CLOVER BLOSSOMS.

There's a modest little blossom Blooming closely to the ground, While its wealth of sweetest perfume Thirlls through all the air around. White and pure a field of clover, In the sunny summer day, Brings a calm my spirit over,

In the rich man's terraced garden Many a fair exotic twines; Many a gaily tinted flower 'Neath the glossy foliage shines. By the poor man's lowly cottage, Violets sweetest odors yield; Yet I love the air of freedom

Sweet as music far away.

Blowing from a clover field. Lillies in the Valley growing, Roses in their blushing pride, These may wreathe their regal beauty, Fitly for the youthful bride. Laurel wreaths may shit the poet,
Forest flowers may lure the child
I would only ask the clover,
Meek and modest, brave and mild.

Little cares my hardy flower, Though the soil be poor and dry; Blooming by the dirty wayside, Blessing all who pass thereby. Let me learn the gentle lesson,

Even in my lowly way, Working bravely, like the clover, In the sultry summer day,
