

The President and the Union Party.

The insolence with which the Democratic leaders in this State claim the support of President Johnson is simply astonishing. We are pretty well hardened to all sorts of misrepresentation at the hands of Democratic partisans, but this caps the climax. Without the slightest warrant in anything he has said or done, they coolly assume, and assure their followers, that President Johnson is about to turn his back upon the party which nominated and elected him, whose principles he cordially indorses, who carried the war against rebellion to a successful close, and upon whom alone he can now depend for support, and take into his exclusive favor the party which has denounced him without measure all through the war, and from whom he has never received a vote or a voice in praise of his character or in support of his policy.

In all these assertions, so boldly put forth and constantly reiterated, there is not the slightest foundation in anything President Johnson has done or said, in public or in private, since his accession to the Presidency. When John Tyler deserted the party that made him President, he began by dismissing the Cabinet of his predecessor and replacing the office-holders of his appointment. President Johnson has done nothing of the sort. He has made no change in his Cabinet. He has appointed but one Democrat to office, and that was a personal friend and a man of thoroughly loyal antecedents. Every change he has made anywhere, has been in favor of the party and the men who were most active and effective in sustaining the Administration throughout the war. Not a Copperhead nor adherent of the Democratic organization, with the single exception we have referred to has received an appointment however humble, at his hands. Does this look like court-jog the favor, or seeking the support of the Democratic party at the expense of the great Union organization which has carried the country through the war?

On the contrary, look at the appointments made since his accession to office in every department of the public service. Look at the selections for office in Boston and in this city. Vice-President Hamlin, Mr. Cooch, R. H. Dana, for Boston; Preston King and Daniel S. Dickenson for New York—all Republicans and thorough going Union men, as are all he has appointed anywhere,—and say if this looks like turning his back on the Union party?

Nor has President Johnson said a syllable on any occasion, or to anybody, to encourage any such expectation or belief. Every public address he has made has been in exactly the opposite direction. Whenever he has said anything on the subject of the war, it has been in denunciation of treason, and of all who sympathized with or aided it. Whenever he has spoken of slavery, he has insisted upon the ratification of the constitutional amendment, against which the party now claiming his support has always arrayed itself in solid column. While he tells the people of the South that they must ratify it, the Democrats of New Jersey are straining every nerve to defeat it. While he tells the South to nominate for Congress none but men who can take the oath required by law, the Democrats are demanding its repeal. While he is speaking words of hope and encouragement to the enfranchised slaves, the Democrats are denouncing the negro and branding as fanatical every man who seeks for them justice and equal rights. And they are asserting roundly and loudly, that Mr. Johnson has declared that this is "the white man's country"—he contradicts the falsehood by telling the negroes, openly and in person, that "it is their country as much as anybody else's country." In all this what possible ground do they find for their claims that President Johnson has abandoned the Union party and belongs to them?

Nor is there the slightest foundation for the insinuations in which the Democratic organs so freely indulge, that President Johnson has communicated privately to them his wish that the Democratic party in this State, or in any other, may succeed at the coming election. John Van Buren gives out mysterious hints of what was said to him by the President on that subject,—but he is not in the habit of keeping secret private conversations with him, or with anybody else, when he can make anything by repeating them. The Tribune was good enough to report something which the President was supposed to have said to Dean Richmond on the subject, and the World expended a column in the effort to make its Democratic readers believe that Mr. Johnson gave its editor some very significant and encouraging hints upon this subject. Now, in reply to all this, we assert and not without warrant, that President Johnson has never, in conversation with John Van Buren, with Dean Richmond, or with anybody else, ever said anything indicating, directly or indirectly, any wish or hope that the Democratic party might carry the State this Fall. On the contrary, we know that he takes a decided interest in the success of the Union ticket, and would feel its failure to be a great misfortune to the country and to his administration.

