OUR TICKET.

The County Convention which met in this place on Thursday of last week, was the fullest and most harmonious of any we have witnessed. for many of the offices the people had selected the candidates before its sitting, and its work was simply the work of confirmation. We were glad to see it. The spirit manifested is a sure harbinger of success.

The Convention recommends the nomination of Hon. STEPHEN F. WILSON, for re-election. We think it a very proper thing to do. At a time like this, when the moral effect of an election is to work more good perhaps than the individuals in themselves might accomplish, it is well to consider all the points which can assist in securing that much desired effect. Where members of the 39th Congress, who have been true, ask it, we think it best to re-elect them, without there is some very sufficient reason for refusing.
The present Congress must be sustained, if the people whose loyalty stood the test of four year's of rebellion, and is not born of bread-andbutter, desire to reap the legitimate fruits of that rebellion. The legislation so necessary in making treason odious must be completed. The effort made by a few in this district to give prominence to side-issues and questions of private plunder should be discountenanced by all true Union men. Mr. Wilson has proven himself a safe representative—his votes have always been on the side of Right and with the cause of Justice. He is a Radical and can be trusted. We want no "'alf an' 'alf' man.

want no "all ant and man.

For Assembly, Hon. John S. Mann, was renominated by acclamation. In our notice of Mr. Mann, last year, we reviewed what were considered the prominent traits in his character.

proach. He is truly a worthy representative.

For Treasurer, Capt. J. W. Stevens, was nominated on the first ballot there being but one competitor. He entered the army in October, 1861.. Was elected Corporal before leaving Coudersport, and was ordered to the colors on reaching Camp California, in Virginia, where he remained during the Peninsular campaign and the battle of Antietam. On the 25th of September, 1862, he was promoted to Sergeaut, and on the 1st of May 1864, he was further advanced to the position of 1st Orderly Sergeant. In September 1864, he received his commission as Captain of Co. G. 53d Pa. Vet. Vols., and his

Stevens is one of the "bravest of the brave," always at his post, a strict discipling any yet one of the 'kindext men it has ever been our good fortune to meet. We predict that he will make one of the best Treasurers that Potter County has ever had.

For Prothonotary, the present incumbent, Henry J. Olmsted, was a very proper endorsement of a very efficient officer. And now we are in-a quandary. Everybody knows "Henry"—his worth, his ability, his faithfulness, the success with which he has managed the important affairs entrusted to his care; and if we attempt to eulogize him, we will fail of shying all we should, and perhaps the best we can do is to chronicle the fact that the people have shown their approcediation of his merits by keeping him in the office of the the fact that the people have shown their appro-ciation of his merits by keeping him in the office of the the fact that the people have shown their appro-ciation of his merits by keeping him in the office of the the fact that the people have shown their appro-ciation of his merits by keeping him in the office of the unanimously adopted:

On motion, the nomination of Capt Stayens was declared preprinted to the strength of the position. Our hook rominated by acclaimation. In our notice of Mr. Maxs, last year, we reviewed what were considered the prominent traits in lis claracter. His course since hat shown that we were not mistaken, Popularity with him is always secondary where it conflicts with what is right, what is true, what is honest. The position he took and mantained during the Session of last be respect of all. He was always in his seat, always voted, and never voted for or against any measure which he is ashamed to acknowledge or have his constituents investigate. He was noted among his colleagues for his promptness, his fidelity and fearlessness, and on our visit to Harrisburg, during the session, we heard much that caused us to feel proud of the selection made by our people. Of his hability our readers know and by our people. Of his hability our readers know and by our people. Of his hability our readers know and by our people.
