GRANT'S VICTORY.

A Washington corerspondent recently telegraphed us that the number of men since the people assembled together to actually surrendered by Lee to Gen. express their joy and triumph at the Grant did not exceed seven or eight thou- success of the arms of the Republic, which sand, and drew thence the inference that opened to us the prospect of a glorious

doubt a very fair one, I sphenu it.	LINE I
Ewell's corps	7,000
Longstreet's command	6,000
Hill's corps 1	2,000
Anderson's corps	9,000
Gordon's corps	7,000
Artillery	5,500
Cavalry [two divisions]	5000
Locals [Custis Lee's command]	4,000
Total 5	6,000
In addittou to these can be added :

Teamsters and train men

Detailed men

۲.

4.5

Other non-combatants This makes the total strength of Lee's army 67,000 men, inside the defense of campaign which preceded his surrender are lacking, but if we put them at the large figure of 40,000, there will remain extraordinary feat of generalship to compel the surrender in any circumstanceslarge as that.

5.000

lost 40,000 men in eleven days by death, wounds, and capture, how is the glory of his conqueror diminished by that fact? In what particular was it a less feat of arms to put 40,000 men hors du combat in eleven days than to have spared a portion of them for the final capitulation?

Obviously, Lee's losses all through the Obviously, Lee's losses all through the God, through His providence, to teach campaign are to be counted as the successive trophies of the victor, and it might even be said that the fewer troops Lee bad to surrender on the 9th of April say, he of good cheer. There is no orso much the greater was the triumph of say, he of good cheer. There is no oc-Grant.

The number of the Union army has also been everstated in the same way and the same and the patriots of the Revolu-to the same and of reducing the credit which a grateful nation gives to its first whon we needed it—when he went thro' general. Grant's forces, it is said, were Baltimore unscathed—when the waves 123,000 men reckening every man of Reballion were beating against him. under his immediate command, garrisons, Then he was spared to his country; but sick, &c, included, that number might now that his work is done, it remains for be reached, but it conveys no true idea of his actual available force that shared the fighting of this campaign. The corres- life and the strength of the Rebellion; it pondent above quoted puts that force at 75.000, with which estimate our own information and opinion pretty nearly coincide. In the final struggle, therefore, the number stood 75.000 to 67,000; for States, who has succeeded Abraham must have beet utilized.

than half his army, and compelled him to surrender the rest. And he did that dign punishment for treason are bloodin eleven days !

Three cuptains created the art. of war he who has gone before us have forseen as it exists to day in Eurobe-Marlborough, Frederic and Napoleon. Grant's last campaign entitles him to rank with either of the two former, and in several important elements of military greatness have informed his judgment, and we are and Sacramento have been fired upon be instructed by his death; and therefore and his elder brother were the only lived long enough to see the day dawn by a Portuguese fort. The Portuguese I say to you, my friends-not in the maintain that they attempted to follow apirit of revenge, not in the spirit of vin-the Rebel ram Stonewall before the expidictiveness, not in any spirit of bloodration of 24 hours, but the commanders thirstiness no, God forbid-should we of our vessels declare that they had no demand punishment upon those who have intention to leave, but were merely shift-caused this great wrong. (Applause.)—ing their anchorage. The nation demands it. The widowed to the Confederate sick and wounded.

Carolina, and next to the largest slave room, and stricken down the man whom holder in rebeldom, has proved himself God had spored a little longer, he would a good Union man, by liberating all his have known that mildness and elemency slaves, about one thousand in number, and to traitors is cruelty to thousands. But giving each family a piece of ground by now he has gone from us-the first vicwhich with their hire as laborers, they tim of his own elemency-with the words can support themselves.

Mr. Green, who was banished from Richmond for Union sentiments, returned justice and the execution of the law. there last Thursday, as United States Postmaster.

The Legislature of Tennessee will meet les in Washington on Sunday last, he met were a span long, and mine age is as noth on the 3d of May next to organize the a squad of Rebel prisoners conveyed by a were a span long, and mine age is as noth was the most sublime and magnificent one authorities, and are used for the care and speech of Gen. Butler.