We say this now because we feel it to be due, not only to the Union party of the State, but also to President Johnson himself. We have not said it before, because we did not deem it possible that any party could persist in such a preposterous and unprecedented style of warfare as the Democratic leaders are puruing. But it seems to be their whole stock in trade. Not content with pretending to support President Johnson himself, they are determined to drive every Union man away from him by these wholesale and outrageous misrepresentations. Indeed their main anxiety is to deprive him of the support of those who have been his only friends hitherto, and to reduce him to dependence solely and exclusively on the hypocritical and venal friendship which they pretend to offer. They mistake his character as much as they mistake the temper and intelligence of the people whom they seek to mislead.—N. Y. Times.

PENNSYLVANIA.

When the war of the rebellion was precipitated, the then authorities at Washington, calculated that sixty thousand men and three months would be sufficient force and time to crush the plot of treason. It is not necessary now to refer to the fact that this calculation of a force of necessity to arrest rebellion was woefully wrong, and that instead of requiring three months, four years, four terrible, weary, bloody, and self-sacrificing years were consumed in the struggle to restore the Union to peace. But it is a curious fact that one of the States of the Union has furnished almost five times as many men to aid in crushing rebellion, as was at first demanded of all the States, to accomplish that result.

On inquiry in the office of the Adjutant General, A. L. Russell, for information relative to the full number of men furnished by the State of Pennsylvania, as recruits for the armies of the Republic, we were placed in possession of the following letter:

WAR DEPARTMENT, PRO. MAR. GEN.'S OFFICE.
Washington, D. C., Sept. 2, 1865.
His Excellency, A. G. CURTIS, Gov. of Pennsylvania.
Sir: I have the honor to inform you that the number of men furnished by the State of Pennsylvania from April 15, 1861, to April 29, 1865, is three hundred and thirty-nine thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine (339,939), without reference to periods of service, which varied from three months to three years, according to the receipt.

I have the honor to be, sir, very respectfully, your obedient servant, JAMES B. FAR, Pro. Mar. Gen. The number of men predicted to Pennsylvania, in the foregoing official account tallies so closely with the records that we are willing to accept it as correct. But there are other official records besides those kept at Washington of men furnished by Pennsylvania, to aid in crushing the rebellion, which greatly swell the aggregate force we sent into the field. These records show, that for State defence and in response to the demands of sudden emergencies, Pennsylvania put into the field at various times a force of between 86,000 and 90,000 men. On several occasions we had a cordon of bayonets stretched along the southern border of the State. Then again, the number of men who were induced to leave the State for enlistment in other States, was very large. The border counties of New York along the entire border line, were paying heavy bounties before the counties in this State along the same line, offered pecuniary inducements for enlistments. The same inducements were offered to citizens of Pennsylvania by other border States. An entire regiment was raised in the western counties of Pennsylvania for Western Virginia. In New Jersey, for a time enlistments were largely discouraged by the copperhead leaders, so that loyal men in districts in that State, were compelled to fill up their quotas, were compelled to find substitutes through the influence of heavy bounties offered to the people of Pennsylvania. Nor was it only the States immediately on our border that filled their quotas from among our citizens. States on the Pacific coast did the same; in proof of which we need only refer to the fact that a full regiment was recruited in the city of Philadelphia, for the State of California a regiment afterwards commanded by one of the California United States Senators. Carefully estimating the men thus raised and enlisted in various localities, we put down the aggregate number of troops thus furnished by Pennsylvania at 25,000. Indeed so great was this drain on our military resources that the Legislature passed a law sternly forbidding the enlistment of men within the borders of the State for service in the organizations of other States, and districts emphatically declared that the families of those thus leaving the Commonwealth, should not receive the benefits of the relief offered to the families of those thus leaving the Commonwealth, should not receive the benefits of the relief offered to the families of soldiers in Pennsylvania organizations. Nor must we forget the large number of colored troops that were enlisted in Pennsylvania for other States. At least 2,500 colored troops went into service in other States, who were taken out of Pennsylvania. Taking these figures as fair estimates we have the following:

