A FRANK REPLY.

The following letter from John S. Mann. Esq., of Coudersport, Potter county. Pennsylvania, is pointed and opportune. Rantiall, chief of the Bread-and-Butter Brigade at Washington, addressed Mr. Mann, sup posing him to be still postmaster at Coutlersport, a position which he occupied up to January last, when he took his seat as a GEN'L J. W. GEARY representative in the Legislature from his county. Not knowing that he had resigned Randall sent him, as to all other officials, a printed circular, and Mr. Mann's Reply is COUDERSPORT, POTTER CO., PA., July 6, 1866.

Hon. A. W. Randall:

Dear Sir: Your favor of June 25. enclosing a call for a National Union Convention, is received, with a request that if the call meets my approbation, I will signify it by a brief letter for publication.

I presume I have as good a right to signify my dissent as approval of this call, and I therefore take the liberty of saying that I have no sympathy with it nor with the men whose names are signed ti it.

In the spring of 1862 I spent some weeks in Washington, and every day was a listener to the great debate in the Senate on the right and duty of confiscating the property of traitors. The speeches of Messrs. Cowan, Doolittle, and Browning on that Cowan, Doolittle, and Browning on that occasion were all of them calculated, if not intended, to throw obstacles in the way of the triumph of our arms, and when I returned home I told my friends those Senators would all land in the camp of the Copperheads before the contest was settled.

Coudersport—W. W. Brown, M. M. Larrause, M. D. Mills, Jr. Eulalia—Jasper Spafford, John Ycomans, W.B. Lent, The endorsement of this call by the Copperhead members of Congress shows that it is the bridge over which these betrayers of their constituents are to march to the disloyal party of the nation.

If you think you can build up a party of any strength by parading the name of these recreants to the principles that exalted them into power, you deceive yourself.

The people are in carnest; they have made such sacrifices as no pen can portra; . to overthrow treason, and no sophistry can cheat them out of the just fruits of their victory, so dearly purchased—the first of which is, that loyal men, if they are only "five thousand" in a State, shall control its destinies and fill its offices.

Your movement seeks to give the control of the government of the nation into the hands of those who sought to destroy it, of the War" for 1865. and of their sympathizers; and so it will fail, just as the great Chicago movement failed. Read the effort to build up a Tyler party, and take warning.

Truly yours, for a National Union of John S. Mann.

The most bitter opponents of an error are hose who know the most about it. Before during and since the rebellion Southern Unionists subterfuges of the rebels at home or their allies in the North. At a recent meeting in Shelby county Missouri, it was resolved "that any policy that is warmly supported by every rebel, Copperhead, and guerilla in the land, is not the policy for Union men." That resolution ought to be reaffirmed by every Union convention in the United States.
