slightly increased in specific gravity, and drove them from at the rate of Seven Dollars and thirty their position After resting a short cents, each year, on every hundred dol time we moved forward till nightfall. At lars ; making the interest as follows : 12 o'cloke the order was given to march, and taking a different direction we moved forward till after daylight. At noon the firing commenced again near our front and we were soon in motion, marching 'left in front' through a piece of woods and coming out to a large open field with the Rebs in full view who be obtained ? quickly opened fire on our Regiment