Recapitulation of Troops Furnished by the State of Pennsylvania, to Aid in Restoring the National Authority in the Revolted States:
Number of men, regularly furnished and accounted for by the Pro. Mar. of the U. S., 339,939
Number of men in the aggregate called at various times to meet emergencies growing out of the attempted invasion of the North by the rebel army of Northern Virginia, 90,000
Number of men who left Pennsylvania to enlist in other States, 86,000
Number of colored men who left Pennsylvania, on account of their being no opportunity for colored troops to enlist in this State, 2,500
Aggregate number of troops furnished by the State of Pennsylvania to sustain the National Authority, 518,439

The above is a record of which the State may well feel proud, and taken in connection with the other fact—the reduction of our State debt—reflects honor and credit upon the patriotism and fidelity of the people of the Keystone State and their public servants, who administered its affairs.

In a recent speech at his home, Secretary Harlan argued in favor of allowing blacks to vote on the same conditions on which whites do.

CAUTION FROM THE AMERICAN WATCH COMPANY.

It having come to our knowledge that imitations of the American Watch have been put upon the market in great number, calculated by their utter worthlessness to injure the reputation of our genuine products, to protect our own interests and the public from imposition, we again publish the trade marks by which our Watches may invariably be known.

- We manufacture four styles of Watches. The First has the name "AMERICAN WATCH CO." Waltham, Mass., engraved on the inside plate. The Second has the name "APPLETON, TRACY & CO., Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate. The Third has the name "P. S. BARTLETT, Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate. All the above styles have the name American Watch Co. painted on the dial, and are warranted in every respect. The Fourth has the name "W. M. ELLERY, Boston, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate, and is not named on the dial.

All the above described watches are made of various sizes, and are sold in gold or silver cases, as may be required. It is hardly possible for us to accurately describe the numerous limitations to which we have alluded. They are usually inscribed with names, so nearly approaching our own as to escape the observation of the unaccustomed buyer. Some are represented as made by the "Union Watch Co., of Boston, Mass.,"—no such company existing. Some are named the "Soldier's Watch," to be sold as our Fourth or Wm. Ellery style, usually known as the "Soldier's Watch." Others are named the "Appleton Watch Co.," others the "P. S. Bartlett," instead of our "P. S. Bartlett," besides many varieties named in such a manner as to convey the idea that they are the veritable productions of the American Watch Company.

We also caution the public, and particularly soldiers, against buying certain articles called watches, so freely advertised in illustrated papers as "Army Watches," "Officer's Watches," "Magic Time Observers," "Aerona Watches," &c., the prices of which are stated to be from seven to sixteen dollars. A good watch, in these times, cannot be afforded for any such money. A little attention on the part of buyers will protect them from gross imposition. Ayer's SARSAPARILLA,

THE WORLD'S GREAT REMEDY FOR Scrofula and Scrofulous Diseases.

From Emery Edes, a well-known merchant of New York, Maine. "I have sold large quantities of your SARSAPARILLA, but never yet one bottle which failed of its desired effect and full satisfaction to those who took it. As fast as our people try it, the feverish humors are broken up, and the system is purified. Eruptions, Pimples, Blisters, Fustules, Ulcers, Sores, and all Diseases of the Skin. From Rev. Robt. Stratton, Bristol, England. "I only do my duty to you and the public, when I add my testimony to that of your kind and successful medicine. My daughter, aged ten, had an afflicting humor in her face, eyes, and hair for years, which we were unable to cure until we tried your SARSAPARILLA. She has been well for some months."

From Mrs. June E. Rice, a well-known and much-esteemed lady of Danversville, Cape May Co., N. J. "My daughter has suffered for a year past with a scrofulous eruption, which was very troublesome. Nothing afforded any relief until we tried your SARSAPARILLA, which soon completely cured her."

From Charles P. Gage, Esq., of the village of Gage, Murray Co., manufacturers of enamelled paper in Nashua, N. H. "I had for several years a very troublesome humor in my face, which grew constantly worse until it became a great nuisance and a considerable affliction. I tried almost every thing a man could do both advice and medicine, but without any relief whatever, until I took your SARSAPARILLA. It immediately made my face worse, as you told me it might for a time; but in a few weeks the new humors began to form under the blotches, and continued until my face is as smooth as any body's, and I am without any symptoms of the disease that I know of. I enjoy perfect health, and without a doubt owe it to your SARSAPARILLA."

