AN IMMENSE EMIGRATION.

An immense emigration will pour into the Southern States with the restoration of peace. Thousands of southern refugees, from all the towns and cities of the North, will return home; thousands of northern soldiers will move in the same direction, and settle in the closest bonds of union, among their southern brethren; and, in obedience to the laws of demand and supply, thousands of northern farmers, mechanics, and laborers, will swell the mighty volume for the ceoeping and rebuilding the waste places of the "sunny South." In anticipation of this grand diversion of the tide of emigration, and from the increasing demands upon them, the proprietors of HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS, are putting up additional thousands of boxes of their universally popular tonic and alterative.

We have the testimony of soldiers, sailors, travelers, trappers, miners, emigrants, refugees, farmers and planters, North and South, "a cloud of witnesses," that as a safe and reliable remedial agent, and as a protection against all the complaints incident to exposure, privations, changes of climate, diet, water, and habits of life, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, used as directed, are worth their weight in gold, North or South.—[Com.]

It is also proper to state that the Bitters are sold exclusively in glass, and never under circumstances by the gallon or the barrel. Impositions and imitations are abroad, and the only safeguard the public has against them is to see that the Bitters they buy have the engraved label and note of hand of Messrs. Hostetter & Smith, and our proprietary stamp over the cork of the bottle.

ALCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS CURE LUMBAGO, PAINS OF THE SIDE, RHEUMATISM, SORE CHEST, &c. An Electrician, who has great experience of their effects in local rheumatism, in the doctoreux, and deep-seated nervous and other pains, attributes all their sedative, stimulative, and pain-relieving effects to their electric qualities. He asserts they restore the healthy electric condition (equilibrium) of the part, and that being restored, pain and morbid action cease.

LAME BACK. Brandt House, New York, Nov. 23, '89. T. Attkock & Co.—Gentlemen: I lately suffered severely from a weakness in my back. Having heard your Plasters much recommended in cases of this kind I procured one, and the result was all that I could desire. A single Plaster cured me in a week.

THE POTTER COUNTY JOURNAL

Coudersport, Tuesday Evening, Feb. 20, 1865.

Local and General.

Court is in session this week.

Dr. Penny, of Lock Haven, advertises in another column that he will be in Coudersport about the 26th of February.

There will be an exhibition given by the Principal and Students of the Coudersport Academy on Wednesday evening of next week the 28th.

Our next paper will be published on Saturday. Parties having advertisements for insertion will please take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

Our Member, Mr. Mann, had the honor of introducing in the House the Bill which is referred to in another column, and which abolishes the State Tax on real estate.

The Harrisburg Telegraph says there seems to be no doubt of the nomination of Gen. Geary, on the first ballot.

There will be a Donation Party at the M. E. Parsonage on Friday evening of this week. Let all the friends attend.

The Thermometer indicated 16° below zero on last Friday morning, and it continued very cold during the day.

Don't forget the Literary Lecture to-night (Monday). Admission, 25 cents. The Temperance Lecture will be given in the Court House, Tuesday evening. Admission, FREE.

RARE CHANCE FOR A PRINTER.—A journeyman printer who is competent to take charge of the mechanical department of a weekly paper can procure a very desirable situation by addressing either of the following gentlemen at Emporium, Cameron county, Pa.: F. B. Hackett, C. M. Dickinson, H. T. Taggart, or A. E. Kelley.

We are pleased to hear that the Republicans of Cameron County have purchased the Citizen office at Emporium and are about establishing a distinct Republican paper. We understand further that C. M. Dickinson, Esq. will have charge of the editorial department of the paper, which is evidence that it will rank high as a literary journal. We wish the new enterprise every success.—Minor.

Tax on Whisky.—It is asserted at Washington, that whisky dealers and manufacturers may set it down as certain that there will be no reduction in the tax upon that article, as is suggested in the report of the Tax Commissioner. The Ways and Means Committee are almost unanimously opposed to such reduction, and the steadiness of the market, in the face of the proposition, is pretty good evidence that holders have no fear of a sudden decline of one dollar per gallon in that popular article.

