TELEGRAPHING.

The arrangements for Telegraphing are far in advance of anything of the kind over offered to the public. A regular Telegraph Line is connected with the Institution with twenty branch offices in various parts of the city, where public business is transacted, and in which students of this institution are permitted to practice. No regular office practice can be had in any other school of instruction in the country, without which no one can obtain a position as a practical energing. Young men are cautioned against the deceptive representations of those who, without any such facilities, pretend to teach Telegraphing.

**PATRONAGE**

This Institution is now enjoying the largest patronage ever bestowed upon any commercial school in the Stale. Over five hundred stunents were in attendance the first year, and over seven hundred during the past year. The best class of students may invariably be found here, and all its associations are first class.

LOCATION AND AGCOMMODATIONS. The Institution is located in the most central part of the city, and its accommonators, for extent, elegate and convenience, are unsurpassed.
