Dr. Franklin and the South Carolina
Planter.

A friend relates to us that the Summer before the war: t the house of la hospable South Carolina planter, he was up one morning with the sun and was about to venture forth on a morning walk, when he was checked by the planter at the door.

"You cannot pass, Sir. To early."

"You in sea ir; but a fallacy. Early rising and the inhalation, pon an empty stomach, of the morning malaria of this country, North and South, have been the death of thousands—the death of thousands, sir, from time of Capt. John Smith to this day. Wait till after breakfast, fortify your stomach with a cup of hot coffee, and then hoxious vapors of the night being exhalied by the sun, we will take a morning ride."

"But, my door Colonel, I am always fortified with a wine class of the OSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!"

"Ah, then, sir, you may stick to Dr. Franklin.—Hostetter's ingent at Charleston supplies me, and I am expecting a box to day with my wagon. Those Bitters, I find, are a sure protective against all the levers resulting from malaria. Poctor Franklin holds good, sir, even in the swamps of South Carolina, if fortified with Hostetter's Bitters.

A Single box of BRANDRETH'S PILLS contains more vegetable extractive matter than twenty boxes of any pills in the world besides; fifty-five hundred physicians use them in their practice to the exclusion of other purgatives. The first letter of their value is yet searcely suppreciated. When they are purgatives. The first letter of their value is yet scarcely appreciated. When they are better known, sudden death and continued sickness will be of the past. Let those who know them speak right out in their favor. It is a duty which will save life.

Our race is subject to a redundancy of vitiated bile at this season, and it is as dangerous as it is prevalent; but Brandreth's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection, By their occasional use we prevent the collection of those impurities which, when in sufficient quantities, cause so much danger to the body's health. A GENTS Wanted Everywhere TO CANVASS FOR THE GREAT BOOK OF 1866. "THE SOUTH."

A tour of its Battle fields and Ruined Cities, a Journey through the desolated States, and talks with the people.

By J. T. TROWBRIDGE.

BY J. T. TROWBRIDGE.

From personal observations and experience during months of Southern travel.

The author has had letters of introduction from men in high standing, to the head of all government departments in the South, civil and military. Whatever is known by these men of the suffering of the past present condition of things; as well as plans for the fature, will be made known in this book. The great popularity of the author, and intense interest in the subject, combine to make this by far the greatest selling book before the public, while our very liberal inducements pright a rare chance for Agents to make money.
