

THE JOURNAL

Coudersport, Pa.

Tuesday, May 22, 1866.

M. W. McALARNEY, Editor.

FOR GOVERNOR:
GEN'L J. W. GEARY,
Of Cumberland county.

A New Haven Lady has a little boy about two years old, of dark complexion, who was sent into the sitting room to amuse himself. Soon his mother heard a crash, and on going into the room found a fine mirror broken into small pieces. On being asked what he had done it for, he said he was not going to have that curly headed "brack" boy making up faces at him.

The Copperhead papers are howling finely about the expense of the Freedmen's Bureau and publishing long columns of statistics showing the cost of supporting "lazy niggers." The real truth they carefully keep from their readers—which is that about one dollar out of five expended by that Bureau for provisions in the South has been and is now contributed for the support of the poor whites who have been made destitute by the rebellion. Prejudice, with the ignorant, is more effective than reason, and the advocates of a bad cause always find it more convenient to appeal to it than to inform those affected by it.

Hon. Glenn W. Scofield, the able Representative from the "Wild Cat" District made a speech in the House, on the 23rd day of April, and which we publish in another column. This is one of the best of his many able efforts, and all who have the least desire to inform themselves on the question now so severely agitating the public mind will read it carefully and remember its pertinent truths. We are glad to learn that there is a strong feeling in favor of his renomination. Surely the Erie District cannot afford to set aside one who has proved himself so powerful in debate, and so honorable, manly, and upright in all his positions.

The breach in the dam is at length closed up, and our town breathes more freely. It is believed that we are now past all further inconvenience arising from this source, and that the water will soon re-appear in our wells, and the mills be enabled to go right on sawing. The canal will probably be opened for boats about the 1st of June. In the meanwhile, the work upon the dam will progress till that institution is restored to a respectable condition of durability. There have been about 200 men employed upon this work in the various departments of labor and mechanical skill, and upwards of 20,000 perches of stone have been quarried and deposited in the dam.—Clinton Register.

Cooler than Coudersport.—The Mobile Register, edited by John Forsyth, Secretary of the Navy in President Tyler's Cabinet, in praise of Mr. Johnson's policy, declares that the Union army was a host of "radical consolidationists"; that the banner which these three Republicans trampled in the dust will yet, under Andrew Johnson's State Rights Democratic policy, emerge triumphantly from its overthrow; and that future generations will live to bless those who attempted the destruction of American nationality. Considering the fact that this disunion editor has been deprived of ice for four years by that fierce union radical, Farragut, and has had a hot time of it generally in Mobile, we call the above cool.

"BRAVE BOYS ARE THEY!" ATTENTION!

A call having been issued to the Soldiers of Pennsylvania to meet in Convention in the city of Pittsburg, on Tuesday, the 5th day of June, at 10 o'clock A. M., it is desired that the Soldiers of Potter meet in County Convention on May 31, in the Court House at Coudersport, at 2 o'clock P. M., to select two Delegates to the State Convention, and transact such other business as may seem to them necessary to promote their interests, and preserve unimpaired the character so bravely won. It is not necessary to hold previous township meetings for the purpose of selecting delegates, all who have been honorably discharged will be admitted to the Convention, and can vote.

Let the brave soldiers of Potter make an effort to secure a voice in the June Convention. None deserve more credit—as none more bravely battled for the right.

[We published the State Convention Call last week.]

The Union State Central Committee, This committee met on the afternoon of May 16th, at the National Union Club House, Philadelphia. We learn from the Press that a large majority of the members were present. Col. Frank Jordan, chairman, presided, and E. H. Rauch, Esq., of Berks county, was appointed secretary pro tem. The usual sub-committees were appointed, and arrangements made for future meetings of the principal committee. On motion, Wm. H. Kemble, Esq., of Philadelphia, was appointed treasurer, and the chairman was authorized to appoint three permanent secretaries. Messrs. George W. Hamerley, of Gettysburg; A. W. Benedict, of Huntington; and J. Robly Dunngilson, of Philadelphia, were selected as secretaries, and the appointments subsequently unanimously confirmed. The proceedings of the meeting were entirely harmonious, and the reports from all parts of the Commonwealth of the most flattering character. The members of the committee are determined to prosecute the campaign with energy and zeal, and are sanguine of electing our gallant standard-bearer Gen. Geary, by an immense majority.

VICTORY IN WILLIAMSPORT

104 Republican Majority.

Major James M. Wood Elected.

The first election for City Officers in Williamsport took place on Wednesday, and resulted in a glorious victory for the Republicans. The opposition made a most desperate effort to retain in power the men under whose auspices the Borough had become bankrupt, and the municipal affairs allowed to run loose and unsettled.