Erysipelas—General Debility—Purify the Blood. From Dr. Robt. Smith, Houston St., New York. "Dr. AYER'S Sarsaparilla will remove Eruptions and Scrofulous Sores by the persevering use of your SARSAPARILLA, and I have just now cured an attack of Malignant Erysipelas with it. No alternative we possess equals the Sarsaparilla which you have supplied to the profession as well as to the people."

From J. P. Johnson, Esq., of Wakenam, Ohio. "I have used your SARSAPARILLA for several years, and my right arm, during which time I tried all the celebrated physicians I could reach, and took hundreds of dollars worth of medicines. The ailment was such that the cords became visible, and the doctors decided that my arm must be amputated. I began taking your SARSAPARILLA, and together they have cured me. I am now as well and sound as my body. Being in a public place, my case is known to every body in this community, and excites the wonder of all."

From Hon. Henry Monroe, M. P., of Newcastle, W. Va., a leading member of the General Assembly. "I have used your SARSAPARILLA in my family, for general debility, and for the cure of various other ailments, with very beneficial results, and feel confident in commending it to the afflicted."

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Sore Eyes. From Harvey Slicker, Esq., the able editor of the Franklinian, New York. "My only child, about three years of age, was attacked by pimples on his forehead. The eruption spread until it covered his face, and he became very ill, sores which covered his face, and actually blinded his eyes for some days. A skilful physician applied nitrate of silver and other remedies, but without apparent effect. For five days we guarded his hands, lest with them he should tear open the festering and corrupt wounds which covered his face. Having tried every thing else we had any hope from, we began giving your SARSAPARILLA, and applying the liniment which you have given direct. The sores began to heal when we had given the first bottle, and was well when we had finished the second. The child's eyes opened, and he is now as healthy and fair as any other. The whole neighborhood predicted that the child must die."

Syphilis and Mercurial Diseases. From Dr. Hiram Stone, of St. Louis, Missouri. "I find your SARSAPARILLA a more effectual remedy for the secondary symptoms of Syphilis and for syphilitic diseases than any other I possess. For persons so debilitated to you for some of the best medicines we have."

From A. J. French, M. D., an eminent physician of Lawrence, Mass. "I have found your SARSAPARILLA a more effectual remedy for the primary and secondary type, and yield in some cases that were too obstinate to yield to other remedies. I have used it with great success, with more certainty of success, where a powerful alterative is required."

Mr. Chas. S. Fox, Esq., of New Brunswick, N. J., has used your SARSAPARILLA with the most successful results, and has cured many cases of Syphilis, and other diseases, which were more aggravated for years, in spite of every remedy or treatment that had been applied, until he persevering use of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA relieved him. Few cases can be found more inveterate and distressing than this, and it took several dozen bottles to cure him.

Leucorrhoea, Whites, Female Weakness, are generally produced by internal Scrofulous Irritation, and are very often cured by the alterative effect of this SARSAPARILLA. Some cases, however, in spite of the SARSAPARILLA, the skillful application of local remedies.

From the well-known and widely-esteemed Dr. Jacob Horvitz, of Cincinnati. "I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent alternative in diseases of the liver, such as Irregularity, Leucorrhoea, Internal Ulceration, and local debility, arising from the scrofulous diathesis, have yielded to it, and the cure has been complete, when as a direct is properly aided by local treatment."

A lady, unwilling to allow the publication of her name, writes: "My daughter and myself have been cured of a very troublesome Leucorrhoea, and other ailments, by the use of your SARSAPARILLA. Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Neuralgia, when caused by Scrofula in the system, are rapidly cured by this EXR. SARSAPARILLA."

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS

possess so many advantages over the other purgatives in the market, and their superior virtues are so universally known, that we need not do more than to assure the public that their quality is maintained equal to that of the original. It has been, and they may be depended on to do all that they have ever done.