A Prominent Virginian once prophesi- worthy wearer of the national blue. ed that the slave masters of his State would one day run away from their slaves. That prediction has been fulfiled.

Gen. Butler said : "But a day or two PRESID'T ABRAHAM LINCOLN dagger. It is left to us to exhibit the spectacle of a Rebellion crushed in its body, in its strength and blood, reviving itself by assassination and death. With that blind hate which has ever characterized its birth, it has struck down the most forgiving, the most lenient, the most gracious friend that the misguided men of the Rebellion have ever had in ments of his losses during the eleven days this country. (Applause.) If Rebellion. benevolent Abraham Lincoln, what ought we to de to those who from high places incited the assassin's mind and guided of war. And if we stop there, it is an extraordinary feat of generalshin to come of "Hang them!") Shall we content our selves with simply crushing out the

the actual bodily surrender—of an army so Shall we leave it yet unsubdued to light exhibit of the facts. It is not the number the torch of configration in our cities? exhibit of the facts. It is not the number which Lee surrendered at last but the number which Lee surrendered at last but the number which lie had at the beginning of the campaign that is the measure of the campaign that is the measure of his antagonist's superior genius. If Lee his antagonist's superior genius his dead our lord trains were bringing hundreds every hour. But the great points of attraction were blain, and honest; truthful and just; the blood of the everlasting covenant, make plain, and honest; truthful and just; the blood of the everlasting covenant, make plain, and honest; truthful and just; the blood of the everlasting covenant, make plain, and honest; truthful and just; the blood of the everlasting covenant, make plain, and honest; truthful and just; the blood of the everlasting covenant, make plain, and honest; truthful and just; the blood of the everlasting covenant casion for despondency. A great and good man has fallen in the fulness of his fame, in the height of his glory, to join of Rebellion were beating against him. us to do tout which is left for us to do in the same direction. He has subdued the is for us to take care of the soul. (Apteenth President of the United States, lay where had his hand and his mercy been plause.) I am glad to speak here, and on the grand and along we catafolous which say to you what I know to be the sentiment of the new President of the United the number stood 75,000 to 67,000; for all Lee's force must be reckoned, since in Lincoln, by the dispensation of Providence, to the highest place on earth. I know that Andrew Johnson feels as you and I do upon the subject of putting and I do upon the subject of putting and I do upon the Schellion. He had not been the continue to guide us, and that the would continue to guide us, and that the same hand would continue to guide us, and the same hand would continue to guide us, and the same hand would continue to guide us, and the same hand would continue to guide down the Rebellion. He has had a nearer With a numerical superiority of about 72,000 mon Geu. Grant forced his enemy out of the strongest defences on the continuous, and at his door, and he ocean, and the clergy, but also of country; hence, when he was leaving his then half his army, and compelled him deal with it. (Applause) It is said a nearer venerated tribunal, Chieftians who pro he humbly leaned; that they were the teet our Lomes by service in the field and best hopes he had for himself and his on the ocean, and the clergy, but also of country; hence, when he was leaving his multitudes in various positions in the home and coming to this city to take his affairs of State and from private life, and seat in the Executive chair, he said to that those who would recommend con-

Tickets of admission to the Executive leave you with this request—'Pray for me." They did nray for him and all leave you with this request—'Pray for me." thirsty. But oh, fellow citizens, could decorations. hundred, of which sixty were to the cler- they pray in vain. Never shall I forget it might not have checked the desire of gy, and twenty to members of the press. the comphasis and deep emotion with places him on a level even with the great would have been spared his death this and those mentioned already. Not a single rolative, if there are any, of the lamen conflict. "Gentlemen, my hope of such heard the last of efforts to belittle his that forgiveness meant assassination—ted President, outside of his wife and two questioned already. all the loyal Scates, friends of the family of clergymen who called to pay their rethat forgiveness meant assassination—ted President outside of his wife and two dess in this struggle rests on that immutha was only windy. have forseen that the devilish spirit of sons, was present. On Mrs. Lincoln's Gor. Aiken, the richest man in South Rebellion would have gone into the sick er gentlemen. But a son just attaining ening and prospects very dark, I still ton, Savannah, Richmond and Lee. manhood affectionately grieved for a lov- hope in some way which man cannot see ing father lost. Secretary Stanton, whose all will be well in the end." relation had been most intimate, and a of forgiveness upon his lips even as he Perhaps the most touching grief, and mingle with those of sorrow while there died. It is left for us to teview his which moved all present, was that of little is also dawnings of a brighter day, and The United States war steamers Niag. course, and see whether or not we are to Thaddeus Lincoln, the favorite son. He may God be praised that our fallen Chief funeral solemnities.

