MAKING TREASON'ODIOUS. THE

One of the things which made Mr Johnson Vice- President, and by the death of Mr. Lincoln President of the United States was his celebrated saying, "Treason must be made odious, and traitors punished." The Union Loving people of this country saw safety in that speech. They adhered, to a man, to that programme. The felt-and feel-that if the leading traitors are GEN'L J. W. GEARY brought to punishment for their monstrous crime, and if treason is made odious, the country is safe, for we may hope to gain all else by argument, and by the help of time. Somehow traitors have not yet been punished. Many of the vilest and most pernicious have been pardoned; and the chief of all still lies in prison. Nevertheless, treason is daily becoming more odious; there is no doubt about it. It was more odious on the day after the Memphis riots ed that the Delegates meet at one than it was before; it was more odiou when the colored Unionists of Georgia were driv-en away from the Union soldiers' graves before the address. famous phrase. But it is just as effectual —it may turn out to be more so. For, the condemnation which the south-ean leaders are bringing upon themselves is more severe, and will bring with it severer penalties, than any the courts would have decreed. The Union loving people are quietly watching these men; they see them every where the abettors of violence, of un-righteousness, stirring up sedition, the in-dustrious sovers of hatred uncharitableness turbulent, lawless, defiant. They draw their own conclusions from all that has instructive stage. The Times says: What the Daily News understands by Con-servatives, is now manifest.