In the East Ward a mighty effort was made to carry the vote on a purely local and sectional basis. It was a fight against the prosperity of the western portion of the city, and the copperheads made the most of the feeling they could stir up on this subject. It will be seen that their candidate for Mayor obtained a very large majority in that Ward, which was whittled down as it proceeded westward where no fusion ticket or side issues were allowed to distract the Republican votes.

Mr. Cases had announced that he was a Jonssoon man, out and out. He expected to obtain the votes of all the Jonssoons—Republicans. How much that availed him, is seen by the fact that this year he is defeated by 104 majority, while he was elected by 27 majority when he ran as a pure "Democrat." This looks as if "My Policy" did not take well with either party in the new city.—Bulletin.

REBEL TESTIMONY.

The New York Times of May 4, contains a long review of the "Diary of a Rebel War Clerk," in which the following extract occurs showing what influence a Northern Democrat had in causing the bloodshed and loss of property by a prolonged rebellion:

June 22, 1863.—To-day I saw the memorandum of Mr. Ould, or the conversation held with Mr. Vallandigham, for file in the archives. He says if we can only hold out this year, that the peace party of the North would sweep the Lincoln dynasty out of political existence. He seems to have thought that our cause was sinking, and feared we would submit, which would, of course, be ruinous to his party. But he addresses strongly against any invasion of Pennsylvania, for that would unite all parties at the North, and so strengthen Lincoln's hands that he would be able to crush all opposition and trample upon the constitutional rights of the people.

Mr. Vallandigham was nominated by the Democracy of Ohio for governor of that state and his nomination was hailed with salutes by his partisans in other States, even here in Luzerne. This record should make them blush for shame if such a feeling is left to them. Let Union men bear it in mind.

Oswayo, May 21, 1866.

Editor POTTER JOURNAL: Enclosed you will find the names of fifteen new subscribers to your paper for the campaign, and the money, $9. I like the tone of your paper—it has the true ring. I hope it will be extensively patronized the ensuing season. Let every talented, patriotic man and woman in the county (for we have many) contribute to its columns, and let every family take the paper. By so doing Potter county will sustain the reputation, which she so richly deserves, of being one of the most enlightened and patriotic counties in the State; I shall get some more subscribers and will forward the names and the money soon. Yours, respectfully, [Won't others imitate the example of our friend Dr. Munson? The success of our cause depends upon the intelligence of the people; and all care, if they will, contribute to that end. We must not sit down with our hands in our pockets, hoping for success, but refusing to work. Right can only be secured by conquering Wrong. Evil is always strong; it is only by education that Good is secured. It is not an easy victory, but it can be made certain, by using the proper arms. It is a mistake to suppose that boisterous meetings just before an election are very effective agents for success. They perform their work, and are certainly not to be despised, but it is the constant study of the truth, and the constant and repeated presentation of indisputable facts concerning the great issues, that secures victory. "A printed word is the most potent influence on earth. The speech of an orator no matter how eloquent he may be, no matter how much his music may charm the ear of those who hear him, dies out of the mind. You are delighted with it; you repeat it; you chat about it with your friends. But time weakens the impression. The words begin to fall and to be forgotten; new sights and sounds crowd them out of recollection. But a printed word is another thing. It addresses itself persistently, constantly and forever, to the eye and to the mind. Children read it, although it may be but the rubbish of a library. It fastens its impression on young minds and old, with a firm, sharp touch which is beyond the power of spoken words, and which, if it begins to fade, can be deepened and renewed as often as you take up the forgotten pages. It never dies.
H. H. MUNSON.

On the east, south and west, by lands of H. H. Dent. Containing twenty-five acres, more or less, being lot No. 127 on the map of lands of H. H. Dent in Ullyses township, and part of warrants Nos. 1265, and 1814 about ten acres of which are improved with one frame house, and some other out-buildings, and some fruit trees thereon. To be sold as the property of Martha A. Whipple.

IT CANNOT BE.
Two or three weeks since, the Elk Advocate contained a long communication urging a union in this District of Johnson Republicans and Democrats upon a candidate for Congress and suggested the name of Col. Carlton B. Curtis of Warren, as a suitable amalgamation nominee. What political ground Col. Curtis at present pretends to stand upon we know not, but he is about the last man we should expect to find sailing under the "my policy" flag of Andrew Johnson. For the past ten days he has traveled in the front ranks of radicalism, but if he proposes to forsake his friends and companions in arms, and join the crew he has fought so long and so well his Friends (and he has many) in this section of the district are desirous of knowing it. We can assure him that no companions will join him from the Union ranks from this region.

We have yet to hear of a republican in McKean county who is willing to trust himself on Johnson's platform, and we must have more reliable evidence than the Elk Advocate, to convince us that Col. Carlton B. Curtis is ready to commit political suicide just yet. It cannot be that he is willing to sacrifice his good name, politically, by following the lead of a man who is proving himself so faithless to his friends and wickedly treacherous to his party.—McKean Miner.