Presiden Johnson stood beside the retion. He saved it and was glad. When It is an error to think that a long face the sun has risen full, and a happy reunisis essential to good morals, or that laughmains of his lamented predecessor during ted people are rejoicing, its light will ing is an unpardonable crime.

the funeral solemnities.

It is an error to think that a long face is essential to good morals, or that laughmains of his lamented predecessor during ted people are rejoicing, its light will ing is an unpardonable crime.

Crem. Warren was removed from comthe head of the corpse, while members of be a consecrated and precious spot. the Cabinet and ex-Vice President Hamwives of thousands of our brave soldiers lin, were grouped about these eminent started. All of the bells in the city tolled A number of Confederate surgeous left alesping their last sleep upon a Southern personages. Amid such a scene the Rev. with minute gans firing. Pennsylvania in Richmond have been paroled, to attend soil ory out for it. The insulted majesty Dr L. Hall, Rector of the Church of the evenue, from the treasury to the Capitol, of the nation is determined upon it, and woe to him that obstructs the path of Episcopalian service for the burial of the The procession moved, headed by a color to the French Government, worth one dead, commencing, "Lord let me know ed regiment, with arms trailed, pretty million dollars in gold, and was fired by my end and the number of my days that much in the order of the published pro-Postmaster.

The Legislature of Tennessee will meet to The Mashington on Sunday last, he met the Legislature of Tennessee will meet to Tennessee w commonwealth under the new policy of freedom.

In the town of Moravia, N.Y., the flood a square or respondent to regard whereat he raved violently, protesting against the indignity offered his friends. A newspaper correspondent of the following is altogether vanity."

Bishop across the Potomac sent up their curling federate sick and wounded. Simpson, of the Methodist Church, then smoke with the re-echo of minute guns that

Funeral Obsecutes of

IN THE CAPITOL OF THE NATION. WASHINGTON, April 19 .- The solemn the estimate of numbers correct, the in- were raised in gladness. To day, in a the capital of the country. No greater known. Canst thou by searching find tators it was drawn by six grey horses; ference would not, and still less would the short hour, we assemble to mingle our fealty to the memory of the illustrious out God? Canst thou find out the Ale each one attended by a groom.

The nall-bearers were, on the country of the illustrious out God?

> mansion, which was almost entirely drap- Father. He gives us this bitter cup.over the city public houses and private the streets, and by ten o'clock the latter Probably no man since the days of Washwere in many places impassible. Penn- ington was ever so deeply and firmly emsylvania avenue, from Willard's to the bedded, and enshrined in the very heart White House, presented by noon one of the people, as Abraham Lincoln, nor were filled with military companies and merited it by his character, by his acts, civic processions. From a distance the and by the whole tenor and tone, and appointed. Every conceivable plan was and pure beyond a question. Always and

Between ten and eleven o'clock the rough all controlling and incorruptible.— cession dispersed.

