AN IMMENSE EMIGRATION.

An immense emigration will pour into the Southern States with the restoration of peace. Thousands of southern refugees, from all the towns and cities of the North, will return mone; thousands of northern soldiers will propose to have it chartered. This is a subject that can be made highly intermove in the same direction, and settle, in the closest bonds of union, among their southern brethren; and, in obedience to the laws of very much to blame. demand and supply, thousands of northern farmers, mechanics, and laborers, will swell the mighty volume for the repeopling and rebuilding the waste places of "the snany South." In anticipation of this grand diversion of the tide of emigration, and from the increasing demands upon them, the proprietors of HOSTET ER'S CELEBRATED STOM-ACH BITTERS are putting up additional thousands of boxes of their universally popu-