At a meeting of the members of the Republican County Committee, held in pursuance of notice, L. Rogers was recommended as Representative, Delegate, and Warren Cowles as Senatorial Delegate to the State Convention which is to be held at Harrisburg, March 7, 1865.—McKean Miner.

We are under obligations to Hon. G. W. Scofield for a copy of a Lecture delivered before the Soldiers' and Sailors' Union League of Washington, on the evening of November 14, 1865, by CURTIS LLOYD, Esq., Chief Clerk House of Representatives. It is entitled the "Great Lesson of the War," and is written in that clear, forcible, and nervous manner peculiar to Mr. Lloyd. Our citizens will remember him as the orator who made the powerful speech at the close of the afternoon meeting in 1864.

We are in receipt of the Annual Report of the Trustees and Superintendent of the State Lunatic Asylum, at Harrisburg. From it we learn that on the first day of January 1865 there were 281 patients in the Hospital, viz.—151 males, and 130 females; and that during the year 153 patients were admitted—males 77 and females 76. The number discharged or died during the same period, was 128, as follows.—Restored 40, improved 38, stationary 15, died 35—males 61, females 67. The number remaining in the Hospital on December 31st, 1865, was 306, of whom 157 were males, and 149 females. The number remaining in the Hospital is stated to be larger than at any former period.

THE CAMERON CRISIS.—We regret exceedingly to be compelled to announce the demise of this paper. It was resuscitated some three months since under the most flattering auspices. Never did a community evince greater desire to sustain their press than did the citizens of Cameron county to sustain the Citizen. The business men, not only in Emporium, but all over the county filled its columns with their advertisements at the publisher's rates. More job work was given to the office than could be done, or at least was done, and every effort was made on the part of the people to make the office a paying one, but how did the young men who controlled the office appreciate such generosity? By proving false to every principle of honor and decency. They neglected their business by spending their time in billiard saloons and drinking places, and took advantage of the kindness extended to them by borrowing all the money they could of their friends, running in debt to every man who would trust them with goods or board, and then sneaked from the county like the guiltiest criminals. They better never show themselves again in Cameron county, for they could look for nothing but harsh treatment from a community they have so grossly outraged. We hope the Citizen will soon be revived and under more favorable auspices.—McKean Miner.

ADVICE TO THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY.—The following advice to the Democratic party is timely and to the point. It is from the late issue of the New York Herald. Let sensible Democrats read and ponder.

The attempt of the Democratic members of Congress to keep up the distinct organization of their party is a useless and unprofitable task. The Democratic party of past days is defunct. It was shattered by old hunkerism and secessionism before the rebellion, and it was slaughtered by Copperheadism, during that period. The Democratic legislation of former years prepared the way for the final collapse of the party. The trucking of the Pierce Administration to the Southern freeters was followed by the incapacity of the blundering Administration of old Buchanan. These were both Democratic Administrations, and the worst that ever ruled the country.

THE POSITION OF THADDEUS STEVENS.—In the course of a debate in the House of Representatives, on Saturday last, Hon. Thaddeus Stevens defined his position in reference to the status of the late revolted States. He said he never held the doctrine that the Southern States were dead, but had argued it made no difference whether they were in or out of the Union, as to the question of reconstruction. He held that these States were organized under another government besides our own. His position as to confiscation was also misapprehended. He did not advocate a general sweep, but that the lands of a large number of the rebels ought to be confiscated in order to meet the expenses incurred in putting down the rebellion, and to increase the pensions of soldiers.

Buffalo and Washington Railway.

A meeting of the Stock Holders of this Company was held at the Telfs House in the city of Buffalo on the 7th inst., and it was voted to increase the capital stock of the Company to three millions of dollars.

At a subsequent meeting of the Board of Directors the following were elected as officers: William G. Fargo, President; James Bragley, Vice President; James S. Gibbs, Secy.; Abel T. Blackmar, Treasurer; William Wallace, Chief Engineer.

The citizens of Buffalo and along the line of this road are becoming fully alive to the importance of this work, and the great necessity of it in procuring an ample and full supply of cheap coal from the rich coal-field of Pennsylvania, and in the choice of the above named gentlemen as directors and officers of the company the people have a sure guarantee that the road will be completed early and prosecuted rapidly to its completion.