A guard was then placed with the remains military escort arrived and formed in line It was the same in every place and relaand one battalion of marines. The marines cies of mind and heart and recommended were headed by the full marine band, and him to his fellow citizens as a man who, most sombre appearance. the other military companies were also in a time of unexampled peril, when the accompanied by bands. By twelve o'clock very life of the nation was at stake, should ple were in the streets here to-day to witness the hour for the funeral Pennsylvania be chosen to occupy in the country and the funeral ceremonies. avenue was lined from pavement to pave- for the country, its highest post of power ment all the way to the White House and responsibility. How wisely and well with thousands of people of all ages. At how purely, and faithfully, how firmly and that hour the ceremenics commenced in steadily, how justly and successfully he the East Room whose ceiling was draped did occupy that post and meet its grave with crape, and whose resplendent mirrors demands, is known to you all-known to were hung or bordered with the emblems the country and the world. He recognizof mourning, and white drapery gave the ed and received that truth that "the king room a dim light that added to the solem- dom is the Lord's, and He is the Govern uity of the mournful scene. All that or among nations." He remembered that remained of Abraham Lincoln, the six- God is in history, and he felt that noon the grand and gloomy catafalque, which so incipient as in the history of this was relieved, however, by choice flowers. nation. He hoped that the same hand The spectators of this sorrowful scene would continue to guide us, and that the venerated tribunal, Chieftians who pro he humbly leaned; that they were the pays over one million dollars. affairs of State and from private life, and seat in the Executive chair, he said to witness in the Chicago conspiracy case. an imposing army of Ambassadors with the old and tried friends who gathered

Mansion were issued to the number of six ions of others prayed for him, nor did The rest included the Governors of nearly which he said in this very room to a party portion of his household, mourned the ed President is slain, our beloved coundeprivation of a friend, and all of what- try is saved, and so we sing of mercy as mourners of the family present during the and the star of peace arise upon the na-

Epiphany, rose and read portions of the was entirely clear, from curb to curb. In the town of Moravia, N.Y., the flood washed a grave yard away, leaving coffins and bodies exposed, and washing many of the noticely away.

A newspaper correspondent of the newspaper c we recognize, we adore the sovereignty of The lower basis is fourteen feet long and God. His throne is in the heavens and seven wide and eight feet from the ground. his kingdom ruleth over all. He hath is eleven feet long and five feet, below the top done and the hath permitted to be done of the canopy. The canopy is springuised what he pleased. Clouds and darkness and by a gilt eagle covered with crape. The are around about him, righteousness and funeral rites and obseques to the late judgement are the habitation of his throne crape and alpacea. The seat is covered with President Lincoln were paid to day by His way is in the sea and his north in cloth, and on each side is a splendid lamp. the victory was glerious only as a "moral" peace and a happy country to the future. President Lincoln were paid to day by His way is in the sea, and his path in The car is fifteen feet high, and the coffin was triumph—whatever that may be. Were The flags, now the tokens of mourning, the homage of the American people in great waters, and his foot steps are not so placed as to afford a full view to all spec-innuendo be pardonable which some jourmals have built upon it.

But there is mourn the loss of the honest man, the of civilization. The remains of this great than 2 Decare the sum of the part of the dead was ever demonstrated in the annals mighty unto perfection? It is as high as Senate, Foster, of Conn. Morgan, of N. Y.; nals have built upon it. But there is mourn the loss of the honest man, the of civilization. The remains of this great Heaven. What canst thou do? Deeper Johnson, of Mo.; Yates, of Ill.; Wade, of Ohio; inale bave built upon it. But there is abundant evidence as to the strength of Lee's army, and the following statement dent of yesterday's Times says:

I had an estimate made by one of Gen. Hill's (or Longstreet's) staff, and, as it is no doubt a very fair one, I append it.

Ewell's corps
Longstreet's command
Hill's corps
Anderson's corps
Ander

ceeded and the day that followed, to the assassin which smote our honored, wise not go out. Next was President Johnson setting of the sun, was the loveliest of the and noble President, and filled the land riding in a carriage with Gen. Augur on his setting of the sun, was the lovenest of the and noble President, and filled the land right, and Gen Slough on his left, mounted season. The heavens were undimmed by with sorrow. But above and beyond Following him were the Cabinet, Chief Justines and the land right, and Gen Slough on his left, mounted. even one passing cloud.

that hand there is another, which we tice Chase, and the Supreme Beach and DipAt a very early hour people began to must see and acknowledge. It is the lomatic Corps, who were succeeded by the "Browning's Excelsior,"

Following him were the Cabinet, Chief Justice Chase, and the Supreme Beach and Diptice Chase, and the Supreme Beach and Diplomatic Corps, who were succeeded by the "Browning's Excelsior," assemble in the vicinity of the executive chastening hand of a wise and faithful Senators and members of Congress at present here.

The procession then moved two miles more ed in crape, as were also the buildings, and the cup that our Father has given and was composed of public officers, delegapublic and private, in the vicinity. All us, shall we not drink it? us, shall we not drink it?"

After alluding to the afflicting hand of societies, together with another large display residences were closed. The emblems of Providency in death, the reverend gen- of the military. Some 5,000 colored mer mourning appeared on every cornice, and tleman thus spoke of the President: "I were a prominent feature towards the end. were fastened from every window. The Have said that people confided in the late uses passing a given point and was about inmates poured forth by thousands into President with full and loving confidence, three miles long. The centre of it had even reached the capitol and was returning before the rear had left Willdads.

Arriving at the Capitol the remains were placed in the center of the rotunda, beneath dense mass of people, while the adjacent was it a mistaked confidence and love. mourning inside and out. Rev. Dr. Gurley, streets, for half a mile in every direction He deserved it well; deserved it all. He in the presence of hundreds, impressively as follows: "And now may the God of peace, commit these precious remains, and to whose put into operation to enter the enclosure, everywhere, he endeavored to be right name be glory forever and forever. Amen," but none succeeded in doing so.

and to de right. His integrity was the assignment of the pro-as the sun was just going down on another. on Pennsylvania avenue, the left resting tion. In the consideration and control history of the 19th of April. The most vivid on Fifteenth street. The escort consist- of matters, great or small, the same prin- mind can hardly picture the sublime s ght ed of two regiments of infantry, two bat-ciple of power and beauty that shed so that is in the rotunda to-night. Standing talions of cavalry, eight pieces of artillery, clear a lustre upon all his other excellent near and looking far up to the dome, it appears as if the heavers were hung in black, the reflection of rows of gas jets giving it a

It is carefully estimated that 125,000 peo-

The Petroleum fever is increasing in California.

Inn-experienced men are said to make the best landlords

It ain't often that a man's reputashun outlasts his munny.

The State debt of Connecticut is now about eight millions.

The coining of silver money has just been authorized in Rome. The rice crop in Siam is a failure, and its export has been forbidden.

The only Union General killed in the Forrest's army is breaking up, most of them are going home to Texas. Vallandigham has been summoned as a Nearly $1,000,000 has been invested their less elevated attaches with gorgeous around him and bade him farewell, "I in land at Lockport, Mich., for oil boring. The theatre of war differs from all others, because the back seats are the most comfortable.

Lee confessed to General Grant that Johnston's entire force would not number more than 10,000.

Don't mistake arrogance for wisdom meny pepil have that tha wus wise, when

The Falls of Niagara are interesting table foundation, the justice and goodness side there were Gen. Todd and three oth- of God. and when events are very threat- but not so much so as the falls of Charles-

Connecticut has gone Republican by All my stock of Merchandise over 12,000 majority. Bully for the "nutmeg" State, where shall we find a 'grater.'

In conclusion he said though our belov-

At 2 p. m., the funeral procession

Poor Brigham Young is a widower .-One of his wives died on the 23d ult.soever degree, sorrowed for the chief. well as judgement. Tears of gratitude She was the handsomest of all his wives, except six.

Dick morgan, Brother of John Morgan has been sentenced to the Illinois Penitentiary, Alton, for life.

It is an error to think that a long face

Gen. Warren was removed from command of the Fifth corps and succeeded by Gen. Gibbons. This was done, it is reported, for disobedience of orders.

A warehouse opposite the Pemberton Prison was filled with tobbacco belonging comfort equally of the Federal and Con-fact to the Navy Department, which summarily dismissed from the service the unworthy wearer of the national blue.

A 1000 pound boy is exhibited in Chicago.

A 1000 pound boy is exhibited in Chicag

BROWNING'S CEBEBRATED COFFEE.

Whilst trying Coffee of all the various brands. Remember "BBOWNING'S EXCELSIOR".

at the bead it stands. it's not like others that are "SOLD EVERYWHERE."

A little stretch; we all do know, good goods will easily bear, (But a stretch like this—"sold everywhere"- is very apt to tear.)

Now, I can safely say, without any hesitation. There's none like "BROWNING'S EXCRLSI-OR" in this enlightened nation.

Skilled chemists have not found a Coffee from any store Possessing the same ingredients as "Brown-Nor is there any one, in or cut of the Coffee

Who knows the articles from which "Brownisg's Excelsior" is made.
I'm told it's made from barley, rye, wheat, Denns, and peas;
Name a thousand other things but the RIGHT UNE if you please. But with the Coffee-men I will not hold contention. For the many, many things they say-too numerous too mention. Whilst they're engaged in running round

"Browning's Excelsior," Some who know my Coffee gives perfect satisfaction, Have formed a plan by which they hope to cause a quick reaction.

The case—'tis with a few; no doubt 'twill be with more— To name their Coffee after mine, (BROWNne say their's the only brand that will.

Now try a little of them all—see which you like the best. Three years have passed away since I first sold a store; Never have I in your paper advertised before Nor would I now, or ever consent to publish more,

If like some used by "everybody," "sold everywhere," in "every store."

4 trade like this I do not wish; the orders could not fill:

The Factory all Jersey's lard would take leave not a foot to till. My trade is not so very large; still I think I have my skare;
But, reader, you may rest assured, 'tis NOT
"SOLD EVERYWHERE."

Manufactured and for Sale by the writer, GEORGE L. BROWNING, No. 20 Market street Camden, N. J.

This Coffee is not composed of poisonous drugs, it contains nothing deleterious; many persons use this Coffee that cannot use the pure coffee; it takes but one and a half ounces to make a quart of good strong coffee, that being just one-half the quantity it takes of Java Coffee, and always less than half the price.

RETAIL DEALERS may purchase it in less quantities than ten gross at my prices from the Wholesale Grocers.

nen Orders by mail from Wholesale Dealers promptly attended to.

FOR SALE

THE Subscriber offers for Sale the follow ing tracts of land, to wit:
One tract of One Hundred and Forty-three ind seven-tenths acres in Pike township, Potter county, on the Genesee Forks. Price $1100. Sixty acres are improved, with one log barn, frame kitchen, frame barn, forty good fruit trees, and two hundred sugar-maple trees. The farm will cut grass, in a good season, sufficient, at present prices, to pay for it.

Also, another tract of Fifty-six and two-tenths acres, in Eulalia township, four miles from Coudersport, Thirty acres of which are The Baltimore papers are calling for a improved, with one frame house, log barn, and some fruit trees thereon. Price $450.

Also, a Wagon Shop and haif lot in the Borough of Condersport, one lot west of P. A. Stebbins' & Co's Store near Glassmire's Hotel. The tools, lumber, &c., can be bought rea-Of the special income tax, California sonably; or a portion of them, if the purchaser so desires. Work.

A reduction of ten per cent will be made for Cash down. For further particulars enquire of the sub-scriber at his Wagon-Shop in Coudersport. Feb. 20, 1865.

I wish all persons having open account with me to call and settle immediately.

Cheap for Cash

Consisting of CLOTHING.

BOOTS, and

CROCKERY, GROCERIES, TOOLS, &c., &c.,

1 Good Horse and Harness. 3 Wagons, 1 Sulkey, 1 Sleigh; 1 Cutter, The privilege of a good Ashery in complete working order. 15 Cents paid for good ASHES LUCIEN BIRD. Brookland, Pa., Sept., 1864.

Dr. A. FRENCH's CELEBRATED TONIC BITTERS A RE becoming the most popular Medicine in circulation for the cure of LIVER COMPLAINT, DYSPEPSIA. JAUN-DICE, DEBISITY OF THE NERVOUS SYSTEM, and WEAKNESS of the STOEACH and DIGESTIVE ORGANS.

It is also gaining a great reputation in the CURE of DIPTHERIA.

Principal Office, Coudersport, Potter Co., Pa.

FRUIT TREES.

GOOD, assortment of Fruit Trees

Chicago.

As a navy officer of Secession sympa

what would have been the end of his policy of his clemency and forgiveness.